LOCAL NEWS.

LAST week's carnival at the rink was well attended, well managed, and a success generally. Don't forget the coming skating race.

A ten-year-old daughter of Mr. J. Fothergill, of Burlington had her leg broken on Saturday last by being caught in a horsepower.

WE are compelled to hold over until next week an open letter from the writer of the "Occasional Papers" and several school reports.

THE Rossin House has again changed hands. Mr. Bennett has disposed of the business to Neil McDougall, of Milton.—Acton Free Press.

EVERY lady requiring a new dress should see Hollinrake & Sons' elegant assortment of new spring dress materials. Their new prints and satteens are lovely.

SKATING RINK.—Manager Scott announces that there will be a Skating Race at the rink next Thursday evening, the last of the season. It will be open to the County and the prizes offered will be valuable.

WE regret to say that the enterprising publisher of the Erin Advocate met with reverse on Friday night, when his office and its contents were burnt. His loss was $1,400, and he was insured in the Wellington Mutual.

SCOTT ACT CASES.—Geo. Gibbs, of Georgetown, and Chas. Cooper, of Norval, were fined $75 each by Beak Young at Georgetown yesterday for illicit liquor selling, and Robt. Bennett, of Georgetown, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for a third offence.

MR. WM. ELLIOTT, ex-M. P. for Peel, died, aged 51 years, on Friday at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. James Bussell, Trafalgar, and was buried at Churchville on Sunday, Rev. Rural Dean Mackenzie, of Milton, conducting the services. The funeral is said to have been the largest ever known in the section where it took place.

WE observe that the Directors of the Milton Mechanics' Iottitute have obtained the services of Mr. Geo. Belford, of London, England, to give dramatic and humorous recitals in the town hall on Monday evening next, March 12th. Mr. Belford is admitted to be one of the greatest delinators of character of the present day. Crowded houses welcome him wherever he appears on this continent. We bespeak for him a warm reception in Milton, and have every confidence that his entertainment will be the crowning event of the season.

HAGGERT BROS., manufacturers of agricultural implements and machinery, Brampton, have suspended with liabilities of $250,000. For the past two months the works have been closed down, and negotiations have been pushed by the firm to secure aid from the Town Council of Brampton, and it is understood that a bonus or loan of $75,000 is forthcoming from the Council. Haggert Bros. were large employers of labor in Brampton, employing between 250 and 300 men.

A BIG SALE.—The sensation at Georgetown now is the huge dissolution sale at the Mammoth. Mr. Geo. Anderson having retired from the business, which will in future be carried on by Messrs. Wm. McLeod & Co., a general clearing out of the huge stock carried by the establishment is being made. In many lines the goods are marked below cost, and up to May 1st a discount of 5 per cent. will be allowed on all cash purchases of $2 and over. The rush for the great bargains offered by the firm in Dress Goods, Silks, Millinery, Ready-made Clothing, Carpets, Foot-wear, &c., is great, and the sooner you call the better selection you will have.

THE Edinburgh Concert Co., who appeared here on Monday evening under the auspices of the Independent Order of Foresters, drew a crowded house, and delighted those who went to hear them. The entertainment was principally Scotch, but aside from its national character it was so good in itself that one did not need to be Scotch to enjoy and appreciate it. While the singing was excellent, and was rapturously encored, the Scotch, Spanish, Irish and sailors' dances and the pipe music, being novelties here, and being of the very best, were particularly well received by the audience. We understand that the company will appear in Milton shortly under the auspices of the lacrosse club.

MR. BELFORD has received the highest commendations from the press wherever he has appeared. In Toronto, the leading journals were unanimous in his praise. Below we give an extract from the remarks of the critic of The Week, the best authority on such matters in the city:

"All the selections were more or less familiar, but none of them were hackneyed; and Mr. Belford's fine voice and finished elocution gave a new charm even to the most familiar. Gifted with such a facial power of rendering the most difficult and different selections—grave, humorous, pathetic, declamatory—it is hard to say in which class of reading he most excells. . ."—The Week.

