THE SEASON AND THE POOR.

From the Globe.

What is being done to relieve the poor and assuage the sufferings of the destitute? The advent of winter, with its full degree of severity, suggests the question, and should hasten an answer. Under the best of circumstances, at such a season, philanthopy has an ample field of operations in Toronto; but long continued commercial depression has rendered the condition of the poor unusually distressing. Many who in ordinary times obtain regular employment during the summer and autumn have this year been subjected to irregularity of work, and have thus been deprived of the opportunity of making partial provision for the exigencies of winter. People of this class, whilst possessing the strongest claim upon the consideration of the humane, are peculiarly liable to suffer. Their wants are not paraded at street corners; nor are they usually importunate applicants at your dwelling or your store. Willing to labour, they are ashamed to beg. To the last they strive to hide their necessities. With scanty clothing, and ill filled stomachs, and fireless hearths, their sorrows are comparatively unnoticed, save by the few Samaritans who devote themselves systematically to the work of mercy. Beyond these meritorious sufferers, there are the host of lazy, thriftless, vagabonds who dog you in the streets, and will take no refusal at your door. Economical philanthropists, we are aware, allege that folly and wrong are involved in the relief of these Pariahs of society; and certainly there is little real wisdom in administering relief without regard to the character or habits of its recipients. Even vicious poverty, however, ought not to be allowed to starve. The problem presents itself, then,—In what manner may the needs of the poor be most economically and effectively met? By what agency may the charitable most advantageously discharge what in their eyes is a sacred duty? Societies already exist which embrace the work of visitation and distribution, and which are, therefore, well fitted to be the almoners of what, for want of a better term, may be called miscellaneous bounty. Specific relief may be afforded through other channels, and it is to provision of these that we desire more particularly to direct attention. Assuming that money and cast-off clothing may be most conveniently entrusted to the organizations to which we refer, two staple wants remain to be supplied; namely, fuel and food. In bygone years, great good has been achieved by arrangements for selling firewood at low rates to those who, though poor, are not absolutely destitute, and for supplying it without charge in authenticated cases of distress. Something of the sort should be revived without delay. In reference to food, we know of no similar means so fraught with good as soup-kitchens, where hot nutricious soup is supplied daily, gratuitously to the destitute, and at a nominal cost to others of the poor. A kitchen might be opened in every Ward, to be sustained by public subscription. Tickets for a free supply of the food might be placed in the hands of certain public officers, for daily distribution; and each subscriber might be deemed entitled to tickets, in number proportionate to his subscription, for use in private charity. In large communities, both in the mother country and the States, these institutions are brought into play every winter; and their proved usefulness is a recommendation which we of Toronto ought not to disregard. One was established in Hamilton last winter, but we believe that it laboured under the disadvantage of injudicious management. The primary danger to be avoided is the control of cliques and coteries, whether of churches or society; but a little care at the outset will prevent difficulty on this ground. Let us trust, then, that measures will be adopted at once to meet obvious public wants. Every day's neglect adds to the mass of misery in the city. Perhaps the Mayor will convene a meeting of individuals willing to take the initiative in the good work. The whole difficulty is in the start.

So much for the city. What of rural districts? Even there is poverty. There, where a fruitful soil has yielded of its abundance to the farmer—where barns are filled with grain, and barn-yard with cattle—there, absolute want is not unknown. True, we do not read, as in English newspapers, of a labourer sent to the treadmill for a month for helping himself to a pennyworth of turnips to feed his starving little ones; but we hear of almost incredible misery, nevertheless. On Saturday, for example, a Simcoe journal brought tidings of a poor creature who, according to the verdict of a jury, had "died from exposure to the inclemency of the weather, and from want." The published particulars are sufficiently shocking to call the blush of shame to the cheeks of all who were parties to an outrage upon common humanity:—

"The name of the unfortunate man was John W. Corey, He was brought to Port Dover by stage from Walpole, and dropped in the street, without suitable or decent clothing, or money, or an acquaintance. He was then sent as a pauper to Simcoe, to be cared for in jail; but was, as a pauper, inadmissable, and was returned in the same conveyance, in an almost lifeless state, without pantaloons, and wrapped in a poor, old blanket, to Port Dover. As soon as he reached Port Dover, a mock trial was instituted, and he was sent back to Simcoe, convicted of vagrancy, and under sentence of imprisonment for thirty days. Upon reaching the jail, the old man was nearly dead. He perished of cold and exhaustion, suffered, for the most part, in these journeyings backwards and forwards."

