NEVER TRIED IT.

Never tried Johnson's Tonic Bitters? Then do so at once, it's positively a general tonic on the market. I've heard of it but thought that it was placed on the list of the many trashy medicines that flood our market, but I can recommend it so highly I'll give my testimony. Do so, it's good for any complaint in which a tonic is beneficial, and taken by man, woman or child, 50c. and $1 per bottle at H. Watson's drug store, Milton.

This year being the tercentenary of the execution of Mary Queen of Scots, it is proposed to hold at Peterborough an historical exhibition of portraits, rings, miniatures and all objects of interest connected with that unfortunate Queen. The exhibition will be opened on the 13th of July and closed on or about the 9th of August, including the date of Queen Mary's visit to Peterborough Cateral. The festival is given her patronage to the unfortunate Queen, and the Dean of Peterborough is the president of a very influential committee by which the exhibition will be managed.

Nelson's All Healing White Ointment.

The wonderful healing and soothing properties of the above named excellent salve have been found by many that have used it to be most efficacious in the treatment of sale rheum, pimples, blotches, boils, chilblains, colds, burns, chafings, etc. One trial will be sufficient to prove that what we claim for it is correct. For sale at 25 cents per box by Watson's druggist.

Under the heading "Why the Irish are Poor," the Scottish American Journal of last week gives the following instance of how industrious works in the Emerald Isle: In 1854 Sir W. Mackay, seed merchant, Dublin, purchased a property in the county Cork. The rental at the time was £295 16s. In 1856 he increased the rental to £336 in 1870 to £352, and by making no offers to quit and ejectments this year has succeeded for some years past in raising the rental to £501. The unfortunate tenants struggled under the increased burden as best they could, sinking deeper into arrears each year; and now most of their number have been served with notice of ejectment because they cannot pay impossible rents, and in all probability the forces of the Crown will shortly be called upon to assist in turning them and their families adrift on the world.

"They have a larger sale in my district, says a well known druggist, "than any other pills on the market, and give the best satisfaction for sick headache, biliousness, constipation, etc., and when combined with Johnson's Tonic Bitters, Johnson's Tonic Liver Pills will perform what no other medicine has done before for suffering humanity." Pills 25 cents per bottle. Bitters 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Sold by H. Watson, druggist, Milton.

The American Board of Foreign Missions has received tidings of a terrible famine in Asia Minor, in a region of which Adana is the centre. The afflicted section contains over 100,000 inhabitants, of whom 35,000 are destitute, and cannot be kept from starvation unless help is brought to them immediately. Many of them have lived until now only by selling their furniture, in some cases even to the beds from under them. The harvest time has passed, but not a single sheaf of grain will be cut in the plains ordinarily so fertile, save a few fields artificially watered.

DISAPPEARED.—A little English girl about 11 years of age, short and stout, with round face, light complexion, brown hair, and blue eyes, from the Dr. Barnardo Home, who had been living here with Mr. and Mrs. McCollom for about three or four years, mysteriously disappeared. She left either Sunday night last or Monday morning early, unknown to the family, and so far they can get no trace of her. She wore at the time of her disappearance a light brown dress, dark brown straw hat with red ribbon, and had a long blue-black cloth jacket. Any information as to her whereabouts is requested to be sent either to Mr. J. H. McCollom, Milton, or to the Home to Miss Sanderson, "Hazelbrae," Peterborough. Her disappearance is all the more mysterious as no reason can be assigned for her movements. She has been all cared for and carefully looked after by Mr. and Mrs. McCollom.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday, at a barn raising on the farm of Mr. P. J. Inglehart, near Palermo, after the first bent had been put up and stayed, and as the second was being put up an alarm was given that it was breaking. At this the men who were supporting it became frightened, dropped their pike poles and ran away. The bent fell and struck Mr. Thomas Dearing, senior, on the back of his head and neck, killing him instantly.

THE POWDER MILLS CASE.—The judgment for the plaintiff for $2000 in the case of Matthews vs. The Hamilton Powder Co., which was sustained some time ago by the Court of Queen's Bench, was set aside yesterday at Toronto by the Court of Appeal. The plaintiff is the widow of the late Mr. Geo. Matthews, an employee of the company, who was killed when the powder mills near Cumminsville were blown up a few years ago.

