A London despatch says:—The Army and Navy Gazette has published an article which causes quite a sensation. It states that advices from India indicate uneasiness among the European officials stationed in that country, owing to the existence of Bohmin plots against English regime. The spirit of the native Indian press is increasingly hostile to the English. The agitation for an increase of the native soldiers and for arming the native soldiers with artillery of improved pattern is very formidable to the interests of the foreign born residents of some portions of the Provinces. The reduction of the strength of the English garrisons, owing to the military necessities in Burmah, has added to the alarm. The Gazette declares that it will not be wise for the Government to treat this as a sensational and unfounded report. It declares that the situation demands a watchful eye and a firm hand. The number of Brahmins involved is placed at 500,000.

The Judge's White Gloves.

The Sarnia Sun says: "The last assizes before the Scott Act comes in force have been held in this county and there was not one criminal case on the boards. As a mark of the purity of the county Judge Ross was presented with a pair of white gloves. It well for the people to bear this fact in mind; not that we expect the Scott act will be the cause of criminal cases at future assizes, but if there are no criminal cases at future assizes somebody will be sure to give the Scott act credit for it."

It is stated that the McLachlan Bros., of Montreal, were fined $28,000 by the Customs authorities.

Montreal Salvationists have applied for a permit to build a barracks to cost twelve thousand dollars.

DEATH AT THE JAIL.—David Hunter, an old man from Nassagaweya, who has been for some time confined as a pauper in the county jail, died at that institution on Saturday afternoon. An inquest was held on Saturday night, and the old man was buried on Sunday.

Great clearing sale of winter goods at Treble's to make room for the arrival of new goods.—Every line down to cost and under. Treble's, corner of King and James streets, Hamilton.

PARCELS FOR MANITOBA.—Post-master General Sir Alexander Campbell has given orders that parcels going over the Canadian Pacific railway to Manitoba and the Northwest may be the same weight as those usually carried, namely, five pounds. Heretofore the maximum weight was two pounds three ounces.

HORSE BILLS.—We have received four new horse cuts, and horsemen requiring horsebills cannot do better than call and examine our assortment, which is the best in the county.

THAT BIG STORM.—Last week's storm must have been simply awful. Just listen to this extract from the editor of Sun's description of it: "The storm fury must have been intensified, as the ebullient, blustering, boisterous, wind-stimulated waves of the lake had in their puissant plenitude of power evolved another washout between the bridge and Burlington."

Everyone who wishes to keep his feet warm and comfortable should invest in a pair of those splendid walking boots, now offered by Colin McRae, 30 & 32 King Street West, Hamilton. He keeps the finest lines of ladies' and gentlemens' foot-wear in the market, and his stock of 'boys' and girls' shoes is the largest and best assorted in the city. Men's working shoes only 75 cents.

NEW ISLANDS IN THE LAKE.—A couple islands have put in an appearance in Lake Ontario about half a mile east of Hamilton piers. A number of gentlemen visited out from the Beach on Saturday afternoon, and paid a visit to the new-found land. The islands are several feet out of the water, and have eighteen trees growing thereon. Some of them are budding. The islands have been driven in by the storm.—Times.

A BIG SALE.—Mr. John C. Snell, of Edmonton, was more than satisfied with the success of his pure-bred Short Horn Cattle sale on Wednesday last. There were buyers from all parts of Canada and many from the States. Every animal put up was sold at good prices. Cows brought from $300 to $400 each. A 15 months old bull brought $890. The sale footed up to the handsome sum of $7,275, about $1,500 more than Mr. Snell expected it would.—Brampton Times.

The Dundas Standard announces that a correspondent in Halton county informs it that a "strong effort will be made to induce Mr. William Laidlaw, barrister, of Toronto, to accept the nomination for the Commons in that county." Of course in the interest of the Tories. We have good reason for believing that the services of Mr. Laidlaw will not be available, but if they were, we are assured that Mr. Laidlaw would be but leading a forlorn hope. The people of Halton are not likely to go back on their record, and return a supporter of the present corrupt, extravagant, and incapable administration.—Times.

AGENTS.—Grand reports for "Worlds Wonders." The most extraordinary success. Sells to all classes. Christians and Infidels, Catholics and Protestants, old and young, rich and poor. J. E. Brace says:—"The first week with Wonders netted me one hundred and sixteen dollars. Put me down as a worker for eighty-six. Cannot find anything to pay half as well as selling Wonders. Good chance for unemployed persons. Outfit free to actual canvassers. Write for terms. BRADLEY, GARRETSON & Co., Brantford.