This, too in "glorious old Norfolk." This in a county peopled with prosperous farmers, well-to-do-mechanics, and money-making store-keepers. Unfortunately, the instance is not unprecedented. A commission of inquiry would bring to light facts scarcely less startling in other and similar localities; where, notwithstanding general comfort, there is too often a criminal indifference to the way-worn and the destitute.

"Oh, God, that bread should be so dear,
And flesh and blood so cheap!"

Occurrences like this at Simcoe furnish a plea for a poor law—not such an one as that of the New England States, where paupers are farmed out, to be cared for less than the hogs in the sty; but one akin in its spirit to that of old England, where the right to live is affirmed by the law as superior to all other rights. The statute of Elizabeth had its demoralization and its extravagance, and the new law has its inhumanities; but either would be preferable to the no-system which allows property so far to ignore its duties as to bandy an old man, naked and helpless, from place to place, rather than supply the morsel needed for his maintenance.

THE "GRUMBLER" SUED FOR £500.—On Wednesday forenoon a writ was issued in the Court of Queen's Bench, at the instance of Robert Mahon Allen, commanding Erastus Wiman to put in an appearance in said Court, in an action at the suit of the said R. M. Allen, within ten days from the service of the writ. In default of no appearance being put in by the defendant in the action, the plaintiff may proceed therein to judgment and execution. This is the celebrated suit against Mr. Wiman for selling copies of The Grumbler, containing alleged libels, which the plaintiff is of opinion reflect upon his character as a professional man. The damages are laid at £500, with £2 10s costs. If the amount is paid within eight days from the service of the writ, with £2 10s costs, the writ states "that proceedings will be stayed." We understand that the chief expression in The Grumbler relied on as libellous is the statement, that Mrs. Allen was "the biggest fool out of Bedlam."—Globe.

The Quebec National has overcome all the difficulties incurred in the establishment of a new journal, and now enters, we trust, upon a career of prosperity, worthy of the talents and enterprise of its editor.

The Kingston News notices as a novelty the transportation of cotton from the southwest, via, the Grand Trunk Railroad, to Portland, thence to be shipped to Boston. A train laden with cotton bales passed through Canada to Portland last week.

Special Notices.

TO FAHERS AND MOTHERS.

You know how important it is for your children that you should keep good health. How frequently do we see feeble parents dressed in mourning on account of the death of their beloved children. What a pity it is, when, by proper care and remedies, all these trials and troubles can be avoided. When health can be restored to the parent and life and happiness to the child, Restore the health of the mother and you obviate the necessity of Paregoric, Godfrey's Cordial and other injurious narcotics for crying children. We entreat you, as we desire to improve the condition of our race, to procure Dr. Morse's Almanac and read how diseases are cured in accordance with NATURE'S laws with innocent Roots and Plants.

PREGNANCY.

During this critical period Morse's Indian Root Pills will be required, because they cleanse the body from those morbid humors, and thoroughly drive away all pains, and give ease and comfort to the mother. From one to three of these Pills, taken two or three times a week during pregnancy, will cause the mother a safe and easy delivery, and will be sure to give a stout and healthy constitution to the child,

Dr, Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all dealers in Medicines.

LIFE Pills and Phoenix Bitters. There are some disorders which appear to be peculiar to this great country of ours, and which invariably attack the unacclimated. Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, and eruptions seize upon the newly arrived immigrant, and unless he takes care to fortify his digestive organs against the insidious attacks, he must be prostrated, and his family deprived of their principal support. A resort to the Moffat Medicines after a sea voyage, will be found to restore and invigorate the system. Sold by the proprietor, Dr. W. B. MOFFAT, 335 Broadway, New York, and his Agents.

TO ADVERTISERS!

Great Reduction of Advertising Rates!

Taking into consideration the hard times, and being determined to advance the prosperity of the community in which we live; and believing as we certainly do, that a Village is judged by parties at a distance by the Advertisements that appear in the columns of its Newspaper, and being very desirous of offering every inducement in our power to Merchants and others to Advertise, we have determined to Reduce our Advertising rates to as low a figure as we can possibly afford.—Our great object is, to encourage liberal advertising, as this branch of Business is the main stay to all Printing Establishments. Our readers will at once perceive that it is utterly impossible to advertise at lower rates than we give below If we did, we should not be able to carry on the paper: for no one (not even printers) can be expected to work for nothing. However, we hope that all those who desire to encourage a Village Newspaper will advertise liberally, and then while we shall be benefited, they themselves will be even more so by an increase of business,—the invariable result o advertising. The following are our reduced rates:—

¼ column,	¼	a year,	5	per cent discount.
¼ "	½	"	30	"
¼ "	1	"	35	"
½ "	¼	"	30	"
½ "	½	"	35	"
½ "	1	"	40	"
1 "	¼	"	35	"
1 "	½	"	40	"
1 "	1	"	45	"

All advertisements to be measured by a scale of 200 solid Brevier lines to a column.—Four pence a line will be charged for the first insertion, and one penny a line for each subsequent insertion.

