THE span of bay horses belonging to Wm. McCraney, Esq., while waiting at the station last Saturday night, took fright and ran away. They were being driven at the time by Miss Lottie McCraney, who stuck to them throughout like a hero. The infuriated animals ran from the station to Mr. McCraney's residence, a distance of about a mile and a quarter. The damage which might otherwise have occurred to the horses and conveyance, was prevented by Miss Lottie's courage, a feature particularly noticeable for its absence with the majority of the fair sex on such occasions. R. car at the Milton station, in which was a pair of prize geese belonging to James Main, the well-known poultry breeder, of Trafalgar, which had been on exhibition at Woodstock. It was found on examination later in the day that they had been spirited off by some "night hawk."

THE SECRET OF OUR BUSINESS.—Our popular prices maketh the high-priced boot and shoe men "hunt grass." We are sorry to cause any trouble among our competitors, but having inaugurated the low-price system, we propose to conduct our business in the interests of our patrons and ourselves. TO OUR LADY PATRONS.—We invite your attention to the large fall and winter stock we have laid in purposely for your requirements. We accomplish this desirable end by first providing first class, well-made stock, and then fitting on shoes properly to the foot, just as a dress maker who understands her business fits a dress to your form. We positively assert that we can satisfy you in a quality, fit, and price every time.—Toronto Shoe Company, 144 to 148 King-st, East, cor. Jarvis, Toronto.

THE CONSTABLE'S REVOLVER.—Constable Andrew Coffee met with an accident last week on his way home from Burlington, after the unsuccessful attempt made by whiskey informer Paige and himself to arrest Peter Zimmerman. A revolver which he carried in his hip pocket, but which it seems he did not draw while Levi Zimmerman was pummelling Paige, was accidentally discharged, the burning powder making sad havoc in the rear of his best trowsers and the bullet lodging in the calf of one of his legs. The wound, we are glad to say, is not at all serious.

HAPPY MAN.—If any one can be proud or happy, and pleased with himself, Colin McRae, the shoe man of 80 & 82 King street west, Hamilton, has reasons to feel elated at the crowds who throng his store during the last few weeks. Those who patronize Mr. McRae, know that he always gives good value, and they are sensible enough to take advantage of buying the best goods for less money than many of the other dealers ask for common, inferior goods. As it is now nearing the merry Christmas times every one should see McRae's fine shoes and slippers, particularly the goods made by J. C. Bennet and Barnard.

BROKE HIS ARM.—Mr. John Kennedy, of the Milton Cordovan Tannery, is a very unfortunate young man as far as accidents are concerned. He has had ribs broken, and three times have broken one or the other of his arms. His last accident of the latter nature befel him on Thursday evening at the roller rink, when he broke both bones of his right arm a little above the wrist. We wish him a speedy recovery and better luck for the future. He informs us that no one was to blame in the matter and that his fall was due only to his inability to manage the rollers. His injuries were attended to by Drs. Robertson and Stewart, and he went to Acton yesterday, to remain with his friends there until able to resume work.

A ROW IN A RESTAURANT.—George Richardson, a young man from the neighborhood of Burlington, went into a restaurant on King street, near the corner of Mary street, last night and ordered oysters for himself and a companion. He was under the influence of liquor and was not long there before he addressed an opprobrious epithet to Charles Tomlinson, who was eating oysters at another table. Tomlinson ran at the drunken man and grappled with him. Both fell to the floor and the stove was partly overturned. They broke their holds and Tomlinson threw a bottle of sauce at Richardson, striking him on the forehead and cutting a severe gash. A couple of policemen were soon on hand and Tomlinson was taken in charge. This morning he was fined $10 and $2.50 costs or 60 days in jail.—Hamilton Times, 12th Dec.

FAREWELL.—The friends of Mr. C. W. Pearce joined on Thursday eve last in tendering him a farewell supper on the occasion of his departure from Oakville to commence business in Streetsville. The supper was held at the "Royal Exchange" Hotel (D. Oliphant's), and reflected great credit upon the host. The mayor, reeve, and nearly all the prominent business and professional men of the town to the number of upwards of fifty were present, and song and toast enabled all to pass a most enjoyable evening. In connection with the toast of the evening, "Our friend, C. W. Pearce," universal regret was expressed by every speaker at the loss the town and the citizens would sustain by the removal of Mr. Pearce, both in a business sense and socially, and his leaving was attributed by mostly every one to the deadness of business here, from which fact Mr. Pearce has selected the rising village of Streetsville as the scene of his future business efforts. Mr. Pearce, in going to his new home, is not going altogether amongst strangers, as the great bulk of his old customers now make Streetsville their shopping place, and, with his sterling business qualities and his genial manner, he is sure to make hosts of new friends, and no doubt will be most successful commercially, and this is the sincere wish of all his friends.—COM.

If Christmas day falls on Sunday all manner of good fortune follows; if on Wednesday fine weather at least will be the portion of the year. If on other days of the week some ill fortune is sure to follow through the year. Christmas day falls on Friday this year. We may therefore look out for squalls. It does seem hard, though, that we should be punished for that which cannot be avoided. Perhaps, however, the theory is as unfounded as it is unjust.

