To-day the election for Aldermen takes place. There is to be no contest except for Ottawa Ward. Mr. Woodburn having retired from Wellington, which shows his good taste and sense. Few persons realize the enormity of the crime they commit by being directly or indirectly interested in contracts with a municipality in which they are serving as guardians. This has been exposed in the Tammany Ring to a great extent, and we hope there will be no repetition of it in Ottawa even to a small extent. As to Mr. Goulden contesting Ottawa Ward, while we always admired his eloquence in the council we felt that when there he was the real Mr. Goulden that kept the hotel, and to him the profits of that establishment went, although the license may have been taken out in some other name,—his serving as Alderman no doubt was contravening the law in spirits. We hope the worthy ex-Alderman will lay his hand on his breast and say to himself before he takes the oath of office, can I do so conscientiously and not violate the statute in spirit?

MESSRS.

ORME & SON

having now in their Show Rooms one of the largest Stocks of

Pianos, Organs, &c

ever shown to a Canadian public, would respectfully solicit a call from intending purchasers.

We would draw particular attention to the

McCammon Piano,

for which we are Sole Agents. They are, without doubt, the best and cheapest Piano now made, possessing a Full, round and mellow tone,

Easy and Elastic Touch, Great Durability,

and a highly Ornamental and Elegant Appearance.

As will be seen by the accompanying report, Messrs Wm. McCammon & Co. were awarded the first premium on Piano Fortes at the recent International Exhibition at Buffalo. This is the thirty seventh first premium that Messrs McC & Co. have received on their Pianos at different fairs.

Report of Judges on Piano Fortes at the International Exhibition, Buffalo:

We, the undersigned, after a paying such careful and critical tests as to determine at once to the experienced ear and hand the comparative merits of Pianos, to those now on exhibition at the Rink, respectfully submit the following as the result of our trial:

We cannot too highly recommend the Pianos on exhibition by McCammon & Co, of Albany, for their sympathetic and singing quality of tone, their evenness of scale and excellence of workmanship. They admit also of the most sudden and violent forcing without the slight at perceptible change of the strings, even in the smallest instrument. This, we are confident, cannot be said of any piano of similar size made by any other parties in this country. We would, then, unhesitatingly pronounce the McCammon & Co Pianos worthy in every respect of the first prize, possessing as they do all the indispensable requisites of a first class Piano.
