Sally Ann's Kettle Campaigns are under way

The 2015 Salvation Army Kettle Campaign officially kicked off in Halton Hills on Nov. 26 with Mayor Rick Bonnette giving a speech about the importance of contributions and then participating in a carol sing-along. The Christmas kettle is located in the Georgetown Market Place in front of the Santa Claus booth. The Georgetown goal is $75,000. The Christmas kettle in Acton is located at Sobeys. The Acton campaign is $63,000. All the monies raised stay in Halton Hills for local programs providing shelter, food, clothing and emergency services. Halton Hills Mayor Rick Bonnette (right) makes his speech while behind, Emily Allen of the Salvation Army's Georgetown Community Church and Chase Allen, 8, man the kettle.
