

Logo winner

The winner of the logo contest held by the North Halton Cultural Awareness Council, Ingrid Binder, received her prize, a cheque for $100, from Tom Ramautarsingh. Binder, a Milton resident, said she came up with her logo to symbolize that people should open their hearts and reach out to one another. There were 12 entries to the contest, which was launched in November.

Celebrating a tradition

As part of the ancient traditions surrounding St. George's Day celebrations, a feast of wild boar was often held. In keeping with this tradition, St. George's Anglican Church in Georgetown will host a wild boar dinner on St. George's Eve, April 22, in the Parish Hall.

The menu will include roast European wild boar, Spatzle (tiny dumplings), Rotkohl (red cabbage and apples), parsley potatoes, water rye bread, salads and Kirsch Torte (Black Forest cake).

The wild boar served at dinner will come from a farm in Sebringville, near Stratford, where a herd of purebred boar are raised from genuine Black Forest breeding stock. The boar are grown in a forest area under natural conditions.

Dinner will be served from 6 to 8:30 p.m. in the parish hall. A complimentary glass of wine or beer will be offered. Tickets are available in advance at $35 per person. To order tickets call 877-8044 or 873-
