I SAY FARMER! HOW ARE Ye OFF FOR BREECHES?

Don't you and the boys want 10 or a dozen yards of good substantial Cloth to get made up for yourselves at home? There's a great sight o' shoddy and trashy stuff sold now a days that looks well, but can't wear at all, at all; some say it's made o' pigs' wool and weeds, others say of cats' feathers and sweepin's o' the factory. Anyhow Lindsay has sold too many cloths to be fool'd with them sorts. What Lindsay offers you now is the same ould-fashion'd goods you could buy 15 or 20 years ago, that you can hardly tear; nary a thread in't but twisted Woolen Yarn, an' every yard of it a pound weight. Come anyhow an' look at several cases of Full Cloths, Moleskins, Corduroys and Heavy Tweeds just received. FOR SALE CHEAP! Honest Goods for honest money AT LINDSAY'S.

NOTWITHSTANDING the Scott Act, and though the Advocate says that the Erin hotel keepers sold no liquor on the fair days in that village, whiskey flowed freely and there was a great deal of drunkenness. The Advocate says that "the famous Gallagher did quite a business in swamp whiskey."

THE RIFLE.—The members of the Milton Rifle Club will have a match for an oyster supper on Thanksgiving Day, 17th inst. Sides will be chosen at a meeting, to be held at the Wallace House on Saturday evening, 12th inst., at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to attend the meeting.

THE JAIL.—There are five prisoners in Halton's jail at present, all sentenced to hard labor, but as two of them are decrepit old men, one has lost both his legs, one is minus a hand and the fifth has to do the cooking. Jailer Vanallen and Turnkey Cummer have their hands full keeping on fires and doing the chores generally.

A CLUB OF FIVE.—Any person who will send us the names of five new subscribers to the CHAMPION for next year and five dollars will receive the paper to the end of 1888 free, and each of the new subscribers will also receive it free for the remainder of this year. This offer applies to clubs of five only, not to single subscribers.

A constable from Wellington county was here on Monday with a warrant for the arrest of a Scott Act violator, said to be the notorious "Gallagher." He went in company with our didn't-know-it-was-loaded license inspector to Mayor Hannant, whom he got to back his warrant, but so far the arrest of "Gallagher" has not been reported.

WHISKEY AT POSTVILLE.—One night last week 7 or 8 young men drove into Postville bringing with them a large jug and two or three bottles of whiskey. They were all very hilarous, made a great racket on the streets, and when they went away left behind them the jug of the Frogmore postoffice, carried by them from the former village, which they had visited first.

POSTMASTER LYON, whose leg was broken some time ago, has nearly recovered from his injuries and walked down to the post-office on Tuesday.

TELEPHONIC.—Mr. Lady Lyon, postmaster, has expressed his willingness to take charge of the central office if Milton gets telephone communication, and has been informed by the company that on fifteen Miltonians subscribing $25 each for instruments they will extend their lines to the town. A canvass for subscribers is now being made and it is to be hoped that it will be successful.

MISS WETHERALD.—This is what the Toronto Globe says of Miss Jane H. Wetherald, graduate of the National School of Oratory, Philadelphia, who will take part in the entertainment in connection with Grace Church on the 10th inst.: "Miss J. H. Wetherald, graduate National School of Oratory, gave four selections with a naturalness so perfect and a grace so winsome as to charm all present."

OUR LADY FRIENDS will be interested in knowing that by sending 20c. to pay postage, and 15 top covers of Warner's Safe Yeast (showing that they have used at least 15 packages) to H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y., they can get a 500 page, finely illustrated COOK BOOK free. Such a book, bound in cloth, could not be bought for less than a dollar. It is a wonderfully good chance to get a fine book for the mere postage and the ladies should act promptly.

