his recent illness.

formerly of Lowville, have been elected

Champion office, and now foreman in the office of the Dominion Publishing Co., Toronto, came to Milton last week

Not This Season.—We are informed that Mr. S. F. Taylor, of Walkerton, owner of the stores occupied by Messrs.
W. J. Stearn and A. Tock, which were burnt on the 24th ult., does not intend to rebuild them this season, but may hoped would not prove serious.

Church, Milton. The Rev. G. M. Wallace, B. D., of Georgetown, will preach on Friday at 11 and 2.30.

For the Old Country.—Rev. W.
Beaven, who has for some years ministered to the congregation of St. George's church, Harriston, left yesterday morning for England, where he intends making his home for the future. A large number of his congregation and others gathered at the station to bid him and Mrs. Beaven farewell.—Guelph Mercury.

A young man, under the influence of cider, thinking the cellar next to the Oddfellows' hall was his bedroom, un-dressed himself, leaving his clothes upon the sidewalk on the 24th. They were picked up and it was some time before the carcass to which they belonged could be found, but after a diligent search he was found in bed in his boarding house.—Oakville Star.

For Summer.—To be comfortable
during summer every lady should provide herself with low shoes and slippers,
and the place to get them is Colin Mc-Rae's great shoe house, 30 & 32 King
St. West, Hamilton. McRae offers great bargains in these lines, and not of old stock carried over from past seasons, but new, fresh and fashionable. See his advertisement for quotations of prices.

A Good Example.—On Monday last Mayor Hannant received a cheque for $20 from Mr. Henry Watson, druggist, accompanied by the following letter:

Milton, May 21st, 1886.

S. Hannant, Esq.,
Mayor, Milton.

Dear Sir:—I beg to enclose you a cheque for twenty dollars, which I hope will be supplemented by a further donation from the town council, and by other voluntary sources, as a token of acknowledgment to the workmen who, with willing hands and strong backs, fought like fire on the 24th inst. [illegible] property was at the mercy of the flames [illegible] and I feel it a privilege to make this [illegible] of it. I am,

Yours respectfully,
Henry Watson.

Some unknown person, probably a belated drunk, forced open the door of the Champion office on Monday night, but did us no further damage and carried nothing off.

Just to hand the latest American styles in felt hats for spring at prices lower than ever. Treble's, corner of King and James streets, Hamilton.

Rockwood.—While James Grieve, in the employ of John Burns, a farmer, about one mile east of Rockwood, was driving a load of manure on Monday morning the horses became frightened and ran away. Grieve was thrown under the front wheels of the waggon, which passed over him, causing injuries from which he died shortly afterwards. He was a hard working man, and leaves a wife and six children, for whom much sympathy is felt.

All the newest New York styles in stiff and soft felt hats just to hand. Finest assortment and lowest prices in the city.—Treble's, corner King & James streets, Hamilton.

James Morley reports that on Monday night, as he was on his way home from Milton to the farm of Mr. Wm. Reeves, two miles out of the town, where he is employed, he met a man who, immediately after he had passed him, blew a whistle. The signal was answered by another whistle a short distance off and three more men appeared and made for Morley, who, believing they intended to rob him, took to his heels and returned to Milton, where he remained until next morning.

If you want you want your Wool made up, for a variety of purposes, you should try the Campbellville Woolen Mill, where you can get either Hats, Rolls, Yarns, Flannels, Blankets, Sheeting, or Horse Blankets made as desired.—D. Vickerman.

Agents.—Grand reports for "Worlds Wonders." The most extraordinary success. Sells to all classes. Christians and Infidels, Catholics and Protestants, old and young, rich and poor. J. E. Brace says:—"The first week with Wonders netted me one hundred and sixteen dollars. Put me down as a worker for eighty-six. Cannot find anything to pay half as well as selling Wonders. Good chance for unemployed persons. Outfit free to actual canvassers. Write for terms. Bradley, Garretson & Co., Brantford.

