The Flooded District in Pennsylvania

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 19.—The river is falling, but the more the gorges are looked at the greater the danger appears, and the more frightened the inhabitants grow. To add to the frozen appearance of the valley, a raging snow storm has set in.

A Marietta despatch says the snow on the street has been 10 to 40 feet deep.

The Floods in Tennessee.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 19.—The Commercial solicit aid for the sufferers by the tornado. Great distress prevails there among those left homeless. The damage sustained amounts to $100,000.

The Mississippi is rising, and is now within two feet of high water mark. The planters expect an overflow.

Troubles in the Ohio Mining District

COLUMBUS, O., March 19.—The troubles among the coal miners at Stuartsville have recommenced. On Wednesday several negroes were attacked by white miners and brutally beaten. W. B. McClury, superintendent of the Stuartsville mine, engaged in a pistol duel with a white miner who demanded his surrender, and succeeded in mortally wounding his antagonist. Upon being warned to leave, McClury and 25 coloured miners departed for Loganville. Mitchell, foreman of the company, was yesterday given three hours' notice to leave the town, which he did, and arrived here to-day accompanied by Mr. Harbaugh, another employee of the company. Mitchell says five or six men, carrying guns, entered his office at noon yesterday and made violent demonstrations; they threatened to club him with their guns, and one pointed a cocked gun at him and threatened to shoot him. Harbaugh left Stuartsville this morning. The company's store and contents were burned last night, involving a loss of from $10,000 to $15,000. Everybody about the company's works were driven off, and there was no person on the premises to oppose the incendiaries. He learned that during the day the question of burning the building at night was the subject of general conversation, but the authorities made no effort to prevent it. The Sheriff of Perry County will meet Governor Ames to-night.

Execution of a Bandit.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—The bandit Vasquez was executed to-day at San Jose. No attempt was made at a rescue, though one was feared a day or two ago. Everything passed of quietly. Vasquez asserted to the last his innocence of the crime of murder at any time during his career, but acknowledged the justice of his fate, having been the leader of a murderous band.

Retrenchment of Canal Expenses

NEW YORK, March 19.—The Governor in a special message to the Legislature renews his recommendation in respect to the canals, which recent amendments of the constitution empowered the Legislature to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of; that while the manner of their disposition remains undetermined, no expenditure should be made on these works not strictly necessary, in view of the probable future. The wisdom of abstaining from all new work, except that which is not only useful, but absolutely necessary, is obvious. Every item should be scrutinized with jealous care. Thorough retrenchment in ordinary and extraordinary repairs will enable the State to remit for the present year, as compared with the last, to boatmen and transporters from five to six hundred thousand dollars' worth of tolls; and at the same time to give relief to our over-burdened tax-payers in a reduction of their taxes to the extent of more than a million and three-quarters of dollars. If the restoring of the Erie Canal to its proper dimensions, and the deepening of its water way can be deferred till next year, and then be proceeded with gradually, there is little else which cannot wait. The Governor illustrates how the State is defrauded in contract letting. He recommends that here after bids be opened and awards of contracts be made by the canal board. It is clear that under the present system of canal management the people will not be relieved from taxation, boatmen from high tolls, or the needed improvements of the Erie and Champlain Canals be finished. Our duty is clear; let us cut off expenses which divert the revenues from the general improvement of canals to local purposes; make every official, employee and contractor feel that the laws you have just passed against fraud will be enforced, and our canals will be finished, their commerce revived, and taxation lessened, not only as it oppresses the boatmen, but also all other classes of our citizens.

Floods in Maryland.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 19.—The water is five to fifteen feet deep in the streets of Port Deposit, Md., and the destruction of property is great, but no lives have been lost. At Havre-de-Grace the ice has gorged about five miles below the town, the wharves there are all flooded, and whole piles of lumber have been swept from them. The streets next to the river are completely blocked with ice. The water is falling now.

The Tilton-Beecher Trial.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. Shearman, Mrs. Field and Bessie Turner were present in the court room this morning. Beecher and his wife were in their places. Evarts and Fullerton were late, which little so being accounted for by Moulton. Halliday resumed the stand and his cross-examination was continued by Fullerton. He testified, after being handed a copy of the West charges, that after they were presented to the Examining Committee in a completed form, he did not give them any advice in regard to the charges. I was directed not to serve a copy of the charges. The meeting at which these charges were presented was in July, 1873. I did not state at that meeting that it was not the desire of Beecher that the charges should not be presented. I did not speak to Mrs. Bradshaw about her appearing as a witness before this committee, but Mrs. Bradshaw spoke to me on the subject. Witness was asked what Mrs. Bradshaw had said on that occasion. Evarts objected, as it was a conversation at which Beecher was present; and the court ruled it out.

The Gold Clique.

