A reorganization of the Manitoba Government before the Legislature meets is now considered certain.

On Saturday last a train on the Caraquet Railway fell over a bridge three miles west of Caraquet. Eight of the train men were killed.

It is reported that a Ministry of Agriculture is to be established by the British Government, with the Rt. Hon. Henry Chaplin in charge.

Montrealers have tired of their carnivals, the hotel-keepers having refused to become responsible for the expense. There will be no ice palace there this year.

Sir Charles Tupper believes that Parliament will not meet until after the Fisheries Commission is through, which will postpone the meeting till the middle of February.

The men who are supposed to have been the companions of George Brown, the victim of the Myrtle shooting affray, were arrested at Port Perry early on Sunday morning.

Mr. Lingham, of Belleville, Ont., has been appointed manager of the cattle interests of the Nizani of Hyderabad at the instance of Lord Dufferin. The salary attached to the position is $2,000 a year.

License Inspector McIntyre, of East Elgin, who was requested by the Government to resign in consequence of the report of a commission to investigate charges made against him by the Scott Act party, has appealed against the commissioner's decision.

Such is the case in Lennox and Addington among supporters of the Scott Act that Constables have been sworn in for special duty. The shooting of Brown at Myrtle has intensified the panic. A woman in the custom house at Napanee was smashed by a shot, supposed by the prohibitionists to have been aimed at Scott Act Magistrate Daly.

The convictions to the county gaol for drunkenness during the past twelve months have been three times as many as in any former year. This is a startling contradiction to the statement of those people who say legislative enactments will cure the drinking habits. The Scott Act has been in operation here nearly three years, and yet drunkenness is on the increase. The Toronto Globe, Montreal Witness, and other papers which recently stated there were no drunks sent to gaol in this county in the last twelve months, will please make a note of this.—Woodstock Times.
