

Kitchen appliances taken from Georgetown grocery store

Halton Regional Police are seeking the public's help in identifying two suspects believed to be involved in the theft of three food mixers from the Real Canadian Superstore on Guelph Street Thursday, Jan. 4.

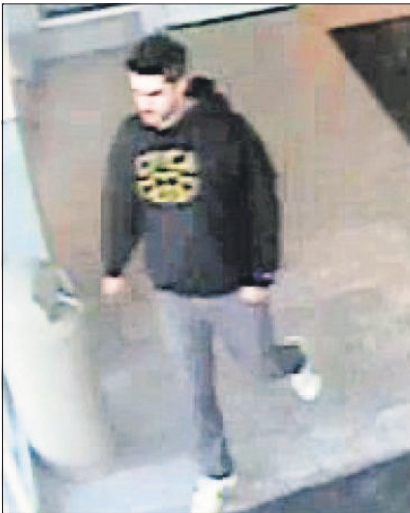

At approximately 10:45 a.m., a male suspect entered the store and took two Kitchen Aid Ultra Power Mixers, valued at $549.99 each, along with a Kitchen Aid Classic Mixer, carrying a $449.99 price tag, without purchasing the items.

The man exited the store and got into a light-coloured four-door sedan with a sunroof, which had been waiting at the front entrance with a female in the front passenger seat.

Description of the male is about 30 years old with dark hair, wearing a black hoodie, grey pants and white running shoes.

The female is described as approximately 25 years of age, wearing a three-quarter-length black coat with a hood.

Anyone with info is asked to contact Det. Const. Barkhouse at 905-878-5511 ext. 2112.
