Skip Taylor tops in soccer skills Etobicoke Youth Day

Thornhill's Skip Taylor came home with an overall award of excellence at the Etobicoke Youth Soccer Skills Day at Humber College.

He earned six gold badges which is the highest level possible to reach.

A total of 12 Thornhill boys and girls took part in the skills contest and collected a goodly share of gold, silver, and bronze badges.

Other results: Tej Dhillon, five gold, one silver; Jeannie Macdonald, gold; Kevin MacDonald, silver; Donny MacDonald, three gold, two silver; Danny Dilido, three silver; Paul Dilido, two gold, two silver; Warren Sims, four gold, one bronze; Corey Risman, four gold, one silver; Martin Dryvold, four gold; Colin Sims, four gold, one silver, one bronze; Andrew Keeting, three gold, one silver, one bronze.

Hill Ramsey Rec nips 'Ridges

Richmond Hill Ramsey Rec Bantams edged their Oak Ridges counterparts 7-6 last week in Richmond Hill minor ball play.

The Ridges team led the game up until the bottom of the sixth inning. Wayne Langdon scored the tie-breaker and Ted Jobin drove in the winning run.

Squirt division action saw Dairy Queen Parfaits prove once again why they are leading their division by defeating Guaranty Trust 20-5. Tom Duffy led the way with four for four at bat.

Carcone's Esso romped to a 30-2 win over Cadillac Baif in a good all-round team effort.

T-Ball action saw Rumble Transport defeating Ontario Hydro Electrical Union 27-24.

Mark Accocella led Rumble's with three for three along with Robbie Wilson who blasted out two homers and Kim Poole went three for three. The losing team received some good hitting from Freddie Law.

Water Refining defeated Keith Hood Real Estate 34-27. A homer from Scott Jackson and heavy hitting by Adam Runge, Raymond Cook and Lori Gauld helped their teammates to victory.

A total of eight home runs by Baymar Sports landed them in the winner's circle as they downed Town Auto Body 31-21.

THREE HOMERS

More than helping the cause were three homers by David Krain, two by Jason Hill and one each by Adam Hook, Tom Lannon and James Gade.

Senior girls matches saw Wilkinson Steel defeating Richmond Hill Auto Body 26-18 while Oak Ridges downed Dairy Queen Banana Splits 19-5. Susanne Kalweit and Tracy O'Hara came up with fine efforts for the losers.

The Block Parents' Junior Tykes downed Rice's Flowers 20-8 with Mark Quick knocking out a homer.

Kinnear Pontiac outclassed Powell Fencing 19-6 with Jason Jackson and Joe Simpson supplying the hitting.

Dairy Queen Onion Rings lost 17-11 to Powell Plumbing with Jeff Campbell batting in three runs.

Richmond Hill Men's Slo-Pitch showed the reason they are leading the Intermediate Girls' division by bombing Stop-N-Shop 36-13.

TWO HOMERS

Shortstop Vicki Dawson slammed two homers for Slo-Pitch while pitcher Melanie Justine homered once.

T-Shirt Shoppe lost 26-13 to Richvale despite home runs by Elizabeth Myers and Tracey Clement.

An excellent team effort by the Dairy Queen Burgers resulted in a 22-10 win over Richvale. Linda Reisenweber came up with a double play. Christeen Foch walloped two homers with Linda Harvey getting one along with Deena Dunnett.

Peewee action saw The Record Shop downing Summit Transmission 10-5. Pitching was shared by Jim McKinlay who came up with a no-hitter in his stint and Sean McGuiggan who allowed only three hits.

Rumble Transport edged A. Ryman Shoes 9-8 in a game which saw Tony Veitch homering for the winners.

Exhibition play saw Elgin Mills Dodge defeating Richvale 11-10.

Richvale wins four

The Fischer Sports Peewee boys team with coach Irwin Bruck, won their fourth game in a row.

The combined pitching of Terry Bunker striking out 10 and Azad Mirza striking out five beat Richmond Hill N3 team by a score of 15-1.

Great hitting by Terry Bunker. He hit two doubles and a homerun. Scott Braithwaite hit a home run; Larry Thorsel did some good hitting — two singles and a double and some great fielding at shortstop. Rob Leech hit a double, a triple and a home run and Azar Mirza had three hits.

The Fischer Sports team also had an exhibition game with a great Richmond Hill All Star team.

The Fischer Sports team came from behind to beat Richmond Hill 16-14. A great effort was put out by the Richvale Fischer Sports team.

The Richvale team is interested in more exhibition games with other Peewee groups. If interested please contact Irwin Bruck 884-6149.

INTERMEDIATE GIRLS

The Richvale Lions defeated Richmond Hill No. 5 by a score of 25-12. Strong pitching by Alison Lake and Michelle Deaust and strong fielding by Tammy Tatrie made this win possible for Richvale.

SENIOR GIRLS

The Richvale Wilkinson Steel team, with coach Rick Williams, defeated the Richmond Hill No. 6 team by a score of 26-18.

Sandra Bardocz helped out the win by hitting two home runs.

Hill Squirts split

The Richmond Hill Dairy Queen Squirts remain atop the Etobicoke Softball Association following a pair of victories last week.

On Monday they downed Alderwood by a 7-4 score at Crosby Park.

Richmond Hill pounded out 12 hits with Robbie Bell and Cesidio Negri both getting three. Dave Repath and Jim Hughes had two each.

Bell picked up the win as he allowed six hits while striking out nine.

OUTHIT

Two nights later it was a different story as Richmond Hill played disinterested ball and were actually outhit 10-5, despite beating Thornhill by an 8-5 count.

Scott Low had two hits in this contest.

In addition to giving up 10 hits, Bell also walked 5 and struckout 14.

The Hill Dairy Queen Squirts will be participating in their own tournament this Saturday at Town and Crosby Parks, with games getting underway at 9 a.m.

Loughlin's wallop Stereo Factory 10-1

Richmond Hill Loughlin Home Supply Squirts walloped Stereo Factory of Oak Ridges 10-1 in Oak Ridges Minor Ball league play last week.

The first couple of innings were fairly even but the roof blew off after that. Gary Warner and Mike Smith pitched for Oak Ridges.

Boyles' Shell Bantams of Richmond Hill edged Aurora Re-cycling of Oak Ridges 8-7 with Mike Smith showing the way with two homers. He also pitched well on the mound.

Both teams were evenly matched and the game went right down to the seventh and final inning.

Harold Vakle and Ken Warner played well for Oak Ridges.

Galaxy wins, loses

The Richmond Hill Galaxy Tavern Men's Slo-Pitch team came up with a good showing recently defeating Maple Meat Shoppe 11-3.

They then came up with another good showing against league-leading Markham Red Rose despite losing 6-4.

Helping the team come on strong are players such as Vern Dynes, Dan Ransom, Jeff Watson and Bucky Bailey hitting well.

Coming up with consistent pitching are Wally Oates and Dale Marinoff.

The team plays in the York Slow Pitch League.