MR. HANNIBAL A. WILLIAMS, the celebrated New York elocutionist, will appear at the Town Hall to-morrow evening, under the auspices of the Young People's Association of the Methodist Church. He comes endorsed by Hon. Andrew White, L. L. D., ex-president of Cornell University, Rev. E. D. Huntley, D. D., L. L. D., Chaplain U. S. Senate, and a host of other eminent educationalists and divines, and has drawn crowded houses whenever he has appeared. Everybody should go to hear him to-morrow evening. The price of admission will be only 20 cents.

Certain Milton prohibitionists who are said to be chuckling over their alleged conversion or bulldozing of Councillors Geo. Andrews and R. Jones should read the requisition in accordance with which Mayor Hannant called Monday evening's council meeting, and which was signed by both of the so-called converts. It appears in another columns, as do also Councillor Andrews's excuse for not voting for the resolution denouncing the Scott Act, which was not after all very much stronger than the requisition in its condemnation of the Act. Councillors Andrews and Jones have long been out-spoken opponents of the Scott, and it is a pity that they should have stultified themselves as they did on Monday evening.

A CLEVAN OFFICER.—License Inspector Brothers distinguished himself yesterday, and those who recommended him and the Government who appointed him have reason to be proud of him. He is a daisy. He undertook yesterday morning to arrest Edwin Lindsay, ex-proprietor of the Farmers' Hotel, for non-payment of a fine imposed on the latter for an alleged violation of the provisions of the Scott Act. He marched bravely up to Mr. Lindsay's house, found his man, and instead of running him in as any officer less gifted than he would have done, is reported to have sat down with him and treated him to a long lecture on prohibition, the unfermented wine question, the law on libel, &c., &c. He stood it for some time, but was last seen "either tired and very little bored, quietly arose, left the room, locked the door after him, walked outside, mounted a horse and departed on a trip, having made up his mind that a change of air would agree better with his health than confinement in the jail, excellent though the sanitary arrangements and cuisine of that institution are reputed to be. It is said that the grief of the newly fledged Inspector on finding that he had been made the victim of misplaced confidence was touching to witness.

SPRING FAIRS.—Galt Fair was held yesterday, Brampton's will come off on Wednesday next, and Milton's on the Friday following.

SISTER MARY ANN, the Florence Nightingale of our city desires us to express her thanks to the good people who patronized to excursion for the orphans on the Eliza Hancock. Dr. Carradice, who was the chief mover in this matter, has turned over to her some $40 as the result of her efforts.—Florida Times Union.

WM. BRODDY'S ASSIGNMENT.—A little sensation has been created in Brampton by the assignment of William Broddy, who was always looked upon by the people of that place as a man of considerable property. Besides being an auctioneer, he was engaged in several large commercial undertakings, which, however, he was unable to carry on. His principal financial dealings were with the Dominion Bank, and the Central also holds a small portion of his paper. It is said that the estate will pay about 40 cents on the dollar.—Globe.

ACTON.—At a special meeting of the Acton village council on April 2nd, the Finance Committee presented their report, asking for the sum of $1000 to pay legal expenses to defend the suit brought by a ratepayer against the corporation relating to the new cemetery and a further sum of $200 for their own personal expenses, which was adopted. Acton ratepayers are not afraid of 22 mills on the dollar, neither are they afraid of fire, for at a former meeting a resolution was passed to purchase fire extinguishing apparatus and at the last meeting the same resolution was rescinded.

A BAD FALL.—On Friday last as a daughter of Mr. Peter Redpath, of Nassagaweya, about eighteen years of age, was crossing the C. P. R. bridge about two miles east of Campbellville, she was taken by surprise by a train which came so suddenly upon her that all she could do to avoid being run over was to get on one side of the track and cling to the timbers. She managed to do this, but owing probably to fright, fell through the bridge into the water below, a distance of 32 feet. She was badly shaken and bruised, but fortunately no bones were broken, and under the care of Dr. Stewart she is progressing very favorably.

