The Quarterly Meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church, York Street, took place last evening. Sermons were delivered and the usual ceremonies of like occasions gone through.

Police Court—Saturday.—A couple of cases of vagrancy were properly disposed of. And one case of furious driving, which was rather leniently viewed, completed the list of offences at the court this morning.

The market on Saturday was rather sparingly attended, notwithstanding that there is a pretty good demand just now for provisions of all kinds. There was no material change in prices generally; turkeys, geese and fowl being a little dearer however.

Masonic Ball.—We would remind our readers once more of the Grand Masonic Ball, to take place in the Music Hall on the evening of St. John's day. Great preparations have been made by the Committee, and the whole craft of the city are determined that it shall be the grandest affair of the kind of the season.

Arrivals at the Russell House on Saturday were:—Thomas Hearn, J Hope, W L Hyde, Montreal, R Reid, F Hurdon, Kingston; T Daly, Toronto; A Richards, Brockville; B Rosamond, J Rosamond, jr., Toronto; F Hall, Perth; G Pope, Boston; Jas L Langevin, Quebec; A Lockhart, Carlow.

Wood.—There was an immense market of wood on Saturday. Good seasoned hardwood sold for $3.00 per double sleighload, and soft wood was proportionately cheap. It is evident from the supply already coming into the market that wood will be very cheap during the winter, notwithstanding the predictions to the contrary.

Ottawa No. 1 Fire Company's Annual Ball.—The Ottawa No. 1 Fire Company will give their annual ball in the St. Patrick's Hall, on the 27th instant. This company have always been very successful in undertakings of this kind, and no doubt their usual energy will be exercised in the coming ball. Music will be supplied by Sutherland's Band, and refreshments provided by Mrs. Frederick.

Lecture.—The lecture by the Rev. Mr. Stephenson in the Wesleyan Methodist Church last evening was delivered in the usually able and eloquent style of that gentleman. It was the fifth of the Rev. gentleman's series of lectures on life in large cities, and the special subject upon which he treated was "The City by Midnight." The audience was very large and appeared greatly impressed by the lecturer's forcible eloquence.

Runaways and accidents, the result of furious driving, have been uncommonly numerous already this winter. A horse runaway on York street on Saturday, and one passing the market came in contact with a team of horses belonging to a farmer named Roberts, and into the side of one of which the shaft of the sleigh attached was run to an almost fatal extent. By the accident the horse was rendered useless and will have to be killed.

Lecture in St. Patrick's Hall.—A gentleman not by any means unknown to literary fame—Mathew Ryan, Esq., Advocate, of Montreal—is to deliver a lecture on "The Business Capacity of the Irish as a people, in connection with Savings Banks," on Thursday evening next. On more than one occasion we have listened with pleasure to the utterances of Mr. Ryan, and we are sure that on this occasion all who attend will leave much the better and wiser, for an hour spent in the company of a gentleman so talented and particularly acquainted with a subject which he will at once elucidate and embellish.

Furious driving is still indulged in to a very alarming extent in Ottawa. A few days ago a young boy narrowly escaped being run over by a horse being driven at a furious rate on Elgin street. There are a number of fast young men in our midst who own or hire fast horses and jeopardize the lives of pedestrians by their furious driving. Accidents have frequently occurred this winter from fast driving and we would advise those persons who indulge in that sport to desist from doing so in future as there is heavy punishment awaiting such offenders henceforth.

Miss Lillie Lonsdale.—This talented lady will appear for the first time before an Ottawa audience, at the Music Hall, Wednesday evening, and we trust will be met with a crowded house. She is highly spoken of by the press of Toronto; and the Transcript of Paris, Ont., (in which town she recently appeared) speaks as follows of her performance: "As a singer, have seldom seen surpassed by any actress who has visited Paris. 'Charles Fitz Folly,' the 'Young Man of the Period,' was perfection, and especially pleasing to the female portion of the audience. 'Sergeant Buzfuz,' from Dickens' celebrated trial, 'Pickwick vs. Bardell,' was to our mind admirably executed, and exhibited the foibles, peculiarities and eccentricities of certain gentlemen of the 'long robe' with singular accuracy. 'Jemina Ann,' the 'Servant of all Work,' was also good, and was rapturously encored." It is very seldom, indeed, that we have the opportunity of witnessing exhibitions like Miss Lonsdale's and our townspeople, if they desire two hours of rare amusement of a high order, should attend on Wednesday evening, at the Music Hall.

Fire on Bolton Street.—About 3:30 this morning a fire broke out in a double tenement house on Bolton street, a short distance from Sussex street. The building, a large frame one, was owned by P. Morin, by whom one tenement of the house was occupied, the other tenement being occupied by Mr. Gorman. The fire was first seen by Sergeant McVitty and Constable Little, who had just come down from Upper Town, and were walking along Sussex street. On making certain that a house was on fire, the Constable ran back to the station to give the alarm, and the Sergeant hurried to the house, where he found all the inmates fast asleep and insensible to the danger which surrounded them. Some of the inmates were so difficult to awaken that had not the fire been discovered as early as it was, serious results might have been the consequence.

