A SNIDE SHOW.—About half a dozen men and women calling themselves the American Novelty Company came to Milton from Toronto last Friday evening. They had previously advertised themselves with a large colored cuts which had been designed originally for the Salisbury Tranbaudours and the Bananny Rye Co., and which they had gained it is hard to say how, but they don't impose on the people of Milton to any great extent. Their so-called Hormance was listened to by perhaps fifty persons, including deadheads, and thoroughly appreciated. As flowers are not in season, their audience shied bouquets at them, but on their way from the hall to their hotel they were treated with a shower of ancient hen fruit, the odor of which was, it not as sweet, at least as powerful as that of the flowers that ever blooed.

VESTRY MEETING.—The annual vestry meeting was held at Grace Church on Monday evening, when the following officers were elected and appointed: John Hannant and Wm. Panton, wardens; S. Hannant, jr., S. Dice, J. Hunter, C. W. Martin, H. H. Watson and W. Sheppard, sidesmen, and J. Butterfield and J. Hunter, auditors.

THEY call married ladies by their husband's titles in some cities of the States, and there is talk of introducing the custom here. We take the initiative by announcing that Mrs. Ashshauler Jones and Mrs. Kalsominer Brown have been engaged to polish up the handle of our big front door and otherwise beautify our palatial residence this season

A VERY OLD COUPLE.—At Knatchbull, Halton county, there is a couple who, if they live till May 1, will see the 66th anniversary of their wedding. They are John Colquhoun and wife, she being 92 years of age and he 94. They are very dull of hearing and nearly blind. Otherwise their mental faculties are almost as good as ever, and their bodily health has been good until lately.—Guelph Mercury.

RTRS 'RACTURED.—Last Wednesday as Mr. Arch. McPherson of this place, was teaming telephone poles from his swamp, near Acton, his load upset and he fell with great force on his left side on the bench of the sleigh, breaking two ribs. Mr. McPherson is a man weighing some 250 pounds and the fall was consequently a severe one. He doesn't feel in first-class condition now for the spring duties of the farmer.—Free Press.

H. M. S. PINAFORE.—The Holman Opera Company deserved a much larger house than the one that greeted them on Thursday evening; but that did not affect their performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's well known "Pinafore" which was a genuine treat. Miss Sallie Holman, as Josephine; Mr. Dan Young, as Sir Joseph and Mr. J. T. Dalton, as Capt. Corcoran were all equally good, and we venture to say should the company pay Milton another visit they will have no reason to complain of want of patronage.

A STRUGGLE WITH A MOUSTACHE.—Several Georgetown Freemasons and some visitors from Burlington enjoyed a rare exhibition of vanity at Georgetown the other evening. When they left the lodge room, at nearly 1 o'clock in the morning, they saw in a window of Bennett's hotel, opposite, a young man at a mirror, struggling with his moustache, examining it closely from every point of view, and taking the most lively interest in its progress. The Masonic brethren enjoyed the show for many minutes, and when they left the young man was still attitudinizing, and endeavoring to see the moustache from a new point of view.—Spectator.

A FRUITLESS RAID.—On Monday evening two excisemen came to Milton from Toronto, and after being reinforced by License Inspector Brothers and his heeler, John Cochrane, made a raid on Bob Armstrong's establishment in the east end. They told Armstrong that he was suspected of having an illicit still on his premises and that they were going to search for it. They did search pretty thoroughly, going all through the house, investigating mattrasses and looking under beds, and finally winding up with the pig pen and stable, where they rooted up rubbish heaps, but it was useless—they found neither mashtubs, boilers nor worms, and they took their departure empty handed. The excisemen put up at the Wallace House and returned to Toronto next morning. They reported having found whiskey and beer in Armstrong's house, but said that they left it there as they were not whiskey detectives, were looking for a still, not for liquor, and had nothing to do with the enforcement of the Scott Act.