NEW YORK, March 19.—The present gold speculation is exciting considerable comment.—While it is conceded a strong clique has obtained control of the market, opinions differ widely as to who compose the pool. The bank statement is expected to show a continued locking up process of the "Gold Clique." Great efforts will be made to get the reserve of banks below legal limit, by keeping about ten million dollars gold off the market. The present tactics of the clique, if continued much longer, will result in increasing largely the supply of gold at this point. Already gold is pouring in from California, $650,000 gold coin having arrived from San Francisco yesterday, consigned to leading bankers, and more is on the way. Gold is also coming from Canada and Europe. It is also estimated that $12,000,000 gold coin has arrived here from San Francisco since January first.

A Serious Charge.

BOSTON, March 19.—A correspondent of the Advertiser, and an eye witness, attributes the loss of thirteen lives of the crew of the Italian bark Giovanni, which was lately wrecked off Cape Cod, to the cowardice and incompetency of the two men, Captain David Akins and E. P. Worthin, in charge of the life saving stations Nos. 6 and 7. He charges them with refusing to send boats when their crews were ready to man them. An investigation and punishment of these men is demanded.

QUEBEC.

Bank Dividend—Board of Trade.

QUEBEC, March 19.

La Banque Nationale have declared a half-yearly dividend of 4 per cent. The annual meeting will take place on 5th May.

The Quebec Board of Trade have petitioned the Government against the bill "To define and settle the duties of Carriers by land and water" on the ground that its provisions would be highly injurious to the shipping interest of the Dominion, and an infringement of the right of British and other ship owners. The Board also petitioned against that part of the proposed Inspection Act having for its object the repealing of section 64 of 37 Vic., cap. 45, because the repealing of that section would have the effect of abolishing compulsory inspection of fish and fish oils, which has heretofore worked so satisfactorily in the interests of trade.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

Opening of the Legislature.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., March 18.

The Tenants' Compensation Act, 1872, and the Act in amendment thereof, 1873, have received the sanction of Her Majesty. Papers relating to the Provincial Lunatic Asylum will be brought down, and hopes are expressed that a measure will be adopted for the erection of an establishment commensurate with the requirements of the Province. Allusion is also made to the Island railway, papers in reference to which will be submitted, and congratulations are offered on the bountiful harvest and the general prosperity of the Province.

Owing to the neglect of the Township Councils of Mosa and Biddulph in not passing the necessary by-laws, no shop or tavern licenses can be legally issued this year. This unexpected prohibitory law is not received with the best grace in the world.

CITY COUNCIL.—There will be a special meeting of the City Council on Monday night.

THE Hon. GEORGE BROWN left for Toronto by last night's train on the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Railway.

BOOK SALE.—Clearing out all our stock of books—Thackeray, Shakespeare, Byron, in fine binding, to-night, at Henry's Block, Sparks street. J. M. Ross & Co.

THE CURLING TANKARD.—The match for the silver tankard presented by the members of Parliament to the Ottawa Curling Club begins to-day, and promises to be an interesting affair. The playing will be by points, each competitor having to play on his own merits.

MARKET CLEANING.—The necessary steps have been taken to give the different city markets a regular overhauling and good cleaning for the Easter holidays. This is a work that has been long delayed, but when completed it will prove a benefit not only to the butchers but also to the public. The By Ward Market has been in a disgraceful state for the last few years.

The wing of the American House, Boston, damaged by fire in November, has been remodelled, and improved by a fire-proof French roof. The new rooms have been refurnished in a manner reflecting great credit on the proprietors, who seem never wearied in supplying every convenience for the comfort and pleasure of their guests, and thus retaining their well earned hold on the favour of the travelling public.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—A coroner's inquest was held yesterday by Dr. Beaubien, on the body of the man Meilleur, found dead on the Montreal Road. The deceased was a young man of about 20 years of age, and not addicted to the vice of habitual intemperance, yet on this occasion drink and exposure to the intense cold of the night doubtless brought about his melancholy demise. The verdict of the jury was "Found frozen to death."

NEW LUMBER YARD.—We would direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. Wm. Queale in to-day's issue. Mr. Queale has established a lumber yard on the corner of Sally and Slater Streets, and is prepared to furnish lumber, venetian blinds, doors, sashes and all kinds of building material, dressed and undressed. Building operations will be brisk the coming season, and Mr. Queale's enterprise deserves to be rewarded by a thriving trade in his line.

NEW STREET CAR.—One of the proposed new street cars, or rather omnibuses, was on the route yesterday, and is a really handsome vehicle. It is mounted upon wheels, and swung at a considerable distance from the ground. At the rear of the car is a projecting platform, which is reached from the street by steps on either side. The management of the car requires the services of a driver and conductor, which will be a great acquisition, as considerable confusion has hitherto existed for the want of such an official. These cars are exclusively for use in spring and fall, to overcome the interruptions which unavoidably