The Band had a march out last Saturday evening and played a number of selections very creditably. In future they intend giving their open air concerts on Saturday, instead of Thursday evenings as formerly. The boys are making great progress and, in consequence, their services are in demand. Rev. A. F. Kirkpatrick, of the Mansewood Presbyterian Church, is making arrangements with them to play at a garden party on the evening of July 1st, but they are still open to engagements for the morning and afternoon of that day.

Great clearing sale of winter goods at Treble's to make room for the arrival of new goods. Every line down to cost and under. Treble's, corner of King and James streets, Hamilton.

The announcement on Tuesday, at the County Council meeting, of the result of the vote on the third reading of the by-law to establish a high school at Georgetown, was greeted with a round of applause from the delegation from that village. It is to be hoped that the pluck of the people of Georgetown in undertaking to support so expensive an institution as a high school will be rewarded by the success it deserves, and that Georgetown may in the near future win for herself a prominent position among the educational centres of Canada.

If you want close woven Blankets, Sheeting, or Horse Blankets, double width, try our New Broad Power Loom—its work will give you good satisfaction—now running at the Campbellville Woolen Mill.—D. Vickerman.

Aquatic Accidents.—On the morning of the 24th, as an elderly lady boarder was engaged in coaxing the finny tribe to indulge in the bait attached to her line in the creek near the harbor site, she accidentally fell into the water, and when gallantly rescued by Messrs. H. Wilson and H. Florio, she said she was "all right, she could swim,".....Little Herbert, son of Capt. R. W. Williams, fell into the creek last Saturday while fishing, and had it not been for the opportune assistance of his companion, Master Bertie Bowerbank, he would soon have drowned, as he fell headlong under a water-soaked stick of timber.—Oakville Star.

Grey flannel shirts $1, $1.25, $1.50, our own make. Best value in the city. Treble's corner of King and James streets, Hamilton Fiftieth Year of the Gore Fire Ins. Co.—We have much pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement of the Gore District Mutual Fire Insurance Company, whose head office is at Galt. This Company does business on both the Cash and Mutual plans, and has of late been so successful that its fiftieth or semi-centennial birthday finds it in the front rank of Canadian Insurance companies. The fact that on the 31st December last, the Company practically owed nothing except its Re-Insurance Reserve, and held Assets of the value of $218,896 available to meet losses, over $90,000 of which was in cash or its equivalent, proves it to be a strong financially, while their relative business is compared as the best Stock Companies, with every ability to deal promptly and liberally with sufferers by fire. The rates to these who prefer the Cash principle are liberal, and to Mutual Policy-holders they are about 20 per cent. less than the customary stock rates. Mr. William Parrott is agent for Milton and vicinity. 48-3m.

Order your shirts now at Treble's. Perfect fit guaranteed. Immense line of shirtings. Corner of King and James streets, Hamilton.

On Friday morning the dead body of Mr. Charles W. Pearce, druggist, formerly of Oakville, was found lying on a lounge at his residence at Streetsville. He had chatted with several friends up to ten o'clock on Thursday night, when he went home, and it seems probable that he died soon afterwards, as his body was found fully dressed and his bed had not been occupied. The cause of his death is supposed to have been apoplexy. His remains were interred at Oakville on Sunday. They were conveyed first from the residence of Capt. Felan to St. Jude's church, where services were held, and thence to the cemetery. The funeral procession was a very large one, including about one hundred and twenty-five Masons in regalia and a number of United Workmen, and being led by the Oakville brass band.

I have bought a large stock of Fancy Tweeds and Flannels, with Sheeting, Blankets and Yarns of our own make, to exchange for Wool. Call and see or send for patterns, as I have 25 different styles of pure Wool Tweeds and 15 kinds of Flannels to choose from.—D. Vickerman.

The Free Press Contradicted.—We have been requested to contradict a statement which recently appeared in the Rockwood correspondence of the Acton Free Press to the effect that the Rev. W. J. Piggott had resigned charge of the above church. Mr. Piggott has not resigned his charge, nor has he any intention of doing so. We are also asked to say that the report of the official meeting for the purpose of settling certain differences between Mr. Piggott and his people is clearly an emanation of the correspondent's brain, as no official meeting was held for that purpose, and there are no differences between the pastor and his congregation. The assertion that Bishop Hamilton will soon fill the vacancy in the Rockwood church is also untrue, for the excellent reason that there is no vacancy to fill, nor is there likely to be one. This denial is official.—Guelph Mercury.

