Burlington.

At the municipal election here yesterday the following is the result.

REEVE.

Dr. Richardson	190
C. W. Torrance	45

COUNCILLORS.

J. Mortimer	150
J. Colling	127
T. Atkinson	118
L. Lowe	113
S. Cline	1[illegible]
Ed. Williamson	90
J. Wilson	84
Capt. Campbell	53
Miles McCay	52
Wesley Freeman	46

You are to observe that Williamson, Wilson, McCay and Freeman, were the candidates brought out by the Scott Act faction. You will thus see that the wave of moral reform has not struck us very hard here. The people of the village have thus emphatically condemned the effort of the ecclesiastical faction to dominate in municipal affairs.

LAKE SIDER.

They Nauseated the People.

Toronto World.

Mr. W. H. Howland, Mrs. Youmans, Mr. F. S. Spence, Ald. Fleming and Henry O'Brien are good enough citizens in their way. But when they claimed, as they did in effect claim, that all honesty in civic affairs pertained to them and their friends, and that those who do not accept their views on moral reform, must be unfit to govern the city, they over-stepped the mark and were wiped out by an over-nauseated people.

A farmer named Wilkinson, living between Allanpark and Hanover, had a sharp trick played upon him some days ago. He has had his farm advertised for sale for some time in Daley's, of Guelph, Real Estate Directory, and a few days ago two men came to his place and offered to buy the farm. One represented himself as a cut of Daley's and the other said that he had just disposed of his farm in Simcoe and wanted to buy another. Mr. Wilkinson was not home at the time, but his son, Little—who has spent some terms at Ann Arbor University, studying law—was, and a bargain was made and the papers drawn up and signed. When this was done the man said that he would not be able to make a payment just then, as he had not received the money for the place which he had sold, but that in ten days the money would be forthcoming, and offered his note at ten days for the amount. This was demurred at last, but the note was accepted. The man who represented himself as Daley's agent then demanded the 4 per cent commission which is due the firm when a sale is effected. Mr. Wilkinson gathered all the money he had in the house, but that not being sufficient he gave his note for the balance. The men then left, and Mr. Wilkinson has not seen them since, although he is looking for an interview and has sewailing the loss not only of a good sale, but of the shekels which he parted with, and says that the wicked world never lived in. It would be well if farmers, when dealing with strangers, and in favor of whom they give notes in payment, were a little more guarded in their dealings with them.—Durham Chronicle.

LOCKVILLE.

I wish the CHAMPION a happy and prosperous New Year, and many of them.

Don't forget the concert and Christmas tree in connection with St. George's Church, Sunday School, on Tuesday evening next, in the Temperance Hall.

Mr. Geo. Robinson is home from Nassagaweya, where he has been for the past couple of weeks spending his vacation.

Mr. Geo. Agnew, sr., who has been very ill for the past two weeks, is, we are glad to learn, recovering.

There was no election for township councillors here this year. The council for this year will be: Reeve—F. D. Scott; Deputy-reeve—William Pettit; Councillors—J. Harris, D. Hartley and — Davis.

There was a very good attendance at the meeting of the Literary Society on Friday. There was considerable instrumental music during the evening by good local talent. A reading in German was given by Mr. J. F. Richardson. The debate was: "Resolved, that the country boy is greener in the city than the city boy is in the country. The affirmative, was ably championed by Messrs. Wm. Richardson, A. Foster, and J. F. Richardson; and the negative by Messrs. A. Turnbull, J. Nicholson and E. Cleaver, and was won by the negative. A speech was given by Mr. Watson, of Palermo; reading by Miss Annie Howie; recitation by Miss Libbie Mitchell, and song by Miss Bella Richardson and Miss Readhead. H. Naisbitt acted as critic. The debate for next meeting will be, "Resolved, that more knowledge is to be gained by reading than by travel."

—MARCUS.

Francis Murphy vs. Ex Gov. St. John.

From The Philadelphia Record.

The churches of Pittsburg have closed their doors against Francis Murphy, the temperance worker. Mr. Murphy, who has followed in the footsteps of Father Mathew, attempts to reclaim the individual by reason and persuasion—not by the advocacy of sumptuary laws to coerce him in his conduct, thus leaving no room for the exercise of reason and conscience. If he had taken the latter course he might by this time have had the barren honor of a nomination by the Prohibition party for the President of the United States.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
