Attraction Extraordinary, Boucicault's last and greatest play, entitled

The Shaughraun,

Having run 5 consecutive months at Wallack's Theatre, New York.

The celebrated Irish comedian and vocalist, Mr. E. A. McDOWELL, as supported by the finest dramatic Company ever seen in Canada. Every member selected especially for the piece, by Mr. Boucicault from the Metropolitan Theatres. The entire scenic effects, as used at Wallack's Theatre, will be brought here at an enormous outlay, viz: the Revolving Tower, the Moonlit Abbey, the Wake Scene, all of which are duly copyrighted.

Conn, the Shaughraun,

See Mr. Boucicault's letter of warning to INFRINGERS.

Notwithstanding the enormous expense of this engagement, admission will be 75, 50, 35 and 25 cents. Reserved seat sale commences at Gowan's Store, Saturday at 9 a. m.

Wallack's Theatre, New York March 21, '75.

Mr. Eugene A. McDowell,

SIR,—I have disposed of the right to play my drama, the Shaughraun, in Canada, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, to you; I have provided you with all necessary indications and notes to enable you to present the piece perfectly in the towns you may visit, and you are at liberty to use this letter in any way that may serve you with the public. I fully trust in the sense of justice, you will find in the public press wherever you go to discourage the piracies, I regret to say are only too common. I believe firmly that public opinion is a more effectual restraint than legal procedure in such cases.

Yours Faithfully,
DION BOUCICAULT.

LEA & PERRINS'

Celebrated

Worcestershire Sauce!

Declared by connoisseurs to be

THE ONLY GOOD SAUCE.

CAUTION AGAINST FRAUD

The success of this most delicious and nutritious condiment having caused certain dealers to apply the name of "Worcestershire Sauce" to their own inferior compounds, the public is hereby informed that the only way to secure the genuine is to and to see that their names are upon the wrapper, label, stopper and bottle.

ASK FOR LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE,

Some of the foreign markets having been supplied with a spurious Worcestershire Sauce, upon the wrapper and labels of which the names of Lea and Perrins have been forged, Lea and Perrins have found it necessary to give notice that they have furnished their correspondents with power of attorney to take instant proceedings against Manufacturers and Vendors of such, or any other Imitations by which their right may be infringed.

Ask for LEA & PERRINS' Sauce, and see Name on Wrapper, Label, Bottle, and Stopper.

Wholesale and for Export by the proprietors, Worcester; Crosse and Blackwell, London, &c., &c., and by Grocers and Oilmen universally.

YESTERDAY'S DESPATCHES.

UNITED STATES.

Disastrous Fire.

DETROIT, Mich., April 29.—Early this morning, a fire in the factory of the Webber Furniture Company, on the corner of High and Montcalm streets, consumed the factory and ten or twelve houses adjoining. The factory building was five-storeys high, brick, situated in a thickly settled neighbourhood. Loss on factory building is $200,000, and on machinery, stock, &c., $100,000. Estimated loss on dwellings and contents, $30,000 to $50,000. Insurance unknown.

Opening of Navigation

WHITEHALL, N.Y., April 29.—Reports from Lake Champlain indicate that the lake will be clear of ice to-morrow. The steamers are expected to commence regular trips next Monday.

Murder.

DETROIT, MICH, April 29.—Last evening two coloured women, mother and daughter, the former named Elizabeth Thomas, and the latter Harriett Gisbert, were found dead in their beds. Their bodies were chopped and hacked with an axe almost beyond semblance of human beings. Suspicion points to John Thomas, the husband of the first named, a coloured barber; he has been arrested.

GEORGETOWN, DEL., April 29.—The negro preacher and wife murderer was captured this morning in the attic of the negro church here. He has been there since the murder, and heard the funeral sermon of his murdered wife.

Cheap Transportation Company.

Boston, 29th.—The preliminary meeting for the organization of a cheap transportation society was held last night. An adjourned meeting will be held on May 5th to adopt the constitution and perfect the organization.

Workhouse Partially destroyed by Fire.

Pittsburg, Pa., 28th.—The Alleghaney County workhouse, situated at Claremont, nine miles from Pittsburg, was partially destroyed by fire this afternoon. It was one of the most complete institutions of the kind in the country, and has been not only self-supporting, but a source of considerable revenue to the county. Out of 350 prisoners, it is thought but few escaped. Loss $50,000; insured.

Buffalo Gnats.

MEMPHIS, April 28.—Complaints are pouring in from all parts of the surrounding country of the fearful destruction of horses and mules by buffalo gnats. Many of the planters, and especially colored ones, are ruined by having their only horses or mules killed, find being unable to replace them at a time when they are so badly needed. A letter from a planter near Macon, Fayette County, says not less than 200 horses and mules have died during the past three days within ten miles of there.

A Negro Lynched.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 29.—A negro named Dan White attempted to ravish a widow lady living near Raleigh, Shelby County, on whose plantation he was at work. Her cries attracted the attention of her son, at the sight of whom the negro fled, but was afterwards captured and taken to Bartlett to await his trial. On Tuesday night he was taken from the jail by a party of disguised men, carried to the woods and hanged.

Midnight Despatches.

GREAT BRITAIN.

No Sympathy from Prussia.

LONDON, April 29, 6.30 a.m.—The Daily Telegraph's Berlin despatch says the Prussian Government intends to ignore the letter of sympathy addressed by Roman Catholic bishops of Great Britain to those of Germany.

