Urbanization Is Increasing

Farm Assessment Only 12.8% In County Now

Meeting for three days last week, York County Council disposed of a considerable amount of business at its first session for the year. Highlights of the session were the election of William Sellers, Reeve of Sutton, as the county's 102nd Warden and the election of Reeve Albert Rutherford of Vaughan and Reeve Floyd Perkins of Richmond Hill as county commissioners.

Making their report covering 1961 activities, Joseph Fry, Reeve of Markham Village and Warden of the county for 1961 and Commissioners Mrs. Caroline Ion of Newmarket and Kenneth Wagg of Stouffville, pointed out that levies on municipalities in the county amounted to $1,228,463. and had been paid in full.

They noted that during the year 150 acres had been added to the county's already large reforestration lands.

Equalized assessment for the county, they said, was now up to $166,612,582. And, they said, the county was fast developing into an urban municipality. In 1961, farm assessment was only 12.8 per cent of the total. Population of the county is now 115,118.

Drop Tri-County Plan

During the year consideration was given to a broadened pattern of planning on a regional basis. It was studied with committees from Peel and Ontario Counties. Interest of the other two counties waned and the topic was dropped.

Consolidation of welfare activities at the county instead of the municipal level was discussed during the year, with the Minister of Public Welfare being petitioned to introduce legislation which would bring the Children's Aid Society into the welfare field under the direct control of the county. It was recommended that a welfare committee should be established in 1962 to continue study of the subject.

Another activity of the 1962 body was the authorization of debentures to expand the hospital at Newmarket and the erection of a new hospital in the southern part of the county, amount authorized being $3,600,000.

Under the heading of "Administration of Justice" the Attorney-General of Ontario was pressed to arrange for construction of a county courthouse in the county itself, rather than forcing the county to share the one to be erected in Toronto, for which the county would pay a considerable amount and which would be inconvenient to local lawyers and the public.

Police Report Held Over

A report on the police situation in the county, prepared by Magistrate Johnston L. Roberts of Niagara Falls, was presented to county council in late 1960. It was referred to the 1961 council but was not brought forward until the dying moments of the year, then being referred to the 1962 council.

Hospital Auxiliary

election. "For the man on the street," he said. "there are so many misconceptions about hospitals today, and if any group can clear them up it is the women's auxiliaries." Dr. Piercey also said that "since the hospital has become a departmental, educational, medical, research and community health centre, great teamwork is required and the auxiliary member is one of the most important members of the team, particularly in closing the gap between preventative and curative medicine."

During the year which preceded the taking of office by Mrs. Sheridan, auxiliaries of the province spent $608,583 on equipment, furnishings and buildings for hospitals; $59,638 for comforts, residences and education for nurses.

Guide Notes

13th Brownie Pack

"Busy Brownies", all of them, of the 13th Brownie Pack, Richmond Hill East were hard at work during their regular Wednesday meeting. The fairy ring opening was followed by "paper and pencil inspection". Tawny Owl Mrs. Vera Smart instructed Brownies of the Golden Bar on the composition of the Union Jack, also teaching some of the legends of the Patron Saints and emblems.

Packie Charlene Rayson gave instruction to the Golden Hand Brownies in "Boxing the Compass", while Brown Owl Mrs. Josie Fleming taught the golden hand Brownies the reading and sending of semaphore messages. Mrs. Ev. Rayson assisted by teaching the golden bar Brownies the sewing on of buttons.

Two of the sixers taught the Brownie song, also the six song to the tweenies in preparation for their enrolment at next week's meeting. Pow wow was also very productive, as all subjects, including dates for enrolment, test day, and badge day were discussed and finalized, the meeting closing with taps.

Association Meeting

Sixteen members of the local association of Guides and Brownies (Eastern Division) and guiders were present at the meeting held on Monday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Peter Smith, Alsace Road. Guide Commissioner Mrs. L. G. Snook reported that the 6th Brownie Pack had been re-opened and will meet at Walter Scott School on Thursdays, 5 to 6 p.m.