SCOTT ACT RESULTS.—A Burlington man informs us that one day last week a couple of travellers got off the train at his village, spent some time there transacting business, went to Hamilton when noon approached, dined in the city, and immediately returned and finished what they had to do. The reason they gave for not putting up at any of the Burlington hotels was that they did not wish to be paraded at the "court of truth and righteousness" as witnesses in Scott Act cases.

CONCERT.—The ladies of Grace Church have secured the following talent for their concert, which will come off at the town hall on the evening of the 10th inst.:—Mr. Chas. Kelly, of Toronto, basso; Miss Laidlaw, of Oakville, soprano; and Miss Wetherald, of Toronto, elocutionist; who will be assisted by Mr. V. Chisholm, of Milton, tenor, and the Milton Orchestra. The programme will be a most attractive one, and the entertainment should draw a large house. Proceeds will be applied towards building a new vestry for the church. Tickets 25c.; reserved seats, 35c.

ALLEGED LARCENY.—William Walker, a young man who has been living in this neighborhood for some time, was out duck shooting at Burlington Beach on Saturday with another young man named Jacob Johnson. Walker disappeared and shortly afterwards Johnson found that his gun was missing. Constable Dent, of Milton, went down to Burlington on Saturday evening, arrested Walker, brought him here and left him in jail. On Monday morning he was brought before Mayor Hannant, pleaded not guilty, and was remanded for a week, on account of the absence of the prosecutor. Constable Dent says that Walker acknowledged to him that he sold the gun in a second-hand store.

THE NASSAGAWEYA RUCTION.—The participants in the Robertson-Davenport row kept Messrs. Lister, Menzies and McLaren, J. P.'s, busy at Campbellville all last Friday. Davenport charged Archie Robertson, jr., with having cut his head open with a club. Robertson made a similar charge against Davenport, David and George Currie, and Archie Robertson, sr., had to defend himself from a charge of having broken the stock off Davenport's gun. Judgment was reserved and was to have been delivered yesterday evening. The cause of the trouble was a trade in which Robertson, jr., exchanged a horse with Davenport for a mare and a heifer. Davenport, on trying the horse, was dissatisfied and went to Robertson to trade back. He left the horse and got back his mare, but did not get the heifer, which he afterwards took from Robertson's field and brought home. Robertson did not want to give up the heifer, so he and his father went, armed with clubs, to take it from Davenport's field, and Davenport, armed with a gun, ordered them off. The elder Robertson took the gun from Davenport and broke it and his son knocked its owner down with a club. Davenport, on recovering somewhat from the "knock-out," retaliated by smashing the head of young Robertson with a big stick, and Robertson, sr., on rushing to the rescue had his head cut by a blow from a whipstock in the hands of David Currie. The affair has caused considerable excitement, which was increased yesterday morning when it was learned that Davenport had been arrested and taken to Hamilton on the information of young Robertson, who charges him with having stolen the heifer.

NEVER TRIED IT."

What! Never tried Johnson's Tonic Bitters! Then do so at once, it's positively the best general tonic on the market. I've often heard of it but thought that it was to be placed on the list of the many trashy preparations that flood our market, but since you recommend it so highly I'll give it a trial. Do so, it's good for any complaint in which a tonic is benefit, and can be taken by man, woman, or child, 50c. and $1 per bottle at H. Watson's drug store, Milton.

It seems that all the Canadian railway companies have agreed to make return tickets good for thirty days, instead of six as heretofore. The privilege will be appreciated.

In the County of Hochelaga Agricultural Society's annual ploughing match the Ontario men carried everything before them, securing the first three prizes in the senior class for the best 600 ploughed ridges on the field. Mr. Andrew Hood, of Scarboro', Ont., won the gold medal, presented by Mr. Hugh Paton, Master of the Montreal Hunt, and $75; the second prize was won by Mr. Wm. Milliken, of the Township of Markham, Ont., and the third prize by Mr. Thomas McLean, of the Township of Vaughan, Ont. Mr. Benjamin Tolton, of the Township of Eramosa, Wellington County, took fifth prize.