Belgian Courts Incompetent.

The Times' despatch from Berlin says the Belgian Minister of Justice has made an explicit statement that the Belgian Courts are incompetent to take up proceedings against Duchesne, and this statement has been transmitted to Berlin.

Prussian Diet and the Catholics.

The Government Committee of the Prussian Diet has prepared a bill declaring Old Catholics entitled to a share of Roman Catholic churches, cemeteries, and revenues, proportionate to their numbers as compared with other Catholics.

UNITED STATES.

Loss by Fire.

NEWBURG, April 29.—The total loss by fire at Ramsdell & Co's storehouse last night was $15,000 to $20,000.

The Rev. Dr. Hare and Rev. Dr. King, recently appointed pastors of the Methodist Church here, lost their libraries, valued at $3,000 each, which were stored in the building; total insurance, $15,000.

An Attack on Constables.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 29.—To day Constable Michael Casey went to Plymouth township to levy upon the goods of James Connell, but was resisted, and returned to this city for assistance. Police Officer Reibsenner went with him, and they found that the whole Connell family, comprising ten or a dozen men, had congregated together in one house and barricaded it. When the officers approached they were fired upon, Reibsenner receiving three balls, one in his head and two in his body, and Casey was also shot. Reibsenner now lies with no hopes of recovery. The Constable now lies in a very critical condition. Two of the Connells have been arrested, the others at last accounts were surrounded so that they could not escape. The whole family are desperadoes, and it is feared with probably fight last.

LATER.

The old man Connell and three of his sons, Edward, Lawrence and Thomas have been arrested. A posse of one hundred men surrounded the house. The old man threatened to shoot any person who approached with hostile intent, and declared that he would die before he would be arrested. An attempt was made to break in the front door which was heavily barricaded and several volleys were fired from inside but no one was hit, everything being in readiness, finally after a desperate fight the Connell's were handcuffed and brought here. The two sons who fired from the window and struck officer Riebenner were held for that cause, and the others also were sent to prison. Riebsenner is sinking rapidly. Casey will probably recover, although he has fourteen buck shots in his body. Over a dozen muskets and rifles, most of them loaded were found in the house of the Connell's after their capture.

A Law Suit.

The Times to-morrow will announce that the Attorney General has commenced a suit against Henry Starkweather for $105,608 with interest and costs of suit. The defendant was at one time an officer in the Street Department and head of the Bureau for the collection of assessments in said Department.

Probabilities

For Middle States, areas of rain followed by clearing and cooler weather; north to west winds and rising barometer.

Aid for the Dan Bryant Family.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The performances at the principal theatres for the benefit of the late Dan Bryant's family was largely attended. The proceeds which the family will receive entire will exceed $25,000.

Valuable Library Destroyed

SHELBY, Ky. April 29.—The residence of Lucy Bakewell, in which was the library of the great naturalist, Audubon, was burned to-day. Mrs. Bakewell was a relative of Audubon, and his library had been left with her. The collection consisted of eight hundred volumes of inestimable value to scientists.

Arrest of an ex-Congressman.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 29.—Ex Congressman Bowen was to-day arrested for instigating the murder of Col. White, committed eleven years ago. This was the charge for the publication of which the News and Courier were last week prosecuted for libel. Judge Read released Bowen on $2,000 bail.

Rain and Wind Storm.

CLEVELAND, April 29.—A severe rain and wind storm passed over Cleveland this afternoon, doing much damage to roofs, chimneys, unfinished buildings, shade and fruit trees, &c. The flag staff in Public Square was broken off and the spire of the finest Presbyterian Church was badly damaged. No loss of life has been reported. The velocity of wind was 48 miles per hour.

Destructive Conflagration

OSHKOSH, April 29.—The Beckwith House and Adams House, two hotels of large capacity, finely furnished with all modern improvements, were destroyed by the fire. Loss on the former will be about $40,000, and on the latter, $32,000. Newspaper and telegraph offices shared the fate of surrounding buildings. In the North Western, daily paper, with an office fitted up with all the facilities for its publication and for the execution of job printing, nothing saved. Loss about $18,000. The Times, a weekly paper, loss $10,000. Three men are reported killed by the falling walls. Their names cannot be ascertained. There are rumours of further loss of life prevalent, but not authenticated. Fully 200 residences, large and small, were burned, and over one hundred stores, hotels, banks, &c., were also destroyed. The opera house, costing $100,000, and the finest in Wisconsin, outside of Milwaukee was destroyed. The loss is variously estimated, the most moderate estimate being $750,000, and the highest $2,000,000. Hundreds of families are homeless. Women and children are lying about the streets, or roaming around in search of a place for shelter. Arrangements will be made to organize the newspaper offices in the unburnt district. Telegraphic communication was severed at an early date of the fire.

The steamer Dromedary, of the Lake and River S.S. Line, arrived at this port yesterday, loaded with flour. It is the first of the season.

At a meeting of the Bar, held this afternoon in the Court House, Mr. Martin gave notice that at the next meeting he would introduce the subject of establishing a law library in this city. He supplemented his remarks by saying that the city of Buffalo had a law library far more valuable, extensive and complete than any one man could hope to get together. The cost among a great many would be but trifling, and the library would be of great service to the young members of the profession. A lecture room might be established in connection with the library where they could meet together and discuss points of law. The idea seemed to meet the approbation of those present, and a committee was appointed to work the matter up.
