COLLISION.—A collision took place on Thursday afternoon on the Credit Valley Railway, about a mile on this side of Campbellville. An east-bound gravel train was run into by an east bound freight, at the time part of the gravel train was on the bridge crossing a small creek about a mile east of Campbellville. The caboose and four flat cars of the gravel train, and the engine and one or two cars of the freight train were thrown from the track, the bridge gave way, and the wrecked cars were piled one on top of an other. A temporary bridge was constructed, and the passengers on trains which arrived subsequently had to be transferred.

Order your Shirts now. 6 white dress Shirts for $7.50, 6 English Cambric Shirts for $7.50, made to your measure and guaranteed to fit. This is a special offer and lasts for a short time only.—Treble's, cor.

A gang of Yankees are working merchants of the Dominion in this way: An agent calls and wants to send the victim a bill of silverware to be sold on commission. After arranging the matter he produces a peculiarly written memorandum of agreement to be signed, which binds the victim to pay on demand. In a few days a large bill of worthless goods is delivered, and then sharper No. 2 appears as a collector of the company (which company in facts exists only on paper.). If you have signed this agreement do not settle, as they dare not sue, and could not recover if they did, as it is a downright fraud. The best way to rid the country of the swindlers is to kick them out of every store they enter.

FINE PHOTOGRAPHS.—J. J. Millman Photographer, 76 King St west, Hamilton (successor to Millman & Eckerson) is making the finest photographs in all styles ever produced in Hamilton. Parties visiting the city should call and examine his work. 44-yr.

A HORRIBLE END.—The Oakville Independent gives the following particulars of the appalling accident that occurred last Sunday, the 18th inst., at the residence of Mr. C. P. Chisholm of that place: "Shortly after Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm had gone to church Mrs. Jones, wishing to retire, entered her room and placed the lamp which she was carrying in her hand—as she thought—safely on the shelf. But it appears there were letters on the shelf which caused the lamp to tip over, setting fire to Mrs. Jones' clothing and the carpet. The unfortunate woman did not realize her perilous state and burning garments, but at once set to work to do what was possible to extinguish the flames in the room by—no doubt thoughtlessly—stamping on them. She at last succeeded pretty well by using old carpets, but not until the greater part of her clothing was burnt from her body. She next rushed outside and and rolled in the wet grass, to put the fire out on herself. When Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm returned from church they found the poor woman in bed, where she had put in nearly two dreadful hours of the worst kind of suffering. The flesh was literally roasted from her body in spots; her hands being burnt almost to a crisp. Dr. Urquhart was at once summoned and all that could be done until death finally relieved her at 1.30 o'clock p. m. on Monday. Deceased put off going to Detroit on Friday last, on a visit a daughter at Islington and a son at Myrtos on the Middle road. Deceased was 60 years of age."

HICKORY nuts are very plentiful this year and Milton boys put in most of their spare time in gathering them.

We are compelled to hold over a poem from an Esquesing contributor, entitled "The Removal," until next week.

Mr. Wm. Harrison, sen., has removed from his farm to the brick residence next the Methodist church. Mr. Daniel Harrison is now in charge of the farm.

LOST.—On Saturday night a parcel containing two boxes was lost between Mr. Frazer's jewellry store and Boyne. The finder will oblige by leaving it at the CHAMPION office.

LARGE YIELD.—Mr. I. Green, near Milton, picked 23 barrels of apples off two trees in his orchard this season—13 barrels of Winter Red, and 10 barrels of Greenings.

ACCIDENT.—Henry Baker is nursing a badly wounded foot at present, having cut it severely with an adze while working on the C. V. R. culverts about a week ago.

WE learn that a young man in this vicinity, while enjoying the wonders of the celebrated Erin fair, was relieved of a quantity of cash by a pickpocket.—Acton Free Press.

We are sorry to have to record the death of Mr. Edmund Callaghan, which took place at his father's residence, Campbellville, on Tuesday. Mr. Callaghan lived in Milton for some years in his boyhood, and had many friends here. When he left Milton he went to Michigan where he remained some time, removing thence to Leadville, Col. He was next in Montana Territory, and filled a responsible position with the well-known banking firm of Stebbins, Post & Mund, alternately in their Miles City and Billings branches. He threw up his position, left the latter place, and returned to his Campbellville home about fourteen months ago, on account of having become crippled with rheumatism, which he had contracted while in Michigan. Shortly after his return he was compelled to take to his bed, which he was unable to leave without assistance for fully twelve month before his death.

