QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS.

Every male person entered on the then last Assessment Roll, revised, corrected and in force in any Parish, Township, Town Village or Place, not being within a City or Town, entitled to send a Member or Members to the Legislative Assembly of this Province, as the owner, tenant, or occupant of real property of the Assessed actual value of £50 or upwards, or the yearly assessed value of £5 or upwards shall be entitled to vote at any election of a member or members for the Electoral Division in which such Parish, Township, Town, Village or Place, is included; subject to the following provisions:—

No person shall be entitled to vote as the tenant or occupant of any real property unless his then lease thereof was originally for a term of not less than one year; and that no person shall be deemed the occupant of real property, within the meaning of the Act, unless he shall occupy the same with the consent of the Crown, or of the owner of such property, and with the intent that he shall, on the performance of certain conditions, obtain the title to and become the owner of such property.

Whenever two or more persons shall, whether as being partners in business, joint tenants, or tenants in common or par indivis, be the owners of any real property, or the tenants or occupants thereof, each of such persons shall be entitled to vote in respect of such property, if the actual or yearly value of his part or share would be sufficient to entitle him to vote if such share were held by him separately; except, that if the property be held by a body corporate, no one of the members thereof shall be thereby entitled to vote in respect thereof or of any share therein. No tenants or occupants of real property belonging to the Crown, on which any instalment of purchase money or any rent or other sum of money which he may have undertaken to pay to the Crown, shall be overdue and unpaid, or who may occupy such property without due authority, shall be held qualified to vote.

TO PETER PATTERSON, ESQ.,— RICHMOND HILL IRON WORKS.

MY DEAR SIR.—I observe a notice in the Richmond Hill "Gazette," stating that you would not be responsible for any accident that might occur in the sand pit now being dug on the road between Richmond Hill and the rail road station. Surely you can not for a moment imagine this notice will exonerate you, as the overseer of the road, from blame or damages. I for one would risk a suit, should I be so unfortunate as to have an accident therein. Why not do your duty as a faithful path master? Why not bring the offender to justice? Why wink at a dangerous wrong through false delicacy? Why allow your honorable and peaceful intentions to be gainsaid, and yourself brow-beaten, by any man or set of men; either councillmen puffed up with a little brief authority, whose word is no law; or a member of Parliament, who sends his team to aid and assist in making an awful trap doubly dangerous. Had the pit been on the side of the road there might have been some flimsy excuse for this flagrantly imprudent deed of a passive councilman, and a real mis-representative of the people. Why do not such men give place to more worthy servants, for the honor and happiness of the people? Merely because they have an over-load of personal ambition to gratify. See how the different road companies suffer in the courts of law, by heavy damages, through want or foresight in preventing accidents. Ere long some awful catastrophe must occur in this man-trap sand pit; for the centre of the road has now a deep fissure and will soon fill in. Probably not one of the parties who committed—with deliberation and obstinate wickedness—such pit-digging ices on a main road, ever travel in that direction on a dark night, or at least do it very, very seldom. Many have been known to return from Toronto by the stage, rather than hazard being buried in the sand-pit, or drowned in the adjacent mill pond; for the road bending directly over the whole length of the dam, which has been ricketty for years, and unheeded by a long succession of path masters—being in companionship with the unthinking owner. Such officials must have a lameness and in priority of intellect tant amount to criminality, which will eventually tend to a course of punishment which they so justly deserve. The logs at the bottom of the sand-pit, add tenfold to the danger, should the team of an unfortunate traveller abruptly descend. I repeat, punish the first offender. Would it not be criminal for a railroad director to order a leg to be placed across the track? Would it not be criminal for a pathmaster to order a tree to be felled across the pathway? Then surely a councilman cannot order a pit to be dug to engulph the people with impunity? Nor a member of Parliament aid with his teams in making the pit deeper, through a pious motive of making destruction more rapid and certain.

Dear Sir, yours truly,
A NIGHT TRAVELLER.

Yonge Street, Nov. 18, 1857.

TORONTO MARKETS.

