Game and word lovers should prepare to shake their tile bags and rack their brains in support of adult learning at Literacy North Halton's upcoming community Scrabble for Literacy event.

The event takes place on Monday, Jan. 29 at 6 p.m. when contestants meet at the Halton Hills Public Library- Georgetown Branch and flex their mental muscles.

General public, families and businesses are welcome.

Collect pledges or sponsor players with pledges to support programs and services in the community of Halton Hills. Prizes will be awarded to the winning players and the person who collects the greatest amount of pledges. The