Advertisers to have the privilege of changing their advertisement four times a year.

Advertisements under a quarter of a column, continued for three months, will be subject to 20 per cent; for six months, 25 per cent; and for 12 months, 30 per cent discount.

The Globe Newspaper.

1858-59.

THE succes which has attended the publication of the GLOBE NEWSPAPER since its establishment in 1844, is the best certificate o its merits as a public journal, in the estimation of the community. No labor has been spared and large outlay has from time to time, been made to render it a comprehensive and reliable

Commercial, Political & Family Journal

The gratifying result is that it possesses by far the widest circulation and the greatest advertising patronage in British America.

The efforts which have been made in past years to keep pace with the progress of journalism in other countries, will be redoubled in the future. The Editorial Corps has been strengthened—the staff of Reporters enlarged—and contributions of numerous Correspondents, at home and abroad, will give new interests to its columns. The English and Foreign News is received at the earliest possible moment by Telegraph and Express. The proceedings of Public Meetings, of the Law Courts and Municipal Councils are accurately reported by stenographic writers, and no expense is spared in sending corps of Reporters to any part of the country, and transmitting their Reports by Telegraph for publication the following morning. The Debates of the House of Assembly, of each day, are fully and accurately reported in the DAILY EDITION of the following morning, and carefully condensed for the WEEKLY paper. All matters of Trade, Commerce and Navigation—the proceedings of the several Boards of Trade—the arrival of vessels at Quebec and inland ports—and every other subject of interest to mercantile men is watched with special care, and faithfully chronicled and commented on, The Markets and Prices Current of Great Britain, the United States, and at home, receive special notice. The Agricultural Interests command that earnest attention to which their importance entitles them.

The Globe will continue to advocate:

The Adoption of Population, without regard to Locality, as the Basis of Parliamentary Representation.

The Entire Separation of Church and State—the Abolition of all Appropriations of Public Money for Sectarian Purposes; the Restraint of Ecclesiastical and other Corporations from Locking-up Land in Mortmain, except for use and occupation.

National Education—Common School, Grammar School and Collegiate—Free from Sectarianism, and open to all on equal terms,

Economy in the Public Expenditure, and a Thorough Reform in the Departmental System.

DR. AMOS & SON, Corner of Main and Quay Streets, Buffalo, New York, are the only Physicians in the State who are members of the Royal College of Surgeons, London. May be consulted from 8 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night, on every state and symptom of disease.

The treatment they adopt is the result of upwards of 30 years' extensive and successful practice in London. The most inveterate symptoms of Disease eradicated in eight or nine days, and cases of a slight nature in two or three days at a very moderate expense.—The cure effected without confinement or hindrance from business.

Young Men—Take Particular Notice.

There is an evil habit sometimes indulged in by boys, in solitude, often growing up with them to manhood, and which, if not reformed by them in due time, not only begets serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives rise to a series of protracted, insidious, and devastating affections. Few of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system shattered, feel strange and unaccountable feelings, and vague fears in the mind.

A Most Scientific Invention.

An instrument for the cure of Genital Debility, or more properly known as Seminal Weakness, Nervous Debility, &c., which are permanently cured in from 15 to 20 days by the use of this instrument, when used conjointly with medicines.

New Remedies and Quick Cures.

DR AMOS & SON take pleasure in announcing that they have invented a most important instrument for the cure of the above diseases. It has been subjected to a test by the most eminent physicians in London, Paris, Philadelphia and New York. It has been declared the only useful instrument ever yet invented for the cure of Seminal Weakness, or any disease of the genital organs, caused by the secret habits of youth.

Dr. Amos & Son, in order to satisfy the most skeptical as to the merits of these instruments, pledge themselves, that in any instance where they may prove unsatisfactory after a fair trial, the money will be refunded by returning the instrument in good order.

Persons wishing the above useful instrument will observe, that the price, with the accompanying directions, securely packed and sent by mail or express, is ten dollars.

Beware of Imposition.

Beware of empirics and itinerant self-styled professors, who ATTEMPT cures, but never succeed

Dr. Amos & Son have for a long series of years been engaged in an extensive practice in the treatment of these delicate complaints, and are the only legally qualified Physicians who now advertise to cure certain complaints, or from whom genuine European remedies can be obtained.

PERSONS IN ANY PART OF THE WORLD may be successfully treated by forwarding a correct detail of their cases, with a remittance for Medicines, &c., which will be returned with the utmost dispatch, and secure from observation.