The fire was caused by a defective flew. When seargent McVitty arrived at the house there was a small flame issuing from the gable in the neighborhood of the chimney, and had there been a supply of water it is believed the fire could have been extinguished then, and even when the fire engines arrived there was hope in this direction were water to be had. The universal saying in the neighborhood as the building was being devoured by the flames was "another strong argument for Water Works. It was really ridiculous to behold the endeavors made by the energetic Firemenr to extinguish the flames with the few pails ful of water which were brought on to the scene at intervals of ten minutes—little barrels containing a few gallons of water, and for which will have to be paid 25cts. each barrel. Had a wind been blowing at the time, it is certain that we would, instead of a single building, have to record a destructive conflagration embracing the half of Bolton street. All the buildings in the immediate vicinity are wooden, and a slight wind would, under the circumstances, have communicated the flames. Mr. Morin's house is valued at about $1,600, and we believe there was no insurance on it. The house was totally destroyed, but the furniture saved.

VICTORIA WARD.

We are authorized to state that Mr. A. H. Baldwin was called upon on Saturday by Mr. F. Abbott and many leading citizens of the Ward, and pressed in the most urgent manner to allow himself to be nominated as Alderman for the Ward. We are pleased to say that Mr. Baldwin has consented to run. If a few more of our extensive traders and good sensible men would come out, our city in the course of a few years would benefit by their advice and experience; they would not allow the city taxes to be frittered away every year and have no improvements to shew. Men like Mr. Baldwin, who, from experience in their own business, must know the value of labour and how to have work done to the best advantage, are the men we want, to try and raise Ottawa to the position of a first class city.

Ottawa Field Battery.

Owing to the press of matter in our issue of saturday, we were obliged to leave over our account of the presentation of prizes to the Ottawa Field Battery, which took place on Friday evening last. The prizes were awarded by Lieut.-Col. Wily. The following is the list of prizes:—

Court of Genral Sessions and County Court.

Muldoon vs. Heenan. Mr. Mosgrove for plaintiff; Mr. W. A. Ross for defendant. Verdict for plaintiff $100. Mr. Ross will move in term to set aside verdict.

Germain vs. Connelly. Mr. Lapiere for plaintiff; Mr. Kimber for defendant. This was an action for $100 obtained by the defendant from the Ontario Bank on a note made by mistake for $300, instead of $200, the plaintiff having intended to give a note for $200. The evidence for the plaintiff was perfectly clear that the intention was to give a note simply for $200 and in fact this was admitted by defendant But the contention was that the defendant only received $200. The bank teller proved that the defendant received $200, being the proceed of $300. The jury, however, took an unaccountable view of the matter, and returned a verdict for the defendant.

The applications for naturalization which we noticed at the opening of the court were granted.

Martin vs. McIntyre—An action on a promissory note for $214. Gibbs for plaintiff, Mosgrove for defendant—Verdict for plaintiff, $214 and against defendant for intention to defraud. The Judge reserves sentance until next term.

Bell vs. Bell—A case of appeal for assault. Owing to the absence of the complainant, the case was let stand over to next term of court.

Johannis vs. Cameron—An appeal from a conviction of selling goods on Sunday. Quashed on account of non-appearance of prosecution.

Some futher appeal cases having been disposed of, the session was brought to a close.

Ladies and Children's Fancy Woolen

The Florence Nightingale of the Nursery—The following is an extract from a letter written by the Rev. C. Z. Weiser, to the "German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburg, Penn.:

"THE INFANT'S FRIEND.

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are sure, that we will teach our "Suzy" to say, "A Blessing on Mrs. Winslow," for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking and teething siege. We confirm every word set forth in the Prospectus. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. Away with your "Cordial," "Paregoric," "Drops," "Laudanum," and every other "Narcotic," by which the babe is drugged into stupidity, and rendered dull and idiotic for life.

We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know he only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power, we would make her, as she is, a physical Saviour to the Infant Race. 25 cents per bottle sold by all druggists.

Be sure and call for

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.

Having the fac-simile of "Curtis & Perkins" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations.

A "Cough," "Cold," or Irritated Throat, allowed to progress, results in serious pulmonary and Bronchial affections, of tentimes incurable.

Dr. G. F. Bigelow, Boston,
Prof. Edwd. North, Clinton, N. Y.,
Surgeons in the Army, and others of eminence

Sold everywhere at 25 cents per box.

"Troches," so called, sold by the ounce, are a poor imitation and nothing like Brown's Bronchial Troches, which are sold only in boxes with a fac-simile of the proprietors,
