The Missing Steamer 'Spartan'. A Nice Legal Point. Lachine Regatta. Arrest of a Telegrapher. A Duel Fiasco. McMullen Sues the Gazette for Libel.

[Special to the TIMES.]

MONTREAL, Aug. 24.

The steamer 'Spartan' arrived safely in port yesterday morning. The cause of her delay was the breaking of the sheafe of her rudder blocks which caused the wheels chain to jam. If the break had occurred ten minutes earlier the 'Spartan' would probably have been lost in the Rapids.

A meeting of the St. Patrick's Society was held on Friday night, at which Mr. Michael Donovan was elected President in the place of the late F. Cassidy, Esq. The validity of the election is disputed by some members on the ground that a quorum was not present at the time, and that some who took part in the proceedings were disqualified from voting.

A few days ago Mr. Vilbon, an official assignee for the County of Hochelaga, instituted proceedings before the Superior Court here, claiming the appointment of assignee to the estate of Mr. Alex. McGibbon, grocer. The grounds of his claim are in substance that the Insolvent Act requires a trafter to make an assignment only to an assignee in the county, in which, he (the insolvent) resides. Mr. Vilbon contends that, McGibbon's assignment to Mr. Craig, whose jurisdiction is the city, was therefore illegal, as the insolvent resided on the St. Catharine Road, in the County of Hochelaga, and though doing business in the city, the assignment should have been made to an assignee resident in the County of Hochelaga. Should the proceedings by Mr. Vilbon be sustained, as it is said they are likely to be, everything that has been done in regard to the McGibbon estate will have to be annulled, and a new and regular assignment have to be made.

At the Lachine regatta yesterday the yacht race was won by 'Surprise,' and the open boat race by 'Panama.'

Thomas O'Brien, laborer, St. Patrick's street, is held on a charge of perjury; he having, it is alleged, falsely sworn that he was Thomas Boyce, and as such cast a vote for Councillor McShane. Boyce, it appears, has been dead some weeks.

The work of revising the election returns by the various officers, under the surveillance of Sheriff Leblanc, was commenced yesterday morning. An official return will not be completed for several days.

Rev. M. Prochet, pastor of the Waldensian Church Genoa, preached this morning in Cote Street Church, at the French Protestant Church in the afternoon, and in the Erskine Church this evening.

There was not a quorum at the meeting of the Harbor Commissioners yesterday, and the meeting was adjourned until Monday at one o'clock.

It became public yesterday that Mr. F. X. Archambault, advocate, had challenged Mr. J. A. Mousseau, Q.C., to mortal combat, for alleged personal insults published in the papers. After two days spent in explanations and interviews with Mr. Archambault's second Mr. Mousseau declined to give satisfaction.

MEMPHIS, August 24—The steamer 'Julia' arrived here about eleven o'clock to-day, bringing most of the survivors of the 'George Wolfe,' among them was Henry C. Carter, her commander, who was considerably bruised about the head and body. As soon as the fire was extinguished every thing possible was done to relieve the sufferers. The captain states that he had only ten or twelve cabin passengers, of whom only one was lost. Owing to the condition of Weden, the clerk, who was severely burned about the throat, it was impossible to obtain a list of passengers and the books were all lost. The passengers speak in the highest terms of Captain Carter and his officers.

The following is a list of those lost, as far as can be ascertained:—Peter Hesser, Mr. Nelson, of New York; Mr Dawson, wife and two children, of Shreveport; G White, of Michigan, and several colored servants, four of whom were found and buried. The following are the wounded, all of whom reside in St. Louis:—Capt. Carter, Joseph H Widen, Clerk; James Donoghue, Pilot; Jas. Canahan, Col Eborem, John Coursen, Engineer McGarthy, T Barker, Jas Smith, 3rd Cook, Mrs Frisbie, Shreveport, and her daughter.

FRENCH AFFAIRS.

Important Speech by the Duc de Brogelie.

PARIS, Aug. 23rd.—The Prefect of the Department of the Eure gave an entertainment to-day in honor of the Duc de Brogelie. The Minister of Foreign Affairs and many distinguished Englishmen were among the party. In reply to a toast Duc de Brogelie said that the Government of the Republic was engaged in a struggle, not against public opinion, but against those loose principles which threaten to put an end to social order. The struggle was a perilous one; it might be a long one; it would require, in support of the Government, the efforts of all the honest citizens of the republic The problem of the situation should be solved by the National Assembly without passion and without the influence of personal sympathies. He pronounced a high encomium upon the character of President McMahon, whose private life and public actions entitled him to be called a model of honor. It was a piece of good fortune for France to be possessed of such a President as General McMahon, whose loyalty to his country is above claims of party. Let us rally around him. He alluded in kind terms to the ex-President, to whom, however, he thought the Assembly had manifested ample gratitude for his great services.

STORE NEW

By the use of

Enamellene

The most ordinary ironer is enabled to compete with the most skilful, giving the linen the appearance it had when it came from the store,—new and beautiful. Goods done up with it keep clean much longer, thereby saving time and labor in washing. This is the most economical article that can be used, costing only about three cents to do the ironing of a large family. It gives the Linen such a smooth glossy surface that the dust and dirt will not adhere to it, so that it will keep clear much longer. It is very highly recommended by the Montreal Herald, Le Minerve, Le National, and by all the leading American papers.

It is put up in boxes to last a family about three months, and can be had from all respectable Grocers, Druggists and Dealers in House Furnishing Goods 25 cents per box.
