TOWN COUNCIL.

A regular meeting of the town council was held on Monday evening. The Mayor in the chair.

On motions Mr. William Alderson's and Mr. John White's dog tax were remitted.

The finance committee recommended payment of accounts to the amount of $61.81, which was adopted.

Moved by John Hunter, seconded by M. Conway, that tenders be asked for 80 cords of stone.—Carried.

A by-law was passed appointing Mr. Joshua Allison deputy-returning officer for the South Ward in the place of Mr. W. Panton, who refused to act.

The finance committee recommended that the proposition of Mr. John Dewar to pay the back taxes on vacant lots on Martin Street be accepted, and Mr. Eager's fees for advertising same at tax sale be paid.

Special committee appointed on rebate of taxes asked for by Mr. Ezard reported against same, which report was adopted.

On motion council adjourned.

Scott Act Outrage.

STANSTEAD, Que., Dec. 19.—This village was horrified yesterday morning at an outrage attempted at the residence of Dr. Ralph M. Canfield. Bailiff Horace B. Canfield lives with his son, the doctor, and has been lately engaged serving prosecutions for Mr. Wadleigh, prosecutor for the county of Stanstead under the Canada Temperance Act. Within the last week threats have been made that if he did not stop serving the papers he would get into trouble. About 1 o'clock Sunday morning a bomb with a lighted fuse was thrown through the window into the dining-room. Mrs. Canfield, hearing the crash and hissing of the fuse, sprang from her bed in the room adjoining, and through almost a miracle succeeded in detaching the fuse, and thereby prevented an explosion. The bomb contained about one pound of giant blasting powder, which, according to the best authority, confined as it was, would have been sufficient to have wholly demolished the house, killing the three inmates.

Another Reverse in Maine.

Toronto Globe

The Prohibitionists of Maine have met a reverse in the courts. The last Legislature passed a law providing that "The payment of the United States special tax as a liquor seller, or notice of any kind in any place of resort indicating that liquors are there sold, kept or given away unlawfully, shall be held to be prima facie evidence that the person or persons paying said tax and the parties or parties displaying said notice are common sellers of intoxicating liquors and the premises so kept by them common nuisances." This Act has enormously facilitated the enforcement of the prohibitory law, but it seems likely to be declared unconstitutional. A judgment has been given, in which it is held that the law of the land and the Constitution of the State guarantee to every accused person the right to the "judgment of his peers"; that the presumption of innocence is among the rules for the protection of private rights which have existed from time immemorial; and that to make the payment of the special tax proof absolute for conviction is an artificial presumption created by the Legislature, and was clearly in violation of constitutional rights.

High License Works.

A POINTER FOR TEMPERANCE ENTHUSIASTS.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 10.—The new high license law passed by the last legislature promises to drive out the liquor not only those who cannot afford to pay the $500 license fee, but also many wealthy dealers, who will find it impossible to secure the necessary bondsmen to become responsible for their faithful compliance with the law. Up to the close of business yesterday only 250 applications for licenses for next year had been filed. This is considered a small number in view of the fact that there are about 6,000 saloons in the city. As the law has been interpreted at present the bondsmen must reside in the ward where the saloon is located. In the fifth ward there are 309 saloons and in the sixth ward 260 saloons. If all these places should be relicensed there would have to be 1,188 different bondsmen, and it is a well known fact that there are not enough resident property owners in those wards to make up this number, especially among those who would go upon the bonds. In Schuylkill county yesterday was the last day upon which liquor license applications could be legally filed. About 680 applications were made, which is 320 less than last year.

Where the Laugh Comes In.

Buffalo Courier.

On Wednesday the starched Toronto Globe severely lectured the Dominion Commercial Travellers' association for resolving to have wine at their annual banquet, in order to entertain their guests with becoming dignity. The same day the Ontario department of crown lands opened its annual auction page lunch, paid for out of the funds of the government which the Globe owns and supports.

The Official Strephron of Georgetown.

Berton World.

Georgetown's constable is to be provided with a tall hat, trimmed with ribbons, and a flageolet, with which to pass time away while herding the festive cows that steal refuse from the back doors of the citizens.

Bad Features of Prohibition.

Dominion Churchman.

Robertson said, "There are there things in this world which deserve no quarter—hypocrisy, pharisaism and tyranny." Prohibition combines all three, but its worst features are contempt for the truth, and blasphemous attacks upon the holy communion.

The Police Magistrate Fined.

Bruce Herald.

Mr. Lewis, Police Magistrate in Wellington, who lives in Rothsay, experienced quite a surprise recently. His bailiff had seized a certain amount whiskey, and stored it in the magistrate's cellar. Parties knowing this, got up a little game on Lewis when he was away from home. Somebody was taken whiskey ill late in the evening, and to save life in the emergency, Mrs. Lewis was prevailed upon to sell some of the whiskey to the amount of $1.50. As a result Mr. Lewis was fined $90.00 and costs. This certainly is strong sauce for Mr. Lewis's gander.

Conflicting and Paradoxical.

Acton Free Press.

For a representative prohibitionist organ, we are inclined to think that some departments of the Canada Citizen are rather carelessly edited. For instance:—In one column of the editorial page, of last issue, in illustrating the dreadful effects of the use of intoxicating liquors, an article says:—The gathering comprised a tattered, shouting, staggering, swearing, howling regiment of both sexes—a sight to make hell laugh and heaven weep." In another column, on the same page, a receipe for mince pies unblushing advises its readers, after all other incredients have been arranged, to "add a glass of brandy." Verily, the total prohibition of the liquor traffic, and the use of brandy by the prohibitionists, will be rather a conflicting and paradoxical accomplishment.

The Scott Act in Ontario County.

Toronto World.

During his observations in the county yesterday, the reporter devoted some attention to the working of the Scott Act, and he has no hesitation in pronouncing it an unqualified failure. With posibly the single exception of Uxbridge, whiskey and beer sold as in Toronto. One hotel keeper the reporter met had just ordered a carload of beer. In twenty taverns the reporter saw whiskey bought, paid for and drunk. It was as free as mountain dew to all who had the price. The rancor existing between the two parties had probably ended with bloodshed. Dr. Sangster, that veteran educationist, who has lived for over thirteen years in Port Perry, told the reporter that he had written and talked for the Act when it passed, but he would not do so again. He had seen so much loose drunkenness since the Act came into force that he was disgusted.
