LOCAL NEWS.

MR. J. HARVEY MILLER has removed from Norval to Streetsville and has taken out an auctioneer's license.

JOHN SHILTON, of the village of Georgetown, in the county of Halton, barrister-at-law, to be a notary public for the Province of Ontario.—Ontario Gazette.

FOR SALE.—Two young cows, 4 and 5 years old, one due to calve in a few days. Apply to Wm. Clements, Milton. 80-tf.

ED. CORE, of Forest, left on Wednesday for Milton, county of Halton, where he has contracted to bore a large number of wells. There is a great demand for water in Halton since the enforcement of the Scott Act.—Sarnia Observer.

SHIRTS! SHIRTS!—White, colored, plain and fancy Flannel Shirts, cheap. Cheaper than ever at Treble's, corner of King & James Sts., Hamilton.

THE COLONEL RETIRED.—The following appeared in last Saturday's Gazette: 20th, "Halton" Battalion.—To be lieutenant-colonel, Major William Kerns, vice William Allan, permitted to retire retaining rank.

IF you want good all-wool Underwear cheap, Treble's is the place. Largest stock of Underwear in the city. Corner of King & James Sts., Hamilton.

FAST SAWING.—Mr. George Burton, aged 63 years, and his son Samuel, after a hard day's work in the woods cutting cordwood, sawed out a wager of $25, by lamplight at Mr. Johnson's Eden Mills, a cord of hard wood in 30 minutes. This was witnessed by quite a number of people.

IF you want Underwear, you can get any size and quality you desire at Treble's, corner of King & James Sts. Largest and cheapest stock of Underwear in Hamilton.

THE Queen's Hotel has changed ownership again. Messrs. Cook & Englehart have sold their lease and right in the hotel to Mr. Kidney, of Paisley, and experienced hotel-man, and who has recently been in the business there.—Brampton Banner.

TREBLE has a large stock of Gloves and Mitts, which he is selling very cheap. Remember the address: Treble's, corner of King & James Sts., Hamilton.

ESQUESING AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of the Esquesing Agricultural Society was held at Georgetown on the 12th inst., when the following officers were elected for the current year: President, J. F. Taylor; Vice-President, John Stewart; Sec.-Treas., L. Grant; Directors, D R. Laidlaw, David Little, T. Lyon, Theo. Cook, J. Campbell, John T. Elliott, Nell Gillies, James Leslie and G. Cook.

IF you want to buy a new fall Hat, you will save more than your railway fare by going to Treble's, corner of King & James Sts., Hamilton. He has the largest stock and cheapest hats in the city.

JAMES MCKAY, a West Flamboro' widower, about 75 years of age, who resided about a mile and a half from Dundas, committed suicide on Friday by jumping over Borers' falls, 75 feet high. The old man was wealthy, but was crazed by the refusal of a former housekeeper of his to marry him, and imagined he would die in a poorhouse. He had made two former attempts at suicide, one by shooting and the other by cutting his throat.

ON Saturday night as John Evans, a farmer residing near Waterdown, was driving home from the city his horse took fright and ran away. Evans was thrown out on his head on the road, but luckily the snow prevented him from sustaining any serious injuries. He was severely bruised and cut about the head and face, but, after having his injuries attended to at Doyle's hotel in Waterdown, he drove home.—Spectator.

MR. W. R. PHILLIPS, the dry-goods man, was out driving on Sunday, and when about the Revere House his spirited pony became frightened at the flag of the Salvation Army then passing. The result was a runaway in which the occupants of the cutter were pitched out, and the cutter coming in contact with a cutter was totally wrecked. There is a by-law against tie-posts, but none against the Army's flag.—Brampton Banner.

SHE JUMPED OFF A TRAIN.—Mrs. J. B Hay escaped a horrible death yesterday. She lives near the Queen's wharf, and used to come home on the train from town. Yesterday, however, she got on a train that did not stop at the wharf. When she found that she was going past her house, apparently without thinking, she ran out on the platform and jumped off. She was considerably shaken up, and the narrowness of her escape is shown by the fact that the train ran over her dress. Her husband is the foreman of the Grand Trunk freight sheds.—Globe Jan. 12.

A QUIET SUNDAY.—Neil McDougall, lessee of the Thompson House, has, it is said, been doing a whiskey business of about $60 a day ever since he took possession in October last, and the establishment has been the most disorderly in the city, but the Scott Act officials failed to evict him and last week he sold out and went away. Mrs. Watts, who kept the "Speed the Plow," also did quite a trade, though a quiet one, and skipped out last week to avoid a possible conviction on a charge of illicit liquor selling laid against her by whiskey detective Brothers. Last Saturday evening the sudden shutting down of the two leading Main street liquor establishments leaving driven customers of both to the back-street dives in town appeared more orderly than usual, and short work was made of one and two windows smashed between then and Sunday night. No arrests were made, but it is said that several charges of disorderly conduct will come before Mayor Robertson. Mr. A. McArthur has leased the Thompson House, which he says he will run on a very different plan from that of his predecessor, and it is hoped that the new proprietor of "Speed the Plow" will adopt the new plan also.