W. A. INGLEHART, of Nelson, came to town yesterday staggering beneath the weight of a strawberry 6¾ inches in circumference and weighing 2¾ ounces. Joseph Lindley, of Burlington, was too busy or bashful to come in himself, but he induced his neighbor, Joseph Howard, to take in a still bigger one. It was 9½ inches in circumference, and knocks the spots off anything in the strawberry line this season. The two jumbos belong to the Sharpless and Crescent varieties respectively.—Spectator.

THE SLOGAN OF THE LORNES.—Private Hugh McCutcheon, of No. 4 Co., 20th Lorne Rifles, was an important man at the volunteer camp at Niagara. He was Col. Allen's orderly, looked after that gallant officer's horse, and shouts of "Hughey, Hughey," with a peculiar inflection on the second syllable, were so frequent that visitors generally were led to ask for an explanation. They were always informed "Hughey" was the slogan of the Lornes, though it was not by any means confined to that regiment.

PRESENTATION OF MEDALS.—On Friday evening S. Passmore May, C. L. H., Commissioner of Education at the Colonial and Indian Exhibition of 1886, presented diplomas and fine bronze medals awarded at the exhibition to pupils of Mr. Henry Gray's class in connection with the Milton Mechanics' Institute. The names of the pupils so honored are as follows:—Minnie Clements, Janet Duncan, Bertha Ezard, Fannie Johnson, Flora Lyon, Annie Lyon, Jennie Patterson, Gertie Robertson, Mary Sanderson, and Mamie Robertson.

REV. R. J. LAIDLAW, LL.D.—The university of Galesville, Wis., has conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws on Rev. R. J. Laidlaw of this city, in recognition of his pulpit and pastoral ability, his scholaristic attainments, and his success as an author. The proposal to confer this honor originated with the authorities of the university, among whom is Rev. Dr. Thomas, of La Crosse, a fellow student of the pastor of St. Paul's, and one of his most scholarly friends. Besides being a director of Galesville university, Dr. Thomas has the honor of being a Fellow of Princeton college, New Jersey, and of having received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from a leading European university.—Spectator.

DOMINION DAY.—It is six years since there has been a public celebration of of any national holiday in Milton, but that of Dominion Day (to-morrow) promises to be a big one. Valuable prizes are offered for athletic sports; there will be lacrosse, baseball and cricket matches, and in the evening there will be an amateur dramatic entertainment for the benefit of the band. Certain spiteful parties have endeavored to prejudice the public against the entertainment by spreading lying reports to the discredit of those taking part in it, but this has only helped to advertise it, and the indications are that it will draw a crowded house. The amateurs will produce Charles Selby's two-act melodrama "Robert Macaire," and the farce of "The Irish Tutor." The Milton orchestra will play choice selections.

IS IT A BACK DOWN?—Last year after winning a match from a junior club here the Burlington cricketers claimed the championship of Halton. At the opening of the present season they published a challenge to all clubs in the county to play three or more matches for the championship, which they still claimed to hold. The result was the organization of a club here, the secretary of which wrote two letters in May to the Burlingtons accepting their challenge and offering to arrange for the first game at any time which might be mutually convenient. No answer was received until last week when the Burlingtons wrote proposing to play here on Friday next, a date for which the Miltonians had already arranged a match with the Lambton Mills club. This was explained to the Burlingtons and on Tuesday a telegram was received from the latter stating that they would be unable to play on any day during the present season except to-morrow. As the Lambton Mills match cannot be cancelled to suit the club down by the lake it looks as though there will be no championship games with the self-styled champions this year. The Milton boys, however, intend to challenge the Burlingtons to play at Burlington at an early date, and it remains to be seen whether the "champions" really want business by their deeds as the commencement of the season or whether it was only a bluff.

MR. J. A. SPEDDING, who recently emigrated from Milton to the Northwest, has our thanks for a bundle of Calgary papers.

BASE BALL.—A game of base ball was played at Auburn on Saturday last between the Auburn and Omagh clubs, resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 37 to 28.

COURT OF REVISION.—Only one case came before the Judge's Court of Revision. It was an appeal against the assessment of the Milton steam grist mill, which was reduced from $2500 to 2000.

