

COMMUNITY— Acton Winter Carnival

Four-year-old Emma Cunningham of Acton wasn't worried about the +9C degree weather as she took in the mini putting competition.

Despite the +9C temperatures and a lack of ice, the Acton 9 to 10 year old Big Macs and Hamburglers played a game of ball hockey that the fans enjoyed thoroughly at the Acton Winter Carnival on Sunday.

A: Your Will just might be the most important legal document you will ever sign. It protects the most important thing - your family. Life and circumstances change over time and your will should reflect those changes. If any of the following circumstances have changed you should consider a review of your Will:

1. Birth or Adoption of a child/grandchild.
2. Marriage or Divorce.
3. Death of someone named in your Will.
4. Children have reached the age of 18.
5. A change in the circumstances of your executor, guardians, trustees, etc.
6. You would like to provide a gift to a charity.
7. A significant increase or decrease in the value of your Estate.
8. You have started a business.
9. A person named in your Will has become incapable.
10. It has been 5 years or more since you have reviewed your Will.
