Passmore, Jack

Committee names award after Hill resident

A long-time Richmond Hill resident has been honored by having an award named after him.

The Faculty of Education of the University of Toronto is naming a new award after Jack Passmore.

Mr. Passmore's name will go on an award for Outstanding Contributions to the Life of the Faculty.

He has been a resident of the Jefferson area for 35 years and served as chairman of the Jefferson School Board for five years. He was honored at recent ceremonies for that school, which will close in June.

He has been a member of the board of trustees for York Central Hospital for five years, and served as chairman of the hospital's fund-raising committee in 1975.

Recently he served as chairman of the Langstaff Medical Heritage Committee and was asked to officially open the Dr. Lillian Langstaff park.

Before his retirement in 1974 as Assistant Dean of the Faculty of Education, he was actively involved for 30 years with the University.

Mr. Passmore has been a co-author and author of several educational publications and continues to be actively involved with some of his University interests.
