Obituary.

Samuel Smith, the subject of the following brief sketch, was born February 9th, 1833 His father, Jacob Smith, emigrated with his parents from Pennsylvania in the early part of the present century and settled in Vaughan township, then nearly all bush. Later on Jacob married Mary Grobb, of Lincoln township, by whom he had five sons and three daughters. He settled on lot 7 in the 4th con. Vaughan, the south hundred of which (the old homestead) in course of time passed into the possession of his third son, Samuel, who married May 29th, 1866, Sarah, second daughter of the late Samuel Snider of Edgely, by whom he had two sons and two daughters.

Mr. Smith was a man of sterling qualities, a model of uprightness and integrity. Though quiet and unassuming he was a man of bright intelligence and depth of thought, and those who with the writer have enjoyed his friendship and the hospitality of his pleasant home will never forget the happy and profitably spent hours in his company. The poor found in him a generous friend, and his neighbors held him in high estimation, but best of all Mr. Smith was a Christian, one who walked humbly in the footsteps of the Master and used the Golden Rule in his dealings with fellow men. Soon after his marriage he united with the (old) Mennonites, the church of his forefathers back perhaps to Germany from whence they originally came.

Though Mr. Smith's health, with some slight exceptions, was always good, last May his condition became such as to cause alarm, and as the disease progressed, notwithstanding all medical skill and good nursing could do, it became evident to many that his days were numbered, and after months of patiently endured suffering and with a bright hope of a home beyond, he peacefully passed away in the early morning of February 4th, 1893, on the old place where he was born and where he spent the (nearly) sixty years of his life. Funeral services were held Feb. 8th in the Mennonite church adjoining his farm by Rev. S Hoover of the Mennonite and Elder S. Baker of the Tunkard church.

A sense of duty to the many friends of the departed, as well as a slight tribute of personal respect to his memory has prompted the writer to publish this memoir, hoping that

Lives of good men may remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

F. ELLIOTT.

If you want more light on the subject just call at Dilworth's drug store, 170 King Street, east, and get five gallons Rock Spring Oil and in all probability you will be able to read without specks.

CHOICE LITTLE

FARM FOR SALE.

Mr. John Brown, wishing to retire from farming, offers for sale that valuable piece of land lying on the north side of Centre street, containing about 40 acres first-class land, 17 acres of which is in the corporation. The land is in a good state of cultivation, well fenced and underdrained; there are 13 acres in meadow, 19 acres fall plowed ready for spring crop, the remainder is pasture land through which a never-failing stream runs. Good water power with dam partially built.

The Electric Railway is coming! Now is the time to buy! When the boom strikes the town someone will say, Why did I not buy that fine property? Apply to the owner,