Several roads at Chicago have cut first-class through passenger rates to New York to $2.00

You can have your Shirts made to order at Treble's lower than you can buy them readymade elsewhere. 6 Shirts white or colored for $7.50, perfect fit and best value in the trade guaranteed.—Treble's, cor. King and James Sts., Hamilton.

"A NIGHT IN AULD SCOTIA."—Don't forget that the celebrated Bairnsfather family will appear at the Town Hall, on Monday evening, in an excellent programme of Scottish music. The following are samples of press notices that have been received since the arrival in this country of this celebrated family: "Mr. Barnsfather succeeded admirably; his rendition of Scottish song is equal, if not superior, to anything of the kind over heard in this city."—Toronto Globe, Feb. 27th, 1885. "This is their first appearance in Toronto, and they thoroughly will deserve the good opinions that have been formed of them where they have previously appeared. Both as a singer and teller of Scotch stories it is hardly going too far to say that he is fully equal to the famous Kennedy: in some respect he is even superior."—Toronto Mail, Feb. 28th, 1885. Tickets for sale at popular prices at Messrs. H. Watson's and J. H. McCollom's drug stores. Doors open at 7.30; concert at 8 p. m. The entertainment will be given in connection with the Mechanics' Institute.

A TUMBLE IN WHISKEY.—A Halton man went to Hamilton last Saturday, and invested in a gallon of old rye which was put into a jug. Being of a modest disposition he did not care about carrying the jug along the street without some kind of concealment. So he put it an ancient valise and set out, accompanied by a friend, for the N. & N. W. station. Just as the couple arrived there the handles of the "grip" gave way and down it came, smash on the ground. The Haltonian picked it up and was horrified to find that the jug had been broken by the shock, and his precious whiskey was anointing the sidewalk. He dashed along in front of the station and a number of unsympathetic boys struck up a chorus of "How are you Halton?" "What about the Scott Act?" and other equally unfeeling remarks. The Haltonian looked sadly on the escaping whiskey, and there was an "Et tu, Brute" expression in his eyes as he turned them reproachfully on his friend, who, evidently not at all anxious to be identified as such, was taking a greater interest in the tops of the surrounding buildings than in his mishap. The Haltonian seemed to feel all this keenly, and there were tears in his voice when he said "I wouldn't care so much if it was for myself; but it's for Jim M——, and another gallon will cost me $1.50." He, however, braced up and struck the back track to the grocery on the double, and it is to be hoped that Jim got his whiskey after all.

Cloakings, Ulsterings, Dress Goods, Millinery, Mantles, and Ulsters, immense stock of lovely goods. Wonderful bargains at the Great Dissolution Sale. McLeod Anderson & Co., Georgetown. 17-3t.

A FINE INSTRUMENT.—The congregation of Grace Church purchased a "chapel" organ last week, manufactured by the Dominion Organ Co. of Bowmanville. It arrived on Saturday and was used on Sunday for the first time. It is a fine rich-toned instrument of very tasteful design, and gives the best of satisfaction. We understand that the old organ which is still in the church is for sale, and can be had cheap.

"SACRED ADVERTISING" is what they now call the string of announcements read out by the great majority of clergymen after the sermon at both the morning and evening Sunday services. The pulpit is being used altogether too much for that sort of thing. We can point to several instances where it was used simply to save a dollar or two. Almost every kind of entertainment now receives dead-head advertising from the pulpits of the land. The theatre has not yet presented its claims to the clergy for free notices, but at the present rate of increase in the dead-heading line it no doubt will do so before long. The ministers themselves ought to stop the iniquity.—St. Mary's Argus.

A NEW PAPER IN MILTON.—It is now pretty well understood that efforts are being put forth for the establishment of a third newspaper in Milton. Its main object, ostensibly, is to promote the interest of the temperance party and advocate the principles of Reform; but, we believe, its object, practically, is to oppose the Sun and anything it may propose or suggest, political or otherwise. That the journalistic field in this county is circumscribed at the present time, and that there are now more newspapers to its small area, than can be well supported is too well understood by the publishers now in the field, and any practical man should certainly be well aware of this fact. Regarding the assistance which the new sheet expects from the temperance party of this county, we have little to say; but instead of giving their support towards the formation of another paper we are of the opinion the temperance men of this county should aid those papers which faithfully advocated the Scott Act and temperance principles during the past five years. We agree with the Acton Free Press that if a sheet of different principles to those at present published in Milton be desired one of the plants now in existence there should be purchased; at any rate Halton cannot support another paper, be its principles what they may, and the attempt to establish one should be abandoned.—Georgetown Herald.
