Business Cards of ten lines or less $3.00 per annum.

The number of lines to be reckoned by the space they occupy, measured by a scale of solid Nonpareil.

Advertisements without special instructions inserted till forbid, and charged accordingly.

Orders for discontinuing advertisements must be in writing, otherwise the publishers will not be responsible.

Any Special Notice, the object of which is to promote the pecuniary benefit of any individual, company, institution, or fund, will be considered an advertisement, and charged accordingly.

Notices of any kind admitted among the Editorials at 10 cents for first insertion, and 5 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Marriages and Deaths, and notices of births, deaths, and marriages, 25 cents each.

Transient advertisements ten cents per line, for the first insertion, and five cents for each subsequent insertion.

Advertisements must be inserted at 50 cents for first insertion, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Advertisements must accompany order in every case to ensure insertion.

Job Printing of all kinds done neatly and promptly at the lowest cash rates.

Subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly will oblige us by informing us of the fact.

Subscribers in arrears will be charged at the rate of 50 cents per year.

Subscribers who have papers discontinued before the expiration of their subscription will please to remember that we do not like to be dunned for the money when we do not know that they are not willing to pay for the paper they have had the use of.

The publishers have no desire to continue the publication of any paper to the credit of any subscriber who may be indebted to them for publishing other than the regular issue of a paper, unless such indebtedness is acknowledged by the parties to be correct, or unless such publication is ordered by a responsible party.

A post-office notice to discontinue is not legal. It is the law that all subscribers must be dealt with as such until all arrears are paid, except at the option of the publisher.