DRAWING BINDERS BY MAN POWER.—A correspondent sends us the following:—The objection raised by many farmers to the self-binders is that it takes three horses to draw them, but such is the march of science that we may expect ere long to see the farmer walking around the field drawing his binder himself, while the boy harrows the fallow with the horses. Mr. Smith, agent for a Brantford machine, astonished the farmers at McPhedran's sale the other day by telling them he could put his machine in gear, all in in working order, and draw it himself across the barn floor. Blacklock, another agent, not to be outdone, said he could do the same thing with his machine, manufactured by Elliott & Sons, London. Smith offered to bet Blacklock $10 he could not do it. The challenge was accepted, the money staked, and Mr. Sayers and Mr. McHolmes were appointed referees. The trial took place that evening, 1st of April, in Joe Canute's barn, Nassagaweya, in the presence of a large number of witnesses. Blacklock won the money to the entire satisfaction of all those present, and now offers to bet Smith that he cannot draw his Brantford machine on the same conditions. So further developments may be expected in a day or two.—Com.

FOUR THINGS OF INTEREST.

Four departments to-day. Silk, Dress Goods, Prints and Millinery Departments. Each full to completeness for the Spring. Such an array of patterns, colors, makes and wares. You never saw anything like them.

We set all our city agog with our Dress Goods. We started to carry the largest and finest stock of Dress Goods in Hamilton some years ago. We have kept it up since. We know people in neighboring towns and villages want Dresses as handsome and stylish as our city customers. That is the reason we are talking of them to-day. We won't fail. It would fill the paper. What you will buy from us will depend on your purse. Doesn't have to be such a big one to buy lovely goods. Prices commence at 12½c., and go up, up, up. Thousands of prices between.

And of Silks, not a maker worth naming under the sun but we have. Black Merveilleux as low as 85c.; colored Gro Grains, pure silk, 50c.; Fancy Silks at every price and in every color. You may come to us for Prints if you are wise. We give you Prints that make up fine as Silk almost. It will cost you a little more for these Camelines & Sateens; but look at the dress you have. You could very well come from Lake Erie to us if only for Millinery. In this we copy direct Paris, London and New York styles. We can trim a Hat or Bonnet in a few hours for you. Something that will not cost you much, but will give pleasure and satisfaction.

Jail Statistics are no Test of Halton's Drunkenness under the Scott Act.

Editor Champion:

SIR,—You say truly, in last week's paper, that "illicit liquor sellers do their best to keep their customers out of the clutches of the constables on account of the danger of the arrest of the drinker being followed by the prosecution of the vendor for violation of the Scott Act," and therefore our "jail returns, badly as they shew against the Scott Act," do not shew so many committals as would be the case under the license system when the seller of liquor need not be afraid to oust the unruly drinker from the hotel.

But there is another view of the matter of which these jail statistics take no notice. Thirteen (13) committals to our jail last year for drunkenness, (not 2 as Rev. J. S. Ross has falsely affirmed) give not the slightest idea of drunkenness in Halton, that is, if we regard drunkenness from the standpoint of prohibition and teetotalism. If only teetotalers are temperate, and only tipplers are intemperate or drunkards and ought to be arrested and jailed, then it is quite possible to arrest not only 13, but probably double that number any Saturday or Sunday night in Milton alone, not speaking of the other towns of Halton. If all the partially intoxicated, or fully intoxicated boys, young men, older men and women in Milton alone, whom no constable sees, and if seen could not warrantably be arrested, were exhibited together on one of our Saturday nights or Sundays, we should form a better idea of the direful influence of the Scott Act in producing our numerous shebeens and other places where secret, guarded, and prolonged dissipation is munity than was formerly the case when a few licensed hotels alone were allowed to sell intoxicating drinks.

TRAFALGAR.

April 12th.

It is reported, that the Dominion Government have come to an arrangement with the Prince Edward Island Government.

A whiskey informer who had given evidence in a number of Scott Act cases was mobbed and badly beaten at Strathroy on Monday.

President Cleveland's letter re the Retaliation Act is looked upon as an indication that a settlement of the fisheries difficulty is near at hand.