Announcement was also made regarding the "Proctor & Gamble Market Research", to be held at St. Matthew's United Church Hall, February 1st. with the proceeds for camp and equipment. Following the business meeting, lunch was served by the hostess.

1st Richmond Hill Girl Guides
Reported by
Guide Penny Slater

The second meeting in 1962 of the 1st Richmond Hill Girl Guide Company was held on January 15th. Due to the absence of Captain Munsey, the meeting was led by Commissioner Mrs. W. A. Yeo.

There was an Early Court of Honour before the meeting began, at which a new secretary and treasurer were elected, Lynne Metcalfe and Lorna Sutherland. The new Patrol Leaders, Judy Todd, June Pyatt, Catherine Pounder and Susan Loughlin were presented with their stripes and whistles, the Seconds also receiving their stripes.

After a roaring game of "Jockey" was played, a quiz on the Saints was held. The clover or senior patrol won this quiz and was awarded ten points. Campfire was led by the senior patrol. After singing old and new songs, the girls were taught the second verse of "taps". The meeting closed with both verses of "taps".

8th Brownie Pack

"Badge Presentation" featured Monday's meeting of the 8th Richmond Hill Brownie Pack, held at our Lady of Fatima School. With two exceptions (due to influenza) all members of the Pack were present.

Prior to the ceremony a busy work session was conducted by the leaders, Brown Owl Mrs. F. Israel, Tawny Owl Mrs. W. Armstrong and Packies Debbie Andrews and Jeremy Hill. Instruction was given in the many subjects necessary to the Brownies to ultimately secure their "Golden Bar" and "Golden Hand" Badges, one of them being the sewing on of buttons and darning.

Presentation of the awards was made by Miss Annette Ostergaard, Tawny Owl of the 1st Richmond Hill Brownie Pack. Brownie Susan Duffy was presented with her "Golden Hand" (the highest award in Brownies), after passing her 12 tests. Mary Katharine Taylor, previously awarded her Golden Hand, was presented with her signaller's badge, which is termed "extra proficiency badge". To contribute to the earning of their Golden Hands, signalling tests were passed by Mary Elaine Taylor, Teresa and Elizabeth Taylor.

7th Richmond Hill Guide Co.
Reported by
Guide Elizabeth Burgess

On Thursday, January 11, the 7th Richmond Hill Guide Company held its regular meeting in Crosby Heights Public School at 7 p.m. The meeting was opened by the Captain, Mrs. J. Inglis, with the singing of the Queen and the Guide Prayer. Roll call was then taken.

In horseshoe formation, the company practiced for a fly-up of Brownies from two packs, to take place in Beverley Acres Public School, January 18th, at 4.30 p.m.

The first lecture (one and one-half hour's duration) of a six weeks' course of instruction for the St. John Ambulance Association Preliminary Certificate, was given by Mrs. W. Bury to forty-two members of the 7th, 4th, and 5th Richmond Hill Guide Companies.

Christianity & Racial Discrimination Theme

Christianity and racial discrimination is to be the theme of a conference to be held at the Diocesan Centre, 135 Adelaide Street East, Toronto, on January 26th at 8 p.m. and on January 27th beginning at 9.30 a.m.

This conference is sponsored by the Diocesan Council for Social Service of the Anglican Church of Canada and all who are interested in this important subject are invited to register at the above-mentioned times.

The keynote address will be given by Mr. Arnold Edinborough, editor of Saturday Night and a number of University and Community leaders are scheduled to participate.

CLAREMONT — The agreement between the Mount Pleasant Public School Board and the Claremont Trustees to educate the pupils from S. S. No. 12 Pickering Township will be terminated at the end of the June term, 1962. Ratepayers claim that the board's plan to close the section's century-old schoolhouse had been kept too quiet.

