IT is expected that Mr. H. Tremayne, son of Rev. Mr. Tremayne, formerly incumbent of Milton and Hornby, will officiate next Sunday morning and evening in Grace Church, Milton, and in St. Stephen's Church, Hornby, in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Any one who may desire a copy can obtain one by dropping a post card to Mr. H. J. HILL, the Secretary, Toronto.

GONE TO CAMP.—The Milton Company of the 20th Batt. never turned out with a fuller complement of men and of better appearance than it did on Monday last. All the companies of the battalion left by the H. & N. W. R. to Burlington, then by boat to the camp at Niagara. The camp this year will consist of about 4000 men under canvas, over which Col. Otter, D. A. G., will be in command.

BASEBALL.—On Saturday last an interesting game of baseball between Omagh and Scotch Block was played on the farm of Mr. Michie, Scotch Block, resulting in a victory for the Block boys. Owing to the roughness of the field the score ran rather high. We must commend the Omagh club for the gentlemanly conduct of its members. The game was umpired by Mr. A. Robertson, to the satisfaction of all.

THE DUNDAS STANDARD.—Mr. W. J. Watson has bought out the interest of his partner, Mr. T. J. Bell, in the Dundas Staudard and is now its sole proprietor. Since Mr. Watson became connected with the Standard it has improved wonderfully, and the Conservatives of North Wentworth have good reason to be satisfied with their organ. May it and its proprietor prosper.

SCOTT ACT CONVICTIONS.—Police Magistrate Young and didn't know it was loaded Brothers held sessions of the "court of truth and righteousness" last week and our impartial beak managed to convict Mrs. Bennett and Robert Agnew, of Acton, and Wm. Fry and W. Pitman, of Georgetown, all of them hotel keepers, the shebeen men having been given the go-by as usual. Mrs. Bennett was fined $50 and the other three defendants $100 each.

DOMINION DAY IN MILTON.—The posters are out for a huge celebration here on Friday, 1st July. In the evening the Milton Amateur Dramatic Club will reproduce "Robert Macaire," with a new farce, "The Irish Tutor." At the last production of "Robert Macaire," some two months ago, the hall was crowded to the doors, and we may say that a better pleased audience never left the hall than at the conclusion of Charles Seloy's beautiful two-act drama.

"IMMIGRANT CHILDREN."—Mr. John T. Middlemore, the founder of the Orphan Children's Emigration Charity, London, Ont., left Liverpool on the 10th inst., in the S. S. Lake Ontario with a party of 50 girls and 100 boys between the ages of 8 and 20 years, who are brought out to this country for adoption or hire, chiefly among farmers. They are expected to arrive at the Guthrie Home, near the city, on or about the 23rd inst. This will be Mr. Middlemore's 15th annual visit to these shores with juvenile emigrants from Birmingham, England, since 1872. Already many applications accompanied with good references have been made for the children expected to arrive, but more are required. Further particulars may be obtained by addressing Mr. H. Gibbons, Manager of the Guthrie Home, London, Ont.

WAS HE MURDERED?—Joseph Baker, a Waterdown butcher, came to market in this city on Saturday and went back to Waterdown in the afternoon. There he borrowed Joseph Carson's horse and buggy, as his own horse was tired, and went to a picnic of Waterdown people held at Bay View. From Bay View he came to Hamilton, having a Hamilton man named John Weir in his buggy. About 10.30 Baker left the Thompson house—where he stops when in town—telling the landlord, Simon Lalor, that he was going home. He was alone. He must have gone through the York street toll-gate after the gate-keeper had gone to bed, as he was not seen afterwards. The horse went home to Waterdown some time during the night and was found early Sunday morning trying to get down to a creek where he had been accustomed to drink. A milkman on his way home from the city on Sunday found Baker's hat and several papers belonging to him at the end of a high bridge over a ravine on the Waterdown road. Yesterday his pocketbook was found near the same place. It was empty, but Baker had at least $100 on Saturday. Like most butchers he generally carried a good deal of money with him. Many of the villagers turned out yesterday and searching parties travelled the road and the neighborhood of the long bridge, but found only the empty pocketbook. The road is lonely and overhung with trees, and Baker's friends believe he has been robbed and murdered. Travellers have several times been stopped by thieves at this point. Baker was 22 years old.—Hamilton Times.

Something New.