One of the most regretable occurrences of the week is the death of a little son of Dr. and Mrs. T. T. Harris. It appears about a week ago the little fellow, aged 1 year, 4 ms. and 15 days, was standing on a chair upon which he had climbed while the maternal eye was momentarily averted, and was looking out of the window, when he fell backwards, striking the back part of his head on the floor. Being a heavy child the blow was so severe as to bring on convulsions for remedying which everything possible was done by attending physician, parents and friends, but on Tuesday the little fellow died from the effects of the blow. The child was very beautiful and intelligent, and all who were acquainted with the family are much affected by his death. The afflicted parents have the sympathy of all in the neighborhood.—Oakville Star.

NARROW ESCAPE OF THE M. P. P. FOR HALTON.—The storm played sad havoc at Burlington. The waves dashed against the wharves with fearful force, and much damage resulted. Mr. W. H. Kerns, M.P.P., not only suffered through destruction of his property, but narrowly escaped losing his life. He was standing on his wharf, pike-pole in hand, endeavoring to secure a large piece of timber which was about to be floated out, when a heavy sea struck him and knocked him down. In an instant he was carried into the lake amidst a lot of brushwood and timbers, which had been washed shoreward. He struggled hard for his life, and when clambering upon a stick of timber, a spike which was in it struck him, inflicting a nasty wound. Seeing his perilous condition, a man named Knife jumped in and saved Mr. Kerns. The blood was pouring from the wound, and but for Knife's timely action Mr. Kerns would have been drowned.—Hamilton Times.

Only last week we were called upon to chronicle the death of a little son of Mr. T. T. Harris, of Oakville, from the effects of a fall. On the day of the funeral of this child Mr. Harris's only surviving children, a daughter nine years old and a son of seven, were seized with diphtheria of a most malignant type, of which the former died on Monday and the latter on Tuesday, all three deaths occurring within a week. Mr. and Mrs. Harris are well known and generally esteemed in this neighborhood and great sympathy is felt for them in their terrible bereavement. Mrs. Harris was attacked by diphtheria on the same day as her children, but, her friends will be relieved to hear, is recovering. We made the mistake last week of stating that the boy who was the first of the three children to die was Mr. Harris's only child, and that he was six years old. His real age was about eighteen months.

DIED.

HARRIS.—In Oakville, at 5.17 p. m., on Monday, 12th inst., Ada Annetta, only remaining daughter of T. T. and Anna Harris, in her 10th year.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, at 2.30 o'clock and was largely attended.

HARRIS.—In Oakville, at 12.30 a. m., on Tuesday, 13th inst., Sam. Sutherland, only remaining son of T. T. and Anna Harris, in his 8th year.

The funeral took place at the same time as above. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents and friends.

If You Are Tired

Of buying and buying this and that in Dry Goods, not paying much it is true, but getting trashy, wishy-washy stuff, come to us, we will rest you and make you happy. We will do it in this way: In Dress Goods for instance. We give you an enormous stock to choose from; pretty natty makes in pretty natty colors at 12½c. a yard. If we were money-wise we would sell these goods at 18c., same as others do. We prefer to be more generous. It pays us you see. Then we give you a stylish criss-cross cloth at 15c.; 50 pieces, all colors, and something that will astonish you in quality and cheapness; price 20c.; last of special lines is one of 50 pieces, All-wool Cashmeres, at 25c. It will open your eyes to see these 50 pieces, and your purse also, if we may prophesy. You come to us; want a silk; then you want us, because we show you say 50 pieces suitable for wear in any shape or form. We will ask you a price that will make us friends forever. You may not love money, but you do a good bargain. That's what we give you. Then the Prints, the Cottons, the Shirtings, the Gloves, the Hosiery, the Stylish Mantles and Millinery; yards, pairs and patterns without end. And you can load yourself down with your choice, and on a small purse too. That's the beauty of it.

The Storm That Knows No End.

The shoddy clothing now on the market should lay no claim to being first-class, and if men are such fools that they will be hood-winked into buying the rubbish, why they have only themselves to blame.

During the past few weeks people have come to us and made the remark that the Ready-made clothing was nothing more or less than trash, which gave no satisfaction. These same people have shown us clothing purchased from us years ago, and they declare that comparison between the Ready-made garment, and those that have been made to order was out of the question. Why? Because our clothing was made right, the ready-mades were only thrown together. And we state that it is our purpose to storm the fort of cheap and worthless clothing, and show by practical test that Ordered Clothing is the most durable and the cheapest.

Onr seasons stock is now in and we hope to see our Halton friends early.
