the community at large.

"We are hoping that there will be a wide variety of talents performing that night," said Grade 6 student Markus Venne.

The benefit concert, which is set to take place at the Georgetown Christian Reformed Church on March 7 starting at 7 p.m., will operate on a "donate what you can" basis.

Community members interested in auditioning for the show are encouraged to contact the class at beyondourselves@hhcs.org by no later than Feb. 15.

"I think this family is really in a lot of need right now," said Grade 5 student Ethan Visser. "Not only do we want to get Aaron and his brother here, but they have a family back there as well and eventually we want to get them to Canada too so they can stay safe."
