SKATING.—On Tuesday morning the pond was covered with ice of sufficient thickness to bear the skaters.

LICENSE COMMISSIONERS.—There was a meeting at the Court House, on Tuesday, of the License Commissioners.

LATEST stock of underwear in the trade, cheap, at Treble's, corner King and James streets, Hamilton.

FARM SOLD.—Mr. Robert Leslie has sold his farm on the 1st line, Trafalgar, to Mr. B. Hamstreet, of Milton, for the sum of $5,800.

JAMES NICKELL, jr., of Limehouse, was kicked by a horse on Thanksgiving Day and had his upper jaw split and four teeth knocked out.

SEORCH lamb's wool underwear imported direct, cheap, cheaper than ever at Treble's, corner King and James streets, Hamilton.

BURGLARS.—Warden Baxter's residence at Burlington was raided one night last week, and a quantity of wearing apparel stolen therefrom.

CROP SALE.—The farm stock and implements of Mr. Robert Leslie, 1st line, Trafalgar, on Monday, Dec. 13th. Geo. Andrew, auctioneer.—See advt. in another column. 24-3t

NO UNDERWEAR in the trade wears like Treble's first class wool. Buy your woolen underwear at Treble's, corner of King and James Streets, Hamilton.

MONEY TO LOAN on real estate in sums to suit borrowers and at lowest rates of interest. Apply to M. E. MITCHELL, solicitor, &c., Main St., Milton, opposite the Bank of Hamilton.

ESTRAY.—Came to the premises of the subscriber, lot 15, con. 10, Trafalgar, a long-wooled ewe. Owner can have same by proving property and paying expenses.—SAMUEL MASON.

THE article, "Gen. Booth's Bonanza," on our fourth page, will be found well worth the perusal of all who wish to inform themselves as to the methods and true inwardness of the Salvation Army.

OMISSION.—In our report last week of the annual meeting of the Milton Branch Bible Society, the name of Rev. M. C. Cameron, of Knox Church, who took a prominent part in the proceedings, was inadvertantly omitted.

You can get a good heavy undershirt for 25 cents, better quality, all wool, 50 cents; Treble's famous O.K. shirt at 50 cents, the best in the trade. Call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere. Corner of King and James streets, Hamilton.

ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last, as Dr. Robertson was driving over the rough and frozen roads, the axle of his buggy broke, throwing him out. He escaped without injury. His horse started off, but fortunately came to a standstill without doing any further damage.

ACCIDENT.—The Acton Free Press says that on the 14th inst. Mrs. Weaver, an old lady living at Limehouse, fell from the loft of her stable and fractured her right thigh. She was taken to the residence of her sister, Mrs. John Newton, sr. Her injuries, on account of her age, are considered serious.

THE TELEGRAM'S NEW DRESS.—The Toronto Telegram appeared last week in a new dress, the type coming from the celebrated foundry of Miller & Richards, Edinburgh, Scotland. The Telegram now claims to be the best printed paper in Canada, and it certainly looks remarkably well.

THE RIFLE.—Mr. J. J. Zealand went to Hamilton last week to attend the matches of the 13th Battalion, of which he is a member, and a staff sergeant. He won the 17th prize, $4.50, in the principal match, fired at 200, 500, and 600 yards, and the first prize, $3, in the Non-Commissioned Officers' Cup Match, 500 and 600 yards.

A RUCTION.—About 1.15 on Tuesday morning a couple of men on their way home from an east-end shebeen had a slugging match in which one of them was laid low by a tremendous blow, straight from the shoulder, which landed on his face. The row disturbed several citizens from their slumbers, but east-enders have become used to that sort of thing.

"I have never," says Henry Watson, "had so complete and extensive a stock of druggists' sundries, Books, Toys, Knives, Christmas and New Years Cards. Many of these lines have been directly imported from the Old Country, and will well repay inspection by intending purchasers at this season of the year." 24-3t

A SUCCESSFUL VENTURE.—We are pleased to learn that Mr. Baine is meeting with great success in manufacturing organs and selling them direct to the public, thereby saving the customer the usual agent's commission and placing them on the market at a figure within reach of almost every one desirous of purchasing a really first-class instrument at factory prices. Prof. O'Brien, organist of St. Mary's Cathedral, and other professional musicians of Hamilton, speak very highly of the Baine organ.