If you [illegible] Wool, take it to the Campbellville Woolen Mill, where it will be handled with care, into any kind of Yarn or Flannel you may order.—D. Vickerman.

Winter has past and now comes summer, with all the terrors of cholera, bowel complaint, flux, cholera infantum, etc. Do not be caught unawares but secure a bottle of Wood's Pain King. Only 25 cents at J. H. McCollom's Drug Store, Milton.

A Country Cut-Up.—While the trotting race was going on at the grounds on the 24th an accident that might have had fatal results happened. Two horses in this heat were distanced, Harvey's and Crowforth's, and after the first horses passed the crowd rushed on the track, and Crowforth's horse in the meantime became unmanageable and ran away, and Harvey, to get out of the way of Crowforth, was compelled to drive into the crowd, and was followed by the runaway. The effect was terrific; the crowd was knocked right and left by the horses, some trampled on, others knocked down, and several narrowly escaped being killed. One man was insensible for some time, but a lad, a son Mr. Jennings, gardner, met with the worst mishap. He was knocked insensible and taken home in what appeared to be a very serious condition, but we are pleased to learn is getting around nicely, and beyond losing some teeth and bruises, is not hurt.—Brampton Banner.

Original Lectures by M. E. Barakat, a native of Syria, and now a student in Auburn Theological Seminary. Mr. Barakat has been delivering lectures in different places, with great success, on the Holy Land and Egypt, his personal experience in Syria, the Alexandria massacre and his wonderful escape; also the grand work of the gospel in those countries. Mr. Muhanna E. Barakat was born from Christian parents, in the city of Damascus, (Syria), near the "Street which is called Straight." (Acts, ix: n.) When five years old there was a Mohammedan outbreak in Damascus against the christians, and his parents, being christians, were killled in that persecution. One of his older sisters who had gone to Egypt as a missionary, on hearing the sad news, sent for the rest of the family to come to Egypt. There Mr. Barakat was connected with the American Mission Schools for many years; from whence he returned to Syria and graduated in the Syrian Protestant College in Beirut. Returning to Egypt again, he was preparing for the ministry, but for poor health he had to give it up. He was then appointed as a Professor in the American Mission College in Asyoot; and in the summer of 1882 he went down to Alexandria for a change, when the terrible massacre of the christians took place, through which he passed, and was an eye-witness of all the terrible scenes, and narrowly escaped with his sister, his brother and his sister-in-law (Layyah Barakat), who also came with him to this country. He is now attending Auburn Theological Seminary and qualifying himself for future usefulness, to work in the field to which God may guide him. Prof. Barakat will lecture in the United Presbyterian Church, Esquesing, on Friday evening, June 4th, 1886. Admission 25 cents; children under twelve, 10cts. Lecture to begin at 8 p. m.

An Interesting Liquor Case.

The Scott Act is in force in Guelph, but the managers of the excursion by the Manchester Union Order of Oddfellows, of Toronto, who visited that city on Queen's birthday, were determined to have their liquor refreshments. This is how they worked it, according to the Mail:—They laid in a supply of beer, which was taken to the picnic grounds, where it was exchanged for the coupons attached to the excursion tickets purchased in Toronto. On the authority of Mr. Bigelow it is claimed by the committee that they thus avoided the penalties of the Act. The names of the committee were taken by temperance men before the return of the excursion, with the intention of prosecuting them for selling liquor contrary to the Canada Temperance Act. Over fifteen hundred dollars have been subscribed to defend any such prosecution, a Guelph brewer subscribing $500 of this amount.

Last week's Star complains of blackguardism and disorderly conduct by Oakville roughs. Milton is not the only place where the Scott Act has failed to do the work promised for it by its advocates. It is only fair to the town on the lake to say, however, that Chief Constable Summer, of Oakville, charges the Star with exaggeration, and says that the boys are not quite as black as it paints them.