IN Waterdown the opinion that Jos. Baker has been murdered is settling into a conviction. His friends think that his body was deposited in the bay, and that the halter which was missing from the buggy was used to drag it there.

CONVALESCENT.—We are happy to say that Dr. C. Freeman, who has been laid up for some weeks by a bruised and partially dislocated knee, caused by a kick from his horse, is at last convalescent, and it is hoped that he will be able to attend to his practice next week. He has taken into partnership his son Dr. W. F. Freeman, late of Walkerton. See card in another column.

DISMISSED WITH COSTS.—Yesterday Police Magistrate Young, of Oakville, made an application to have have his conviction for assaulting N. Murphy, the criminal lawyer, quashed in Osgoode Hall, before Mr. Justice O'Connor. Mr. Tizard, of Oakville, appeared to oppose the application on behalf of the convicting magistrates, and Mr. Murphy was on hand. The application was dismissed with costs, and the conviction stands.—Toronto News June 25.

For the first twenty-five large portraits as samples will be made a great reduction. They are the newest and most durable portraits now made. Bromide paintings. See them! Still fourteen for the dozen of cabinet photos. A mirror given away with our $3.50 and $4.00 styles. Every $3.00 paid in gets a ticket for the one given away Saturday evening. The last lucky number was 196. Wm. Farmer, 85 King St. West, corner Macnab.

CREDITABLE.—Our town was unusually quiet and orderly last Saturday night and Sunday, the usual weekly orgies being omitted for once, drunks being uncommonly few. This speaks well for the Milton volunteers who returned from camp and were paid off on Saturday, and disposes of the sneering charge that the volunteers are composed principally of toughs, which is so often made by those who are too sordid, too lazy, or too cowardly to join them.

"BILLY THE BOUNCER'S" ruling passion is a desire for notoriety, and he is getting it with a vengeance. Last week his name appeared, along with that of our learned and impartial police magistrate in the conviction list for Halton among those who transgressed the laws of the land and were punished for it. At the end of the present quarter it will figure in the list for Wentworth opposite a conviction for assaulting a woman. Billy's peculiar swagger as he parades the streets is getting more decided than ever, and he will doubtless add to his record soon. Hotel landladies, beware of him, his gun, and his pinpoints. He is dangerous at least when he gets a defenceless woman for a victim.

FIRE AT ACTON.—Mr. S. A. Secord's store and dwelling on the north corner of Mills and Main streets, occupied by G. Andrews & Co., was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning, together with part of the stock and furniture of Andrews. The fire was first discovered about 1 a. m., in the east corner of the store, and after chopping the front door down access was had to the fire. It was supposed to have been extinguished and the parties all returned to their homes. About 4 o'clock the fire alarm was sounded for the same building. This time the fire broke out in the same corner, but in the upper flats, and had made such headway that it could not be put out. Attention was then turned to save the other buildings endangered and a further spread was prevented. The building and stock were covered by insurance.

KEEPING FRUIT WITHOUT CANS.—A simple process of preserving fruit without the use of cans is now discussed by the farmers at the agricultural fairs and quietly considered by the canners in the intervals between the receipt of successive orders for eastern shipments. The whole process of keeping fruit in bowls and other open-top vessels is comprised in the simple covering of the vessel with unglazed cotton, such as is purchased in the stores rolled in blue paper. The following are the directions: Use crocks, stone butter jars, or any other convenient dishes. Prepare and cook the fruit precisely as for canning in glass jars, fill your dishes with the fruit while it is yet hot, and immediately cover with cotton batting securely tied on. Remember that all putrefaction is caused by the invisible creatures in the air. Cooking the fruit expels all these, and as they cannot pass through cotton batting the fruit thus protected will keep for an indefinite period. It is said that berries, cherries, plums, and many other kinds of fruit have been kept in this way for several years.

ACCIDENT AT WATERDOWN.—A disastrous runaway accident occurred on Sunday at Waterdown. Seven persons were driving home from the Roman Catholic church in a democrat. They were: Willie Organ, a small boy, who was driving the team; the two Misses Organ, Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Bauer, and the two Misses Doyle. One of the horses, a frisky colt, got frightened near the church, and ran away. The boy jumped out and escaped uninjured. Left without control, the horses then dashed along the road for nearly half a mile, and only stopped when they ran into a fence. The wagon was upset and the whole party was thrown out, some of them being thrown violently against the fence. Miss Annie Organ was seriously injured. When taken home she was unconscious and remained so up to this afternoon. There is, however, some hope that she will recover. Mrs. McCormick was badly hurt internally—just how much cannot as yet be ascertained. Mrs. Bauer received some painful bruises, and both the Misses Doyle were injured—Miss Esther especially, who is badly cut and bruised in the face and about the head.—Spectator.

