THE BEAR AND THE BOUNCER FINED.—Mayor Ann'ews and Magistrate Felan delivered judgment in the assault case of the Queen vs. W. H. Young and W. D. Brothers at Oakville on Friday evening. The police magistrate and the inspector were convicted and fined $5 each and costs. There is some talk of an appeal, but whether anything will come of it remains to be seen.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT.—On Friday last the four-year-old son and only child of Mr. Wm. H. Howes, of Auburn, who had been playing in his father's house was missed by his mother who, on going to look for him, found him lying in some water which had collected in a disused cellar on the premises. Though the child could not have been out of the house more than ten minutes he had been in the water long enough to be drowned, and all the efforts of his parents and Dr. Stuart, who had been summoned, to resuscitate him were useless. He was a particularly bright child, and great sympathy is felt for his heartbroken parents.

THE Hamilton people are bound to have a good time over the Queen's Jubilee on the 21st and 22nd June. The programme includes a large procession, a novel feature in which will be representatives of all nationalities under the British flag in costume. There is to be baseball, games, races and sports of all kinds in Dundern Park, a military parade, a musical festival and fireworks. The drill corps of the city will give an exhibition of fancy drill and go through evolutions of an interesting nature, and the bicyclists have arranged a tournament and will perform various manoeuvres of an attractive character. The list of games is good. The performances of the oratorios "The Creation" and "Samson" in the Crystal Palace by 500 performers will be very fine and should attract all musical people in the neighborhood. Amongst the singers will be eminent soloists from New York and Boston. There will be reduced railway fares for this occasion. 51-2t

VANALLEN—WADDELL.—One of Hamilton's most successful and best known citizens and one of the fairest of Hamilton's daughters were happily wedded yesterday. The bridegroom was Eli VanAllen, and the bride was Miss Clara Waddell. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's mother, 94 James street south, the ceremony being performed by Rev. S. J. Hunter, D. D., in the presence of between 40 and 50 friends. The bridesmaids were Miss Mayhee, of Buffalo, and Miss Morphy, of Toronto, and the groomsmen were J. N. Waddell and C. Newberry. The bride looked lovely in a heliotrope traveling costume. Mr. and Mrs. VanAllen have gone east on a wedding trip that will extend over several weeks. The bride received many valuable presents, not the least of which was the deed of a fine real estate property from the bridegroom. Mr. VanAllen also presented each of the bridesmaids with a beautiful and costly pair of bracelets. —Times, June 3rd.

OAKVILLE is still in a ferment over the alleged attack in the Star some time ago by Rev. D. E. Brownell on Mr. Thomas Howarth. Editor C. R. Orr has made a declaration that the manuscript of the slanderous squib was in his belief in the handwriting of Mr. Brownell, and was left in the Star office by that gentleman, and another that he has had convincing proof that it was not. Mr. George L. Tizard, barrister, makes a declaration that he has compared the manuscript with a specimen of the penmanship of the minister and has concluded that they were both written by the same person, while Dr. Lusk, high school teacher, declares that a similar comparison has convinced him that the manuscript is a clumsy forgery. The Dundas Standard suggests that as the evidence on the one side counterbalances that on the other Mr. Brownell should settle the matter by making an affidavit to the effect that: "1.—He did not write the original letter signed 'D. E. B.' 2nd.—That he did not clip from the Meaford Mirror 'Tenders Wanted,' and insert the above clause (the one slandering Mr. Howarth). 3rd.—That he had nothing whatever to do with either the authorship or publication in the Oakville Star of 'Tenders Wanted' as it appeared in that paper." Mr. Brownell, it is announced, has instructed Messrs. Shilton, Allan & Baird, barristers, to commence proceedings against Mr. Howarth, but whether any more will come of this than came of an announcement some time ago that the autocrat of the "court of truth and righteousness" was about to take similar action against the proprietors of the CHAMPION remains to be seen.

COUNTY RATE.

The rate levied on the equalized assessment for the expenses of the county for 1887-8 was one mill on the dollar, as follows:—

NEVER TRIED IT."

What! Never tried Johnson's Tonis Bitters! Then do so at once, it's positively the best general tonic on the market. I've often heard of it but thought that it was to be placed on the list of the many trashy preparations that flood our market. But since you recommend it so highly I'll give it a trial. Do so, it's good for any complaint in which a tonic is benefit, and can be taken by man, woman, or child, 50c. and $1 per bottle at H. Watson's drug store, Milton.

When gentlemen bet hats they do not mean cheap straw hats. The winner nominates, the loser pays the bills. If some of the recent election hat bets are paid at all, five cent straws will evidently have to fill the bill.

That Baseball Match.

To the Editor of the Champion:

DEAR SIR,—A communication appeared in your columns last week signed "Fair-Play," which is grossly unfair as well as somewhat insulting to the Omagh B. B. C. and liable to place them in a false position before the public. There appeared the week before an item of news relative to the game on the 24th of May. I do not know who wrote it, but I saw nothing objectionable in it but the last paragraph. The Omagh club did not object to the players from outside places; had they done so it would have been before the game and not after. "Fair Play" also says we had men from nearly every place in the county, which is not correct. We played only bona fide members of our club who have played and practised with us all season. We do not hold such a high opinion of our ability on the diamond as "Fair Play" does of Lowville club, but we fully intended giving Lowville a veteran match until this letter appeared, and the style in which it is written leads us to infer that it is written by one of the members of the club. If not, I presume your columns are open for an apology. Till then we must decline arranging any match with Lowville. In conclusion I might say that "Fair Play" might with a greater degree of decency have refrained from speaking so disrespectfully of the umpire and of our players. It certainly looks like a coward's revenge to shelter himself behind a nom de plume and malign others. Hoping you will find space in your valuable paper for this letter,

I remain, on behalf O. B. B. Club,
Yours truly,
A. HENDERSON,
Captain.

Omagh, June 6th, 1887.

Town Council.

The town council met on Friday night, when the following accounts were ordered to be paid:

D. Wheelihan, lumber, &c.	$290.89
M. Crawford, scantling	18.81
Conway Bros., repairing lamps, &c.	5.85
	$315.55

Moved by Mr. McCollom, seconded Mr. Andrews, that the usual grant of $15 be made to our volunteers for procuring butter and milk; said amount to be expended by the officers of the company.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Hunter, seconded by Mr. Hemstreet, that the Clerk be instructed to notify W. L. P. Eager to move back his fence off the alleyway allowance belonging to the town and to replace the sidewalk he ripped up.—Carried.

No tenders for the construction and rental to the town of the proposed new waterworks were received, and the council adjourned until Monday evening next.

Another Woman Nippered.

(Spectator.)

Some Scott Act constables handcuffed a woman in Arthur the other day, and the citizens are indignant. They must get used to these little things. The handcuffing of woman and dragging them with "nippers" originated in the home of the Scott Act—Milton. It seems to be a part of the great moral law.

Notice to the Public.

NELSON, March 30, 1887.

As I told some parties last season that one of Charles Forter's young stallions was not sired by General Stanton, as he advertised him, and accused him of giving one of his colts a false pedigree, and as that report got circulated through the county, I here state that I have since made enquiry and find that I was mistaken. Their breeding is correct. They are bred as he advertised, and they are without doubt full brothers, being both sired by General Stanton.