IF you want the latest American Hat, go to Treble's, corner of King & James Sts., Hamilton.

The Hamilton Spectator gravely observes:—"The Milton Sun, which excellent paper was revived a couple of weeks ago, made its reappearance just in time to be exceedingly useful in the election contest." It looks almost like a case of cause and effect. As likely as not the name of The Reviver would be a valuable pointer for the Tory convention which meets to-morrow at Milton.—Globe, Jan. 16.

Quebec, that foreign city in the New World, is described with pen and pencil in HARPER'S February MAGAZINE. It is a prolific subject from many points of view—historical, social, and artistic—and full justice has been done to it in the letter-press by C. H. Farnham, that veteran observer of men and towns. A profusion of illustrations emphasizes Mr. Farnham's descriptions. Lovers of winter sports will find the article especially enjoyable at this time of the year.

REPRESENTATIONS from all parts of the county and from many distant places came to Milton on Friday to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of the late John Dewar, Esq., Clerk of the Peace and County Crown Attorney for Halton, and followed his remains to their place of interment in the New Cemetery. The turnout of the people of the town was very large, including the pupils of the public school, who marched in the procession in a body, marshalled by Head Master Gray. The pallbearers were Judge Miller, Hon. G. C. McKindsey, Sheriff Clements, Messrs. D. McGibbon and J. W. Elliott, barristers, and Mr. Henry Watson. All business establishments along the route of the possession were closed and the town bell was tolled.

Lt.-Col. Allan's Farewell.

A copy of the following letter was sent last week by Lt.-Col. Allan, the veteran commanding officer of the 20th Lorne Rifles, on the eve of his retirement, to each of the officers under him:

ACTON, Jan. 7th, 1888.

Before taking leave of the regiment, I wish to return my best thanks to the officers, non-commissioned officers and men for their willing and often needed help in keeping up the good name of the regiment, in their general good conduct and discipline during the many years I have been connected with them, and I look forward to a continuance of the same spirit of comradeship under your new commanding officer, Lt.-Col. Kerns, as has been so generously given to myself.

I shall always look back with the greatest pleasure to the years we have been together, and trust I may see that good fellowship exist in the future.

I will always have a keen and warm eye to your prosperity, and pray for your hearty co-operation with the worthy officer who has now assumed command of the regiment.

Wishing you all the compliments of the season,

Believe me,
Your old Com'g Officer,
W. ALLAN.

SCOTT ACT TRIALS.

The court of adjournment met on Thursday last at 10 a. m. and adjourned till 10.30 for the hearing of a charge supposed to be against Mrs. Rebecca Wattie. Mr. McGibbon asked who was charged, as the summons served did not state that any person was charged with the offence. This was then allowed to stand.

The next charge was also against Mrs. Wattie for keeping intoxicating liquor for sale on 4th January.

W. D. BROTHERS.—Searched Mrs. Wattie's premises on the 4th January and found about 2 half-cases of bottled liquor; I saw some pop, a cork screw and a cork in the house.

JAMES MILLER.—Live in Streetsville; am a licensed liquor dealer and storekeeper; never saw Mrs. Wattie that I know of; have seen her son and sold him liquor in May and June last; cannot say whether any liquor was sold by us directly or indirectly to Mr. Wattie; have shipped liquor to Milton; it would be no use living in Streetsville if we did not have Halton customers to ship to; we shipped liquor to Milton last night, and do it nearly every day; I decline to give the names of persons to whom we ship liquor.

Court adjourned until 2 p. m.

The court again resumed at 2 p. m. Mrs. Wattie's case was adjourned until Tuesday last, and the Little charge to Friday last, at Oakville.

What a Wicked World!

Toronto World.

The Acton Free Press assures The World that Mr. John Turner will not be nominated in Halton because he avows a lack of faith in the Scott Act. Well, if The Free Press prefers a man who laughs at the Scott Act in private and takes his grog on the sly, while publicly playing an opposite role, it is none of our funeral. The country is full of just such Scott Act supporters.

Thieves as "Temperance" Workers.

Toronto Empire.

Two informers have been plying their trade under the Scott Act in Guelph and the adjoining country. One of them, Jacob Rody, was procured by Inspector Cowan at the jail, where he was found serving a term for larceny. The other, Robert James Brown, is a boy of about 18, who was a companion of Rody's and worked on the Guelph Junction railway. They are paid $2 a day each and expenses.

NASAL BALM

Tottenham, Ont., May 3rd, 1887.

I have been troubled with Nasal catarrh for the last five years. Seeing Nasal Balm advertised I procured a bottle, and although I have only used part of it, I do not hesitate to pronounce it the best remedy in the world for that loathsome disease, catarrh. It is easy and pleasant to use, soothing and healing in its action, instant in giving relief, removes and changes the poisonous secretions to a healthy state, stops the droppings from the head into the throat, and removes all the symptoms of catarrh and cold in the head. In fact, if the directions are faithfully followed, nothing but a sure and permanent cure can be the result. Yours truly,

JNO. S. GEORGE,
Baker and Confectioner.

Up in Sarnia only one candidate for entrance to the high school was successful. Mr. Ross's examination papers came near being prohibitory there.