Outsiders frequently wonder where the railroads obtain proper return for some of the ingenious but costly methods adopted in advertising their lines. One of the latest to attract our attention is a nicely bound 64-page book entitled, "What to Do," containing description and the correct rules of a large number of games suitable for parlor or lawn, which has been issued by the Passenger Department of the St. Paul Minneapolis & Manitoba Railway, and will, we understand, be forwarded postpaid upon receipt of 8 cents by C. H. Warren, General Passenger Agent, at St. Paul. It is a book that would ornament almost any table and interest both old and young.

A collision occurred Saturday at Denbigh, Wales, between a mob and a body of police who were protecting an auctioneer engaged in selling property for tithes. The mob turned an excited bull loose on the police and assaulted them with rotten eggs. One arrest was made.

Pills 25 cents per bottle. Bitters 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Sold by H. Watson, druggist, Milton.

Three children were burned near Menota, Man., on Thursday night.

A pipe maker in Metz has been fined for selling pipes bearing a carved head of Gen. Boulanger.

At Ballindangin, near Mitchelstown, Ireland, 200 children have boycotted the National schools.

M. Waddington, the French Ambassador, has resumed negotiations with Lord Salisbury in the Suez Canal and the New Hebrides neutrality questions.

The steamer Castleford, which was wrecked off the Scilly Island, had 800 head of cattle shipped from Waterloo, Ont., on May 23. One hundred head were saved.

Certain of the Indians of the Grand River reservation are opposed to the exercise of the franchise by the red men, and have petitioned Parliament to repeal the Franchise Act as far as it relates to Indians.

Paste this in your hat so that you may have it handy when you go fishing.—A strong solution of camphor and alcohol, mixed with equal parts of sweet oil, or, better, oil of pennyroyal, will being rubbed on the parts exposed effectually keep away mosquitoes.

Every participant in the House of Commons Scott Act debate, pro or con., admitted that the act was a failure. Some blamed the act and some blamed the Government, but all admitted the failure. There is in that admission food for thought for people who take the trouble to think.

The petitions circulated some time ago urging the County Council of Frontenac, to agitate for the repeal of the Scott Act, and to refuse to sanction the appointment of Police Magistrate McKim and decline to contribute to his salary are being numerously signed.

The Elgin County Council objects to the appointment of a County Police Magistrate, on the ground of expense and because it claims that all Scott Act cases have been satisfactorily tried by the Justices, and will petition the Lieutenant-Governor to cancel the appointment.

At a meeting held in Detroit on Thursday night a resolution was adopted demanding the enforcement of the United States law prohibiting the importation of foreign labor, the object being to prevent Canadians living in Windsor from being employed in Detroit. It is reported that the Dominion Government is preparing to take retaliatory measures against Detroiters who work in Windsor in the event of the enforcement of the law.

One of the editors of the Clinton News Record is credited with saying this of the Scott Act:—"To say that the Scott Act promotes temperance in that large town (Clinton) would be very far from the truth. From every indication the reverse is the case. And a large number of youths still in their teens are among the class who are now drinkers—the very class whom the Scott Act was to keep liquor from. Woodstock has a population of 8,000 souls, and the Act has been such a total failure that the Council have petitioned Parliament to repeal the Act and give them a license law. They have good grounds of complaint."

THE PLIGHT OF A DRUMMER.—In a certain hotel not over one thousand miles from Woodstock, the other evening, says the Sentinel-Review, a commercial traveller had a rather novel experience. Just as he was stepping into his virtuous couch he was horrified to see a middle-aged lady of good proportions, and decidedly en dishabille, rush into his room and seize, not himself, but his valise, and loudly asserting that it was hers, rush off with it. Though, like his class, a modest man, the drummer could not see his valuables carried off without a protest. He was not arrayed for an appearance in public or for a foot race; but he took his chances and started in hot pursuit. After a spirited chase through corridors, around corners and staircases the Amazon and the drummer were headed off by a crowd who had rushed out to see the fun. An excited husband appeared on the scene, when it was explained that the rigorous enforcement of the Scott Act had affected the woman's head and sent her off on a little "tear." The drummer has not yet recovered from the shock of seeing a female in his room and now carefully locks the door when he is alone.

It Wouldn't Prohibit.

Montreal Star.

The success of the Scott Act has not been such as to convince thinking people who deplore the evils of intemperance that prohibition, if it became the law of the land, would really prohibit.