NEARLY A FIRE.—On Monday last a quantity of clothing stored in a closet in Mr. R. Jones's dwelling, in the second story of his brick building, next door east of the Bank of Hamilton, Main st., took fire from the stovepipe. An alarm was sounded, a large crowd gathered, and the fire was soon extinguished, but not until it had got into the garret of the building so that a hole had to be cut through the roof to get at it. Very little damage was done. Mr. Jones holds a policy from the Waterloo Mutual Insurance Co.

CONCERT.—The concert on Tuesday evening, which closed the Ketcham Musical Convention, was largely attended and was a success in every respect. Miss Langstaff, of Toronto, assisted, was in good voice, and her singing was the feature of the concert. Mrs. Ketcham also sang, but labored under the disadvantage of a bad cold and could not do herself justice, though her singing of Millard's "Waiting" was greatly admired. The local singers, in their quartettes and choruses, showed excellent training and did Mr. Ketcham and themselves infinite credit.

PRESENTATION.—The employees of the dry-goods firm of A. Murray & Co., Hamilton, presented Miss Walker, a retiring fellow-employe, with a handsome and beautifully fitted dressing case last night. The presentation took place at the residence of Walter Oaten, 9 Victoria avenue north, and was made by Wm. Murray. Miss Walker, who for some years has been at the head of one of the departments of the business, has resigned, and proposes going to sunny California. She takes with her the best wishes of a host of warm friends, whose grief at parting is as sincere as their good wishes for the future. Messrs. A. Murray & Co. showed their appreciation of a zealous employee by presenting her with a check for $100.

The sales are so very large at this favorite house that Watkins has been sending orders weekly to the European, American and Canadian manufacturers for supplies. This week he has received New Dress Goods, New Silk Plush, New Lace Curtains, New Flannels, New Flannel Embroideries, Stair Linens, Cream Cottons, Shirtings, Small Wares, etc. The following goods have been marked down to about half their actual value: Cloths to make Boys' Overcoats, Boys' Jersey Suits, Ulster Cloths, Cloths for lining coat and buffalo robes, Ladies' and Misses' Fur Capes, Manples, Dolmans, Short Jackets and Ulsters. Merino Underclothing, Dress Trimmings, etc. Winceys at various prices and colors. Just see the 8c., 10c. and 12½c. Winceys, the 12½c. and higher prices of Melton Cloth Dress Goods, the 18c., 25c. and higher prices All-wool Dress Goods. The Black and Colored Cashmeres and Merinos. The Black Crapes in double, treble and quadruple widths, the are very rich, heavy and beautiful black. Grout's and Courtauld's Crapes at all prices from 50c. to $3. The Flannels are extraordinary good value. We are to see the 12½c. Flannels, the 18c. All-wool Grey Flannels, and the higher prices. These Flannelsit and the rest of the stock has been bought for prompt cash at the lowest possible prices, and are selling off at fully one-fourth less than they can be sold for next spring, owing to the enormous advance in the prices of wool. In has risen from 25c. per lb. 41½c. per lb in the London markets lately. Watkins got a very large stock of Blankets contracted for last July at old prices, all of which are selling off now at an immense reduction under last season's prices. Tobogganing Blankets cheap. Horse Blankets far less than ever before. Quilts and Comforters at extraordinary low prices for such nice serviceable goods. See the Ladies' and Gent', and the Girls' and Boys' Hosiery, Gloves and Neckwear. They are superior goods and unsurpassed in cheapness. The Carpets deserve especial attention, the qualities are so good, the patterns so beautiful, the prices so cheap. Silk, almost every article necessary for house furnishing always kept on hand, from the cheapest Hemp to the best Brussels and Wilton Carpets. Beautiful Mats, Rugs, Carpet Sweepers, Decorated Window Blinds, Rollers, Stair Rods, Mattings, Linoleums, Floor Oil-cloths, Table Oil-cloths, Stair Damasks, Lace, Smyrna, Raw Silk, Gold Embossed, Repp, Damask and Chenile Window Curtains. Mind the stores are on KING STREET EAST, ONE DOOR WEST OF HUGHSON ST. The name is

THOMAS C. WATKINS.

Hamilton, Oct. 30, 1886.

