HEADFORD NEWS

CORRESPONDENT
Mrs. H. Acreman
R. R. 2 Gormley, Ont.
Phone TUrner 4-2236

Peggy Dunleavy and a group of Headford young people were at the Union Station on the evening of New Year's Day to bid bon voyage to her brother, Tom Dunleavy, who was returning to Esquimalt, B.C. after having enjoyed 32 days' leave from the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Acreman went to Fordwich on New Year's day for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wragge and family.

New Year's visitors at the Walter Leuschner home were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Young. Mrs. Young is the former Isabel Cook.

The executive of Victoria Square W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Joyce on January 2 to plan the program for 1953. The January meeting on the 14th will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. McCague, and it will be an evening meeting. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Lambert of Maple.

Holiday time visitors at the home of Mr .and Mrs. Charles Horner were Mr. and Mrs. Ford King, formerly of Kingsdale Dairy.

The W.A. of Headford will meet on Tuesday evening, January 13, at the home of Mrs. Freeman Barker. Elections will be held and officers installed.

Headford Home and School Association met on Tuesday evening for a very interesting and enlightening program of parent education, most ably conducted and presented by Mrs. G. E. Jackson who is convenor of Parent Education of the York-Simcoe Home and School Council.

After an introduction which dealt with the building of a family, a skit was presented which portrayed a very common incident in many homes — trying to get an eight-year-old girl in the family to take a share in the household chores. The meeting then split into groups, each group discussing a different phase of the problems met by parents in bringing up children.

This was followed by an open forum when the audience aired its views. We are very grateful to Mrs. Jackson for her help on this subject.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wellman entertained the Wellman family for New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Golder were New Year guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Horner.

NORTH RICHVALE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT — MRS. M. BLACKBURN, Yongehurst Rd.
Telephone TU. 4-2238

We welcome to our neighborhood Mr. and Mrs. W. Cross who recently took up residence in the former home of the Huntley family, Yongehurst Rd.

Billy Adams of Yongehurst Rd. is home from the Sick Children's Hospital and enjoyed a good Christmas with his family despite his recent operation.

Mrs. Ed. Haughton is coming along nicely now after her recent illness.

Sugar and Spice Club held its Christmas Party at the home of Mrs. S. Styan, Yonge St. Winners of the court whist were Mrs. G. Fenwick, Mrs. F. Wilson and Mrs. T. Saul. M. Murphy and F. Schurman won special carrying prizes. Chicken and all the trimmings were consumed by the girls and gifts exchanged.

Mrs. E. P. Holmes left by plane on December 24 for Columbus, Ohio, where she spent Christmas with her sister and family.

Richvale School

The Richvale school is very proud of the active Junior Red Cross branches. Last week the Busy Beavers sent a donation and up to the present time Grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 have contributed the sum of $10.21. Congratulations for a splendid job.

Wednesday afternoon was "Carols" for the children led by Mr. Martin, some of the classes highlighted the event by singing special songs.

Christmas party and celebration was the order of the day Friday as each class had a wonderful party. After a hilarious hour of games they settled down to the serious and extremely difficult occupation of eating special Chrismas delights. Then, since Santa was busy, one of his Richvale agents aided him by giving out presents.

The day ended with a concert. Each class contributed by giving a performance of singing or playacting.

The staff wish to extend to all pupils and parents a Happy New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Trimble and children of Port Elgin, Ont., spent two weeks during the Christmas season with Mr. and Mrs. F. Thomson, Yongehurst Rd.

Mr. Fred Rose of Yongehurst Rd. left by plane, on December 29 for England where he will spend two months visiting relatives in Birmingham and Bromsbrove. Mrs. D. Trimble of Port Elgin, daughter of Mr. Rose, along with her two sisters, Mrs. W. May and Mrs. F. Thomson were among many to see their father leave on his trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grant of Bancroft, Ont., have spent the last two weeks with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lawson Jr. on Yongehurst Rd.

Constance Robertson spent the Christmas holidays with her cousin, Bonnie Collins of Yongehurst Rd.

Hockey

The boys of North Richvale battled their fathers in a rousing hockey game Sunday afternoon at the Mill Pond. The men were the winners with a score of 15-6.

Death

Our neighborhood was deeply saddened to learn of the sudden death of Mr. S. Mackar of Yongehurst Rd. on January 3. The late Mr. Mackar was buried at Maple, on Monday afternoon, January 5.

CARRVILLE

Corr.: Mrs. Bert Middleton
Telephone Maple 130r3

The annual meeting of the ratepayers of S. S. No. 3 Vaughan was held on Tuesday evening in the Carrville School at 8.30 p.m. There were only 20 ratepayers present, but there was much discussion of many things pertaining to the school. Chairman of the evening was Dr. Brock Walker. C. Chevis was the secretary.

Business arising from minutes was that the secretary-treasurer be given travelling expenses as well as a small salary as he uses a lot of time and money in attending to school business. Brian Bailey, the secretary of the school board gave the various reports. The health report is satisfactory. The Inspector's report was very encouraging. Then the financial report was read and was discussed at great length. Mr. Bailey explained everything in detail. The trustee's report was also given by the secretary as the chairman of the school board was unable to be present.

The election of a new trustee was next and as Brian Bailey did not wish to continue on the board, C. Chevis was appointed, so the trustees for Carrville Public School are Jack Barton, Reg. Macey and C. Chevis for 1953.

Mr. R. Kirk moved a vote of thanks to the school board for their fine work done during the past year and especially to Brian Bailey for his untiring efforts in the past year as secretary-treasurer. This was seconded by C. H. Nunn. The meeting was adjourned by Dr. Walker.

The January meeting of the Carrville Home and School Association will be held on January 16 at 8 p.m. at the school. The guest speaker will be from the York County Health Unit.

We would like to extend deep sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Morris on the very sudden death of Mrs. Morris' father, Mr. Allen of Toronto.

We were pleased to hear that Mr. Tom Kemp who had been in Sunnybrook Hospital is able to return home again feeling much better.

Socials

Little Miss Gretta Middleton spent several days with her cousin Miss Helen Marie Oliver of Wright St., Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barton and David and John Barton and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wilson of Toronto spent New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver of Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Walker and family of Sharon visited on Sunday at the Bert Middleton home.

Mrs. Mary Harrison and son Jim Harrison of Newton Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Harrison and daughter Marie from Cookstown visited on New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nicholls of Mill Road.

It's much easier and cheaper to telephone TUrner 4-1261 and insert a notice in the "Coming Events" column than it is to address and stamp a lot of envelopes. Try it.
