Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Milne are shown following their marriage on September 4 at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church. Mrs. McLean is the former Shirley McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McLean, Richmond Hill. Mr. Milne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Milne of Winnipeg.

Amid a setting of multi-coloured gladioli, Shirley Isobell McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McLean, Richmond Hill, was united in marriage to Reginald Harris Milne, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Milne of Winnipeg, Manitoba, on Saturday, September 4 at 4 o'clock, at the Presbyterian Church, Richmond Hill. Rev. J. N. Hepburn officiated at the ceremony and Mrs. Andrews played the wedding music. Soloist was Mr. Donald Ferguson, who sang The Lord's Prayer and I'll Walk Beside You.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a waltz-length gown of white brocaded satin, featuring a tiered skirt with pleated inserts. Her fingertip veil was held to a heart-shaped tiara and she carried a white prayer book surrounded by white carnations and bouvardia.

Maid-of-honour was Miss Joyce McLean, a sister of the bride, who wore a mauve waltz-length gown, with white lace bodice and bouffant skirt. She wore a large picture hat as a headdress and carried a bouquet of mauve baby 'mums. The bridesmaids, Miss Joyce Ferguson and Miss Jacqueline McLean, a sister of the bride, were gowned similarly to the maid-of-honour in green and yellow, and carried matching bouquets of baby 'Mums.

Groomsman was Mr. Lloyd Milne and ushers were George Woodruff and Harry Davidson.

For the reception which was held at the North York Community Hall the bride's mother received the guests in a black rayon gown with white accessories. She wore a corsage of red and white roses.

For travelling to Winnipeg, the bride donned a white linen suit, with pale blue accessories and a corsage of white roses. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Milne will live in Richmond Hill.

Out-of-town guests attended the wedding were from Hamilton, Orangeville, Dundalk, Mount Forest and Guelph. Telegrams of congratulations were received from Toronto and the groom's parents and brother in Winnipeg.