Vaughan Council Confirms Policy On Subdivisions

Affirmation of policy in connection with planning board and subdivision matters was given by Vaughan Township Council at a recent meeting. The $10 fee required with all applications to the planning board will remain in force, it was decided. The $100 fee charged to help defray costs incurred in amending by-laws in connection with planning board will remain applicable.

The $300 contribution to the township's capital fund will be charged for the creation of every new residential lot requiring the planning board's consent. Councillor M. Windatt objected to the amount of the fee, contending that it should be greater. Other municipalities were charging $350 to $500, he said. On a recorded vote Reeve Rutherford, Deputy-reeve Bryson and Councillors McConkey and Keffer voted for the $300 charge, with Councillor Windatt opposed.

(The lot charge is used by council to take care of additional services, the need for which comes into existence as a result of the creation of the subdivision.)

Council also agreed that prior to the planning board's consideration the owner of any parcel of land upon which it is proposed to register a plan of subdivision shall be required to execute an agreement guaranteeing the payment of all costs incurred by the township in processing the proposed plan. Failure to pay would result in the amount due being charged against the land and added to the taxes.

Party Meets In Richmond Hill

New Democratic Party Chooses Federal & Provincial Nominees

The two York North Riding New Democratic Party candidates for the next federal and provincial elections were chosen at the party's nomination meeting Tuesday in Richmond Hill Public Library.

Nominated to stand as candidate in the federal election was Stanley Hall of Newmarket, C.C.F. candidate for North York during the 1959 federal elections. Mr. Hall is employed by Canada Packers Co. Ltd. of Toronto where he is plant administrator. He is married and has one infant boy. Mr. Hall was a member of the former C.C.F. party for eight years before joining the N.D.P. upon its inception.

Two people were named as provincial nominees, Robert McVey of Markham Village and John Horman of Richmond Hill. Mr. McVey won the vote and therefore will stand as provincial candidate for the N.D.P from North York in the next provincial election. He is a lawyer in Markham Village and is the father of four children. His nomination Tuesday marks his first attempt to gain a legislative seat.

Guest speakers at the meeting were David Lewis of Toronto, national vice-president of the party and Bill Temple, former High Park M.P.P. Gordon Brigden, executive secretary for the N.D.P. in Toronto, chaired the meeting which was attended by approximately 70 people.

Rabies Sparks Action

Stray Dogs Bring Charges, Fines

The first "catch" of Canine Control Officer Jim Ryan's "get tough" policy with regards to stray dogs appeared in Richmond Hill magistrate's court Monday to answer charges of allowing a dog to run at large.

A recent "Liberal' article explained that Ryan had found it necessary to enforce civic policy regarding stray dogs. Ordinarily Mr. Ryan issues warnings only, when he finds a "first offender" animal running loose. However, because of the present rabies situation, he has found it necessary to issue a summons to the owner of every dog found running at large.

Three of the 25 people who have been summonsed to date appeared before Justice of the Peace N. P. Kelley, Monday to answer the charges and three paid their fines out of court. Of the three cases heard Monday two were dismissed because the people concerned indicated that they had made an effort to ensure that their dogs would not be found running loose. One owner even went to the trouble and expense of erecting a pen for his pet at a cost of $31. he said. One was withdrawn.

Further cases will be heard on February 2nd. Many of them are from Markham township.

Fined Heavily - Guns Confiscated

Interpreter Needed For Hunters Whose Shot Hits Police Cruiser

An interpreter was needed in Richmond Hill Magistrate's Court Tuesday to enable two Italian immigrants to understand the charges which had been brought against them.

Italo Moretti and Gino Gigat, both of Toronto, appeared before Deputy Magistrate R. G. Pearse to answer charges of careless hunting and shooting across a road. The charges were laid by Markham Township Police as a result of a hunting after a number of pellets from a shot gun blast struck a police cruiser. Evidence against the accused indicated that he had shot at a rabbit which was running between himself and the police vehicle which was situated only 300 feet from the place where he was standing. Fortunately the officer, who was about to get out of the car, was not wounded.