The Scott Act and Its Advocates.

To the Editor of the Champion:

SIR,—The time will soon arrive when the electors of Halton will be called on to decide for or against the Scott Act, and I am convinced that a majority of the Christian portion of the community will only be too glad to get rid of a law that has done more towards demoralizing the county than any other thing ever introduced here. It has caused more perjury, more ill-feeling, more strife and contention than have ever been in this county before, and without giving any benefits in return. "But," say prohibitionists, "we are not liable nor responsible for the demoralizing effects of the law. If the hotel-keepers and shebeen men would come forward (when summoned) and acknowledge that they sold intoxicants, and the witnesses would tell the truth there would be none of this perjury or demoralization that the Antis complain of." Now let us turn to the acts of those great moral reformers and see if their course and conduct have been such as that we, as a Christian community, would or could advise the rising generation to follow their example.

I knew of a Methodist minister that was in the habit of, instead of teaching God's gospel, occupying the pulpit in slandering and abusing the Rev. Canon Mackenzie, of Milton, because he, as I have not the least doubt, honestly opposes prohibition and believes that moral suasion is the proper method to redeem man from the abomination of drunkenness. When this minister was attacked through the public press for his conduct he sought by an evasion of the truth, which I contend is the meanest kind of lying, to screen his dastardly conduct. I suppose that he thought his congregation would uphold him for the sake of the good cause he was trying to advance. But, no sir, to the credit of the congregation they valued such men and their acts at their real worth. The minister very soon saw it would be to the advantage of the church for him to leave. I think the feeling was mutual between him and his congregation, and he left

I knew of another minister, the Rev. D V. Lucas by name, who the night before the last Scott Act election (and I believe this night was selected so that no contradiction could be made before the vote was taken), in addressing a meeting of some two or three hundred people in Palermo, said that that morning the detectives informed Mr. Frazer, the then inspector for the county, that a barrel of whiskey was concealed under John Wallace's back door-sill. Frazer hooted at the idea (and the impression was thrown out by the minister that the inspector wanted not to make a seacch but wished to screen Wallace), but the detectives insisted, and the door-sill was torn up, but nothing found. The inspector, still wanting to screen Wallace, wished to go no further, but the detectives insisted on further search and on removing more boards, behold, a full barrel of whiskey was brought to light. Mr. Lucas's audience, on hearing this story, gave a cheer and a clap for the detectives that so artfully discovered Wallace's hiding hole. Now, sir, Mr. Frazer is still in Milton, and he told me that he never found a glass, a gill, or a barrel of whiskey about John Wallace's house since the Scott Act came in force in Halton, and that the whole story was a base fabrication from beginning to end, of which he was willing to make oath.

Then we have the performance of the Burlington preacher. Now, sir, I would ask any Christian lady or gentleman, has the course pursued by those clergymen been such that we would wish our sons or daughters to follow their example? If their course is not justifiable, what can you expect from the laity? "But," say they, "our cause is a good cause and the means are justifiable under the circumstances." I heard a prohibitionist lady tell the Rev. Mr. Fletcher that they considered it their duty to act even deceitfully to carry out prohibition. Away with such stuff—the people of this county know better than to expect good to come from evil.

Yours, &c..

UNCLE JOHN.

The Provincial Government was unable or unwilling to satisfy the Winnipeg delegates that the road when constructed would remain independent. The delegates then refused, on behalf of the city, to take up the Provincial bonds, and thus the Government becomes unable, for want of funds, to carry out its part of the contract with Holt, who has left for New York.

A decision of importance to hotel keepers and the travelling public has been given by Judge Senkler, of Lincoln County. A guest at Gates' Hotel, St. Catharine's, had money stolen from his room, and he sued the owner to make the loss good. The judge decided that an inn-keeper is bound to provide a lock and key for the rooms hired by his guests, and, not having done so in this case, he is made liable for the money purloined.
