LOCAL NEWS.

There will be a meeting of the County Council on Tuesday next.

Mr. Victor Chisholm, barrister, of Milton, has been gazetted as a notary public.

Farm Sold.—Mr. Wm. Fisher has purchased from Mr. Henry P. Lawson, the E ½ of lot 8, in the 6th Concession of Esquesing for $5,00.

Pocket Picked.—Mr. John Kelly had $55 stolen out of his pocket last Friday night in a Milton hotel. No clue has been found to the thief.

Farm Sold.—Mr. John Winlaw has sold his farm, the E ½ of lot 7, in the 6th Concession of Esquesing, to Mr. Dick of Ashgrove for $6000.

The Independent Order of Foresters' Court, Town Hall, Monday night, March 5th, will be the treat of the season and the best Scotch concert ever given in Milton.

Gazetted.—The last issue of the Ontario Gazette announced the appointment of Thomas Grey Matheson, of the town of Simcoe, as Clerk of the Peace and County Crown Attorney for Halton.

A. Williams, eldest son of J. A. Williams, of this town, has passed his examinations in the junior year in the Philadelphia Dental College, and is eligible for entrance into the senior class.—Oakville Star.

Mr. Gavin Spence, of Edinburgh, Miss M. Crowthers, J. Hamilton, and Miss M. Taylor, of London, will sing at the Independent Order of Foresters' concert, Town Hall, Monday, March 5th.

Hebb. Chisholm, who before interested himself in a meeting of Halton Farmers' Institute at Oakville, is again arranging another such an assemblage here for the month. The proceedings will end with a grand concert.—Star.

Mrs. F. W. Colclough died last week at Selkirk after a long and severe illness. She was the daughter of Mr. James Nichol, of Selkirk, and was born in Cumminsville, Halton County. She was married to Mr. Colcleugh about twenty years ago.—Winnipeg Free Press.

Mr. Benjamin Hemstreet, a resident of Milton about ten years, and previously of Haldimand county, died on Tuesday morning. He was generally esteemed as an upright man and a good citizen, and much sympathy is felt for his widow. His remains will be buried to-morrow.

Misses Bella and Dora Taylor and master Johnnie Campbell, beautiful Highland dancers, at the Independent Order of Foresters' Concert, Town Hall, Monday night, March 5th.

The St. Paul, Minn., correspondent of the Chicago Canadian-American gives and ex-Miltonian the following notice: "Mr. A. D. Palmer is from Grimsby, Ont. He came to this city about three years ago, and is in possession of a first-class hardware store at 246 west 3rd St.

We are indebted to Mr. John Leslie, formerly of Milton, and junior partner in the firm of Scott & Leslie, furniture dealers, Winnipeg, Man., for the February number of the Winnipeg Commercial, a first-class commercial publication of 100 pages, news from all parts of the North-west, and descriptions of a number of north-western towns.

Carnival.—All who have allowed themselves to become heated over the Scott Act question, the campaign being over, should go to the skating rink tomorrow evening. It will be a fine place in which to cool off, and the biggest carnival of the season will be held there. The Milton band will be there and a number of prizes will be given for costumes and skating. See posters.

Prof. Beaton, Edinburgh's champion piper, with his wild notes of mountain music, has the faculty of carrying an audience into the most exalted and rapturous delight, at the Independent Order of Foresters' Concert on Monday night, March 5th.

Mr. Arthur H. Mackenzie, of the Journal Publishing Co., of Helena, Montana Territory, and eldest son of Rev. Rural Dean Mackenzie, of Milton, arrived here on Thursday evening and remained with his family until Monday morning, when he left for New York on a business mission. He has been a resident of Montana for about six years, and like Montanians generally, has abundant faith in a great future for the Territory.

A Difficult Operation.—Mr. E. McEntee had the tumors which have been growing on his back for the last fourteen years, successfully removed yesterday by Drs. Freeman and Sinclair, of Waltonion, and Dr. Freeman, of Milton. The operation was of an unusual nature, being very difficult to complete on account of the numerous muscles and growths, exposing the ribs and lung covering extensively.—Bruce Herald, Feb. 23rd.

K. Chisholm, M. P. P., of Brampton, has sold his dry goods and grocery business here to Mr. Anderson, of the firm of McLeod & Anderson, of Georgetown. Mr. Anderson takes possession in about ten days. Mr. Chisholm intends to continue in the grain buying business here, and look after his interests in the Caledon quarries. The old and familiar title, K. Chisholm & Co., may now be regarded as a thing of the past in regard to general mercantile business in Brampton in the store line. Many have been the changes of late in this town and county.—Conservator.

Defrauding His Creditors.—The case of James Stewart, of Waterdown, who was charged with disposing of his goods after an execution had been put against them, was argued on Monday before Judge Sinclair. The facts are:—Major Glasgow got judgment against Stewart for $290 and costs. The day previous to the execution being received by the sheriff Stewart sold a team of horses to Peter Zimmerman, of Burlington, worth $335, for $235. He further sold some cattle after the writ had been served upon him. After examining the defendant Judge Sinclair decided Stewart had employed fraud and committed him to prison for three months.

One of the prisoners now in jail here has written to the Champion to deny that Joseph Wool, who lost his legs about a year ago through having them frozen, and who died in jail last week, was drunk when he met with his misfortune, as was generally reported at the time and since. Possibly what our correspondent says may be true. He gives Woods himself as his authority, but as Woods was a common tramp, though a young man and able to work, and tramps are not generally noted for their sobriety, the statement that he was an abstainer seems rather improbable. On account of the length of the letter, its having arrived too late to find room for it.