Gigat, who was charged with the lesser offence of shooting across a road, was also firing at the same rabbit as Moretti although he was not in line with the police car and therefore his charge carried across the road.

After the accused men had had the charges explained to them through their interpreter, Moretti's daughter, they both pleaded guilty.

Moretti was fined $100 and costs on the charge of careless hunting and Gigat $15 plus costs on the shooting across a road. Both men had their guns and ammunition confiscated.

The rabbit escaped without injury.

Oak Ridges Addicts Will Tackle Haggis

The annual Burns dinner, commemorating the birth of the celebrated national poet of Scotland, Robert Burns, is being organized again this year by the 25 members of the Oak Ridges Burns Society. The dinner will be held at the Richmond Hill Masonic Hall January 27.

The tradition of piping the haggis to the table will be followed as usual with "Red" Boyce of Temperanceville carrying the haggis and Donald McKay piping.

Bob Kennoway of Oak Ridges will act as master of ceremonies for the evening.

The dinner will be followed by highland dancing featuring Donna McKay.

96 Residents In Yk. County Home Council Is Told

It cost $143,075 to operate York Manor, the county's home for the aged, during 1961, members of York County Council were told last week. Old age assistance, paying residents and a provincial subsidy of $69,478 left only $32,119 of that amount to be paid by county taxpayers. During the past year, residents who had funds were charged at the rate of $3.21 per day. The rate for 1962 is expected to be $5 a day.

Old age pensioners living in the home have to turn their cheques over to the county, which then gives back $7 monthly for personal use.

While the home has accommodation for 165 people, occupancy at the present time is 96, leaving 69 vacancies. The home was purposely built beyond present requirements in order to take care of future needs. It was suggested that the per diem charge to paying residents might be decreased as the home fills up and extra income helps to lessen cost of carrying vacant space.

The average food cost for each meal served in the home is 24 cents. Medical reports showed residents to be in good condition, all things considered. During 1961 fifteen organizations provided entertainment and made donations to the home. The ladies' auxiliary, a volunteer group, operated a tuck shop, purchased a television, held a bazaar, purchased materials for handicrafts, and rendered similar helpful services to residents during the year. A full-time craft supervisor was named during the year, Mrs. Carol Proctor of King Township, and many residents enjoyed the new activity.

NEWMARKET : The town's new Mayor, Bert Kent, has suggested that his position be made a full-time one, claiming that the duties are now so heavy that no other course is fair.

* * * *

NEWMARKET — Mrs. Lida B. Sturdy of Preston, one of two Ontario women appointed as Queen's Counsel in the New Year's list, is a daughter of the late P. W. Pearson, one time Mayor of Newmarket and Liberal M.P.P. for York North.

Oil Leak Said Cause Of Bayview Ave. Fire

An early morning fire in the Rivers residence on Bayview Avenue, immediately south of Carrville Road, resulted in extensive smoke damage to the home last Friday. The blaze is said to have started when oil from a faulty furnace leaked onto the floor and was ignited by a spark.

The only actual fire damage was to wiring which was situated near the furnace.

The fire was brought under control in a short time by the Richmond Hill Fire Department.

Four-lane Widening Of North Yonge St. Is Still Considered

Negotiations leading to the development of Yonge Street North in Richmond Hill as a four-lane highway are still under way, Reeve Floyd Perkins told "The Liberal" this week. The situation is a somewhat complicated one, he said, as the west side of the highway was Vaughan Township territory. That municipality has yet to be consulted. So far the project is under discussion with Department of Highways officials.

The four lanes would run from Levendale to the Elgin Mills Road.

Continue Water Hunt In Concord District

The owner of Cranspen Developments Ltd., part of Lots 7, 8 and 9 in the third concession, has agreed to the continuation of exploration for water in the Concord area.

A letter received by Vaughan Township Council has projected satisfactory conditions for the acquisition of sufficient land if required for the development of any well that may be justified in the area. The Waterworks Committee of Vaughan Council recommended continuation of exploration for ground water sources in the area, which council agreed to.