A LAWN SOCIAL.—A lawn social will be given at the residence of Mr. Lawrence Hager, near Palermo, on Tuesday evening, July 5th. The Milton brass band and orchestra will be in attendance. An excellent programme will be provided. Refreshments served during the evening. Admission 25 cts. Proceeds in aid of parsonage fund. All are cordially invited.

THE Olympic lacrosse club play the following team on Dominion Day in their match against the Ruddygores, of Parkdale:—Goal, S. A. Cox; point, Robt. Brush; c. point, J. Bradley; defence field, M. E. Mitchell, H. H. Watson, and J. Ford; centre, J. Hannant; home field, Geo. Little, J. Little, and C. Burrows; outside home, Rol'd Brush; inside home, W. May; field captain, J. M. Bastedo.

Agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., or J. E. Macdougall, Gen. Agent, 154 St. James Street, Montreal, Que.

THE NIAGARA CAMP.—The 20th Batt. Lorne Rifles returned home from camp on Saturday last, No. 7 Co. reaching Milton about noon. The camp, which was under the command of Lieut.-Col. Otter, D. A. G., was in the opinion of the Halton boys better managed than those which preceded it. The commandant, though a strict disciplinarian, insisting that every order issued by him should be carried out to the letter and prompt to detect and reprove shortcomings, was indefatigable in looking after the comfort of the men. It is doubtful whether there is a more efficient or popular officer in the Canadian forces than the gallant colonel. The Lornes, at any rate, don't believe that the Dominion contains his equal. The weather during the camp was on the whole pleasant, though the boys got two tremendous duckings, one when at church parade on Sunday morning and the other on the 21st, when a heavy storm broke over them as they were being reviewed, in honor of the Queen's Jubilee, in front of Fort George. On the latter occasion excursionists were nearly as numerous as volunteers, but a large proportion of the former, including many ladies, had come provided with umbrellas and water-proofs, with which they protected themselves, and remained on the review ground until the men were marched back to their tents. The Lornes were considerably under full strength, but were particularly well up in drill; the were specially complimented by the commandant, and an officer of the brigade staff expressed the opinion that they were superior in physique to any other regiment in the camp. In their target practice returns they stood at the top, and last, though not least, their behavior was excellent, only one of them, a Georgetown tough, who prodded a comrade with a bayonet, getting into anything like serious trouble. They had with them one of the best bands on the field, and a couple of pipers, the latter discoursing music which was highly appreciated by at least one nationality, and which, when accompanied by drums, was excellent for marching purposes. The dilapidated and faded state of their tartans detracted considerably from the appearance of the boys, and owing to their having no better protection from the rays of the sun than their Glengarries they suffered considerably, and skinned foreheads and peeled noses were the rule among them. It is to be hoped that before they are again called on to go to camp, the above defects in their outfits may have been remedied. No. 7 Co. lacked only one man of the limit, 42, and was the strongest in the regiment, leaving bandsmen out of count, while in average size and physique the Miltonians were equalled by few companies in the camp. The boys were met at the N. & N. W. station on their return by a large number of friends, and the excellent band of the town, the members of which kindly volunteered to turn out to welcome them and supply the music for their march to the armoury. Before dismissing his company Capt. Panton in a short speech expressed his satisfaction and pride in their uniform good conduct and sobriety while in camp, going to it and returning from it. Not a single man among them had been under arrest, nor had one of them been guilty of misconduct necessitating punishment. He acknowledged the valuable assistance given him by Lieut. Johnson, and his non-commissioned officers, especially Pay Sergeant Sloan. He only hoped that if ever again called upon to go to camp, he would have the honor to command a company as efficient and well behaved. Three cheers were given by the men for their captain, Lieut. Johnson and Sergeant Sloan, and the men were dismissed, returning to the armoury in the afternoon to hand in their arms, accoutrements and clothing and to receive their pay.
