

ONE PRIZE, TWO BENEFICIARIES: A quilt named African Safari was a popular item in the recent raffle by The Sands (condominium building) Craft Group, with $1,000 in proceeds from the December draw presented to Cancer Assistance Services Halton Hills (CASHh) last week. Sands resident Mattie Spencer (right) made the quilt, which was won by Georgetown's Jean Brown (centre), herself a cancer survivor who has been clear of the disease for five years. Sheila Smith (left), CASHh director of operations, accepted a cheque worth $1,000 in proceeds from the quilt draw.
