SANTA CLAUS IN MILTON!

Last week SantaClaus paid a rather hurried and unexpected visit to the town of Milton. Santa has just been over to Germany, France and England making awfully big purchases of Christmas and New-Year's Gifts for the young and rising as well as the older generations of this Western Hemisphere; and on his way up to Kamptschatka or some other equally unknown region, he dropp'd off to see his friend LINDSAY and left with him some large new packages he pick'd up in Europe, splendidly packed, full of Lovely China Cups and Saucers, China Plates, China Vases, China Mugs, Plush Albums, Emboss'd Albums, Parlor Targets, Red-Riding-Hood Targets, Japanese Ten-Pins, Magic Money Banks, Iron Banks, Wax Dolls, Nankeen Dolls that don't break, Fancy Hair Pins, Toilet Plush Sets, Hand Mirrors, Magic Lanterns, A 15 Dollar Sheltie Pony that won't touch hay or oats, Wool Beads, Wool Shawls, Tamo' Shanter Caps, and about 101 articles there's no room to tell about, making altogether a very grand and pretty display. Now Lindsay wants everybody in and outside of Milton to come see what Santa Claus has left, and buy a Cup and Saucer and 1lb Tea for 45c.

The distressing paleness so often observed in young girls and women, is due in great measure to a lack of the red corpuscles in the blood. To remedy this requires a medicine which produces these necessary little blood constituents, and the best yet discovered is Johnson's Tonic Bitters.