STEAM HEATING.—Mr. King, of Georgetown, is putting a steam heating apparatus in the dwelling of Mr. H. Watson, druggist.

DWELLING SOLD.—Mr. Wm. Aikens, formerly of Milton, has sold his dwelling on Commercial street to Mr. R. S. Porter for $400 cash.

MR J. H. BEEMER, the obliging agent of the G. T. P. R. here, has, we are happy to say, so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be out.

MESSRS. J. EASTWOOD & CO. have one of the finest stocks of holiday books ever brought to Hamilton. It is worth while visiting this establishment.

TREBLE is doing an enormous trade in wool underwear this season. The reason is his prices are exceedingly low. Corner King and James streets, Hamilton.

ASSEMBLY.—The assembly given under the auspices of the L. O. L., Milton, held in the roller rink on Friday night last, was well attended and all present seemed to enjoy themselves.

YOU will save 50 per cent. by buying your wool underwear at Treble's. Largest stock, cheapest goods in the trade. Treble's, corner King and James streets, Hamilton.

WOOD.—The tenders for cordwood to be supplied at the Court House were opened on Tuesday last by Mr. Wm. Vanallen, and the contract awarded to Mr. Robert Stewart, of Esquesing, at $3.44 per cord.

"TWO-TOED" BUTLER, Salvation Army drummer, got an overdose of Scott Act beverages on Tuesday, and proceeded to paint the town the color of the grandy shirt which he sports when parading with the forces of Gen. Booth.

MASS MEETING.—A grand mass meeting of Reformers will be held in Milton on Saturday, the 14th inst., when Hon. Messrs. Blake, Mowat and Ross, Mr. Wm. McCraney, M. P., Dr. Buck and others will address the meeting. All are cordially invited.

FIRE.—A fire broke out on Saturday, 30 h ult., at the rear of Clarke's bakery and T. Whittaker's store-house in Georgetown. The alarm was given, and the firemen were promptly on the ground. The fire was so hot that it soon reached McKay Bros.' store-house and the temperance shed. The firemen lost some time on account of the hose bursting, but, however, did good service. The losses are estimated as follows:—C. M. Clark $1,200, insured for $710; T. Whittaker $100, no insurance; McKay Bros. about $400, no insurance; Reeve McLeod $20, covered by insurance; the temperance shed $200.

BRAMPTON, Nov. 5th.—Early this morning T. Major, Mayor of Brampton, was awakened by a slight noise in his bedroom, and upon rising up in bed he observed a man enter the room and immediately sprang out of bed, seized his revolver and fired two shots at the retreating form of the thief, but he had too good a start and got away. The Mayor hurriedly rushed for his clothes, but they had disappeared. This morning they were found under the sidewalk, some distance from the Mayor's dwelling, but his valuable gold watch and chain and a small sum of money were gone. No clue to the thief has yet been found.

STREETSVILLE.—We understand that Messrs. Bell & Watson, of the Dundas Standard, are making arrangements to establish a weekly, non-partizan newspaper at Streetsville. It will be called the Streetsville Sun, and its initial number will appear about January 1st. The business men of Streetsville held a meeting to consider the matter and, it is reported, pledged themselves to present the publishers with a paid up subscription list of 500 names as soon as the new journal appears. This will give Messrs. Bell & Watson a fine start and we have no doubt that the people of Streetsville will be rewarded for their enterprise with a first-class local newspaper, something which the village has long wanted.

L. T. U.—A meeting of the Milton Liberal Temperance Union was held on Friday evening and was fairly well attended. Mr. J. Gordon Mowat, of Toronto, was present and delivered an able address on the objects of the Union, viz., the practice by its members of strict sobriety, the encouragement of true temperance, and the resistance of tyrannical legislation and tyranny of all kinds. The Scott Act tyranny, in particular, was discussed by the speaker and the members of the Union. The unjust and partizan administration of that Act by Police Magistrate Young, and the practice by that official of dragging defendants and witnesses from Milton and the upper portion of the county to Oakville were denounced. Several members expressed their intention of refusing to give evidence if summoned as witnesses in Scott Act prosecutions, even though such refusal should result in their imprisonment for contempt of court. Four new members were admitted. The next meeting of the Union will be held to-morrow evening at Lyon's hall at 8 p. m.