We are pleased to see that J. H McCollom, our enterprising druggist, has received the agency for the truly celebrated West's Pain King; a certain cure for all bowel difficulties, colic, cholera morbus and cholera. Only 25 cents.

LOWVILLE.

Editor Champion:

DEAR SIR.—There appeared in the Milton Scott Act organ, of Nov. 19th, which came under my notice, a letter by which I trust the veracity of the people of this vicinity at large will not be judged, though there are doubtless, as in every community, a few of whom "One of Many" is a fair specimen. I think this lover of British fair play might better have addressed his epistle from another quarter. By a glance at it the most careless observer will be convinced as to how much truth he wants. I am a reader of both Sun and the CHAMPION, and I wish he would endeavor in a future issue of the highly eulogized, uncalled for and unnecessary sheet in which his letter appeared, to substantiate his charges against those papers which I trust the intelligent people of the County of Halton will continue to patronize. Can it be that he represents a class whose literary productions did not meet with that amount of consideration from the editors of those journals to which they themselves thought them entitled? So far as Mr. Young's ability is concerned, I leave your readers to judge between his opinion and that given at Osgoode Hall. When ministers of the gospel step outside their clerical duty they become public property by consent, and must expect to be used as such. Considering this they have not been badly abused. Some of them appear to labor under the impression that the end in view justifies the use of any means whatever. I hope you will excuse me, for I believe the Sun and the CHAMPION are able to take care of themselves; but I think this so-called "One of Many," for I am pleased to see their number is not legion, might do worse than gain a little experience before taking up the quill to condemn the course pursued by men who come out fairly before the public. The majority of the people feel grateful to the correspondent alluded to in the latter part of the letter referred to, for the part he took in bringing about the removal of the grate cause of strife and mischief that existed in this neighborhood. He, too, came out with facts in a straightforward manner and the worthy "One of Many" well knows, that he seldom fell short of his aim.

Eighth Wonder of the World.

It is domonstrated by history that the ancients in many of the arts, notably architecture, far excelled the present age, but it is reserved for the present decade to produce the eighth wonder of the world, i.e., West's World Wonder or Family Liniment, which is infallable for Rheumatism, Sprains, Cuts, Bruises, Sores and all diseases requiring external application. Price 25 cents and 50 cents per bottle. Sold by J. H. McCollom.

Eighteen to twenty cents per loaf for bread is an extraordinary price in a great wheat growing country, but it is exacted in Montreal. The bakers down there are in a fair way to kill the goose that lays their golden eggs, as indignant consumers have taken steps to establish a joint stock bakery, designed to bring the price of bread down to fourteen cents. There ought to be a good profit on it at that.

The discovery of the instantaneous process of taking photographs has been quickly followed in the medical world by a perfect and instantaneous remedy for all acute aches and pains, as Neuralgia, Toothache, Rheumatism, etc. This valuable remedy is called Fluid Lightning, and is sold at 25 cents a bottle by J. H. McCollom, Druggist.

Spices, Pickles, Peels, Tobaccos.

There will be Great Bargains given away in Carpets, Floor Oilcloths, White and Colored Quilts, Feather and Straw Tickings, Blankets, Comforters, Mantle Cloths, and about a dozen Mantles at half price; and Shawls of every kind.

These prices will be maintained all the month of December (if the goods last that long) for cash only. The above prices only will be asked, and no possible abatement can be made; this will save time and bother. There will be a great rush. Come as soon as you can. Everybody welcome to this great old-fashioned genuine cheap Clearing Sale at the famous Store, LINDSAY'S, Milton.

Our Clothing and Dry Goods Business, fanned by the light, sweet kisses of a Southern breeze, or rushed forward with the impetuosity of the blizzard or tornado, has always retained its stability of character, treating all equally, honestly, squarely and honorably.

We, the Hard Toiling Merchants, deserve the success we achieve. Why should we not sell tons of Dry Goods and Clothing?

The silent grandeur of our noble Hamilton Bay is often reft and lashed into torrents by a foul wind, so, comely and silently trade slips along for awhile, then with one mighty burst it sways to and fro with competition. People have no idea that the low prices at which they get goods at times cut away into the life blood of the cost.

REMOVED!

Thanking our many customers in Milton and the surrounding country for their past support, we would intimate that owing to the increased demand for STOVES, TINWARE, ETC., ETC., and the lack of room in our place of business, we have removed to a more suitable and convenient place—The Store formerly occupied by Miss L. KELLY, Main Street, next door to D. Butchart, or Wm. Bews. We keep on hand a supply of Coal and Wood Stoves, the best in the market, manufactured by Stewart & Co., of Hamilton; call and inspect them. Anyone in need of a Coal Stove, should see the celebrated "Sultana" which we set up in the Reading Room, Town Hall, before purchasing. A call is solicited.—CONWAY BROS.