Edinburgh Concert Co.—Lovers of good music, particularly Scotch music, should go to the town hall on Monday evening to the entertainment to be given there by the Edinburgh Concert Co. Besides the music, there will be Scotch and Spanish dancing. For particulars see posters and programmes. The following is a sample of the complimentary notices which the company has received from the press wherever it has appeared in Canada:

"The Edinburgh Concert Company gave one of their pleasing entertainments in Leitch's hall on Thursday evening last, the programme of which was enjoyed by a large audience. Playing the national songs and performing the national dances in national costumes brought vivid recollections to many present of the soul-stirring scenes of long ago "in my ain kintra" where the noble race could never be enslaved. Each member of the troupe performed his part exceedingly well, and the company is well worthy the patronage of all, especially the sons and daughters of Auld Scotland.—Dutton Enterprise."

Obituary.—Mr. J. E. Parsons, after an illness of four years, passed away on Friday last. The funeral took place on Sunday and was largely attended. The United Workmen, of which society he was a member, attended in a body. Mr. Parsons was an Englishman, and when he arrived here some few years ago with his family, was a strong, hearty man of a very jovial and lively disposition, and it was not long before he and his sons built up a fine business in butchering. About four years ago Mr. Parsons' mind became affected, and gradually grew worse until he finally succumbed. A year ago he was apparently greatly improved, and many of his friends were hopeful of seeing him a well man, but his improvement lasted for only a short time, and finally death brought relief. Mr. Parsons was a widower, and leaves a large family to mourn his demise. His sons who have been carrying on his business, are well known and highly respected citizens. Two of his daughters are married, the wives of Mr. W. B. Dickin, of Milton; and Mr. R. Hurry, of Woodstock.—Brampton Banner.

Georgetown.—A Scott Act meeting was held on Tuesday night in the town hall. The building was crowded to the doors and great interest was taken in the proceedings. The meeting was called by the Scott Act people, but two members of the Liberal Temperance Union were allowed to speak. These were Mr. J. G. Mowat and Dr. McMahon. The proceedings opened with prayer and a gospel hymn. Mr. Wm. McLeod, reeve of the village, was in the chair. Mr. Lark, of Oshawa, opened the fire in a 20 minutes speech against the petition for repeal. He was followed by Dr. McMahon, who supported the Liberal Temperance movement and claimed that alcohol, moderately used, was a food and tended to the wellbeing of the body. Mr. S. H. Blake, who had been announced as the speaker of the evening, was accorded an hour. Mr. J. G. Mowat was allowed forty minutes and Mr. Lark closed the debate. Both sides were well represented in the meeting. The speakers all received a good hearing. Last night the Antis held a meeting of their own at Georgetown. It is expected that Georgetown will give a majority of 50 in favor of the petition.

Obituary.—By the decease of Mrs. Racey, at the advanced age of 84 years, not only Milton but Canada has lost one of its most and most respected inhabitants. Mrs. Racey was born at Grimsby, being the third daughter of the Honorable Abraham Nelles. Her father and mother were of German extraction and belonged to that much to be respected class of our citizens known as United Empire Loyalists, who immigrated into Canada at the time of the American Revolutionary War, preferring British monarchy to republican government. Numerous descendants and other relatives, known by the name of Nelles and Ball (the latter being the maiden name of Mrs. Racey's mother), are now scattered far and near, not a few of whom have occupied and still occupy prominent and respectable positions in the community. The late Commodore Ball, of the British Navy, being one of Mrs. Racey's relatives. Her oldest sister, still surviving, is Mrs. Sampson, widow of the Rev. Mr. Sampson, the first rector of Grimsby. Mrs. Racey was married to the late Mr. Thomas Racey at Grimsby; and when he was appointed first Registrar of Halton, she came with him to Milton when Milton was a very primitive looking town compared with what it is to-day. Ever since she has here lived a quiet, peaceable Christian life, respected by all who have been privileged with her acquaintance. She proved herself to be a worthy descendant of U. E. Loyalists and a help meet for a husband who, in 1812, and subsequently, shouldered his musket in defence of the United Empire. Mrs. Racey was a devout and consistant member of the Anglican Church; a regular communicant whenever health and opportunity offered. Her piety was not so much in words as in deeds. She fell asleep in Jesus. Her end was peace.

Professor Goldwin Smith relies in the London Times on its recent article on commercial union. A despatch from Ottawa says: It is said to be the intention of the Canadian Pacific authorities to proceed this year with the construction of the South-Ontario Pacific Railway. The Shorthorn Breeders' Association of Canada met last week in St. Lawrence Hall Toronto with Mr. J. Dryden, M.P.P., in the chair. After routine business a motion was submitted asking the meeting to confirm the action of the Revision Committee in refusing to register the bull Roger, the property of W. G. Pettit, of Burlington, until satisfactory evidence of pedigree was adduced. The motion passed, and Mr. Pettit having announced that he would push the matter legally a resolution was adopted authorizing the committee to defend the suit.

It is understood in the lobbies at Ottawa that the charges in the system of Government in the North-west Territories will involve an elective assembly. As at present constituted, one-half of the number are appointed by the Federal Government and the other by the people. A number of settlers who are now practically disfranchised by the present electoral limits, are to be granted a voice in representation. The reorganization will increase the number of representatives by one, and will exclude from holding positions in the Assembly the present ex-officio members.

There is a chance that a bill will be introduced to extend the liquor license system to the Northwest Territories. Some of the towns of the Northwest are clamoring for licensed hotels and one or two of the Northwest members are understood to sympathise with their demand. It may be that the provisions of the Canada Temperance Act will be extended to the Territories, with license as the alternative to its adoption. Mr. Perley has arranged for an interview with the Premier at which the subject will come up. It is said there is a good deal of illicit liquor selling in the West, and that local regulation of the traffic would be an improvement of the permit system as administered by Mr. Dewdney.—Globe.