WHEAT—A very small supply, and no variation in prices, viz., from 3s 6d to 4s 6d per bushl.

FLOUR—There have been no sales of any article this day, consequently we quote prices as nominal, viz., superfine at $4¼ a $4½; fancy, $4¾ a $4¾; extra $4¾ a $5 per bbl.

BARLEY—Very little in, and prices still low; from 1s 10½d to 2s 6d per bushel.

OATS—A very limited supply, at from 1s 8d to 1s 10½d.

HAY—Plentiful, at about the same rates as on Saturday last, viz., from $10 to $18 per ton.

BEEF slaughtered by the quarter was very plentiful and a little lower, some being sold at $3¾ for fore-quarter and $4¾ for hind quarters, but the best hind quarters fetched $5 per 100 lbs.

PORK—Pretty good supply, and prices keep firm at former quotations, viz $5½ a $6¼ per 100 lbs.—Colonist.

The Le Roy (New York) Gazette states that during the heavy rain of Sunday night, live lizards, some of them measuring four inches in length, came from the clouds like manna, though not as plenty or half as welcome. They were found crawling on the sidewalks and in the streets like fugitive alligators, in places far removed from localities where they inhabit.

STRAYED.

CAME into the premises of the Subscriber, Lot No. 41, 1st Con. Vaughan, about the 1st of October, a TWO YEAR OLD BULL. The owner is requested to prove property, pay damages, and take him away.

TO THE ELECTORS!
OF THE
EAST RIDING,
OF THE COUNTY OF YORK.

THE Gazette announcing a DISSOLUTION of the Present Parliament having been issued, and a general Election proclaimed, it is now time that I should address a few words to you, when asking for so important and honorable a trust as that of being your Representative in the Legislature of this great Country.

The experience of every day life teaches us the necessity of avoiding extremes, and may serve as a beacon to us politically, [while shewing an independent perseverance in the path of duty, in dealing with questions which affect not only our own welfare, but also the prosperity of our Country to all time,] to exercise a judicious and wise moderation

With this introductory remark, I can without fear point to my past conduct as an earnest to you, that should I become your Representative, I will in that high sphere, faithfully, and to the best of my abilities, endeavor to develop the great AGRICULTURAL resources of this Province, its Trade, Commerce and Manufactures, as well as to promote every useful enterprize; knowing that these must be the sure means of accelerating the rapid progress of the Country, and of placing its prosperity upon a secure and lasting foundation, —that thus by energetically pursuing the plain path of Duty, without lookin to the right or to the left, I may merit from you what I have already received in the important yet smaller Public positions with which I have been from time to time honored by my fellow-subjects—approval of my conduct.

The present financial position of the Country requires that no exertion should be spared by those entrusted with its welfare, in retrenching the Public expenditure and introducing into every Department the most rigid economy, consistent with the efficiency of the public service.

The Land granting Department requires in my judgment entire revision.

No doubt the magnificent region called by the name of "The Hudson's Bay Territory," belongs to Canada, and is the rightful inheritance of the children of this Country, and I hope and expect in a few years to see those "Hunting ground," now the abode of poverty and despotism, opened up to the Bible and the wonders of British Civilisation, where those indomitable and sturdy pioneers, the sons of Canada, joined with their brethren from the British Isles will soon accomplish what they have done here already, making the desert to rejoice and blossom as the rose.

To preserve to this country the National School System of Upper Canada, which has been gradually brought to its present state of efficiency by the unwearied exertion of our able superintendant shall be the object of my best endeavors.

Representation by Population and Wealth I look upon as the very key-stone of the arch on which rests the free prosperity of Canada.

Having a considerable stake in the Riding our interests will be identical, independent of which, however, I shall consider it my duty to be guided by your wishes in all matters of local interest.

The hearty assurance of confidence and support you have everywhere received me with, does indeed cause me to feel grateful, and though it is quite impossible to make a personal Canvass, I shall continue to visit as many of the electors as possible till the day of nomination, when my views will be fully expressed to you.

Your obedient Servant,
JOHN DUGGAN.