ONE of the hardest workers last Thursday among the Scott Act men of Trafalgar was a warm blooded Scotchman of the clan of the noted freebooter, Rob Roy. He counted on the wicked Antis receiving a "beeg wheepin" and he did what he could to help to bring it about, using his team all day in conveying voters to and from the polls. His final contract in that line was to bring home a Streetsville man who had a vote in his ward, and on his return he had the misfortune to get off the track so far that his sleigh was upset and he was deposited in a snow drift, to the great delight of a couple of Antis who were close by at the time, and to his own infinite disgust. He stoutly maintains that though he had been in a benighted village where the sale of whiskey is licensed, whatever the uncharitable Antis may say to the contrary, he "wasna fou." Let us hope that he wasna

REV. SOLOMON CLEAVER, who so distinguished himself in the Zimmerman-Harley scrap, has had Rev. C. O. Johnson, of the Gore Street Methodist Church, Hamilton, before a clerical committee on charge of falsehood. The committee's verdict was that Mr. Johnson had been guilty of using "careless, uncandid and misleading language," and it will recommend that he be reported by the presiding elder of the Niagara conference. If Mr. Johnson wishes to get square with the Rev. Solomon and charges him with having used "careless, uncandid and misleading language" in the account published by him of his encounter with the doughty Peter he may be able to find evidence enough to make a pretty strong case. It is to be hoped that Mr. Johnson was not convicted on the unsupported testimony of his accuser.

LOWVILLE.

MR. WM. Flatt is at present in Muskoka, looking after some timber land there.

A meeting was held in the School House here on Monday evening by the farmers, to discuss the possibility of starting a cheese factory here. There was only a small attendance and another meeting will be held in the Lime stone school on Thursday evening.

The election passed off rather quietly here, although a couple of quarrels, which almost ended in fights are reported, the one from Bell's school house, and the other from Kilbride. It seems to be the general opinion here that the defeat of the Scott Act is attributable to nothing but the influx of preachers and other Scott Act orators who have been stumping the county during the late campaign. There was not much betting here. About the only betting which I have heard of was between Beaver and Lillie, who had a plug of chewing tobacco up upon the result. Some of our Scott Act friends say that it does not matter so much about the Scott Act being defeated, as we are sure of getting prohibition now since Sir John A. has got coverted. They also say that it was only the respectable men that voted for the Act this time. Respectable people are evidently diminishing in number in this county, another ruinous effect of the Scott Act. And last, but by no means least, comes the little Mayor, who thinks it was all "purty good."

Lowville can boast of having a prophet of no mean ability. Not long ago he prophesied that something strange was going to happen, and on the following evening his buggy disappeared rather mysteriously. One Sunday recently he again prophesied that he would get himself in the paper, all of which has come to pass.

The pupils of the Lowville school debate with the Limestone on Friday afternoon, the 16th inst. The subject of debate is, "Resolved that more knowledge can be gained from reading than travelling," Lowville takes the affirmative.

There was only a small attendance at the weekly meeting of the Literary society on Friday evening. The instrumental music was furnished by Mr. J. Nicholson and Miss Lottie Colling; songs by the Glee Club and readings by C. Cust, W. Readhead, H. Naisbitt, W. Richardson and W. F. Patterson. There was no debate, but two-minute speeches instead. Mr. W. J. Patterson acted as critic. The debate for Friday evening is upon "intemperance and war."

The society will meet on Wednesday evening instead of Friday evening.

Mr. Geo. Naisbitt, of the Middle Road, Nelson has sold his farm, consisting of one hundred acres, to Mr. Wm. Clifton of near Brampton, for $7,500. Mr. Naisbitt will also sell all of his farm stock, implements, household furniture &c., by public auction, on Tuesday March 13th, as he intends going into other business.

Horses for the Army.

The Canadian Gazette urges that as the British War Office is likely to go again to Canada for remounts, Canada must strive to improve the breed of horses by the introduction of thoroughbred stallions. One at least should should be supplied each experimental farm and let out on hire to neighboring farmers. Horse fairs should be established at recognised centres.

The manhood suffrage measure introduced in the Legislature by Mr. Mowat is to be passed this session.

It is stated that Sir John Ross will succeed General Middleton as commander of the Canadian Militia.

Tenders for the completion of the bridges on the Red River Valley Railway are being advertised for by the Manitoba Government.

The veteran Kingston Liberal, Mr. John Carruthers, has sent his cheque for $10,000 to the treasurer of Queen's College and the interest upon it from December 1st.

The Dufferin petition for the repeal of the Scott Act has been passed through Council at Ottawa.

A Mrs. Daley and her two children were burned in their house, near Dunnville, on Monday morning. Foul play is suspected.

Mr. W. Stewart, known as the Kincardine giant, is 20 years old, 6 feet 8 inches in height, weighs 240 pounds, and measures 45 inches around the chest.

At the last Wiarton Council meeting a by-law was passed to grant five hotel licenses at $160 each, in case the Scott Act is not sustained in the county at the coming vote.

It is hinted very strongly at Ottawa that the Fisheries protocols will show that the American negotiators flatly refused an offer to treat on a commercial basis.

A vote on Scott Act repeal will be taken in Bruce County on April 19.
