LOCAL NEWS.

THE Foresters will celebrate at Streetsville on the 24th.

MR. W. J. PROUD returned on Tuesday from a nine-months' sojourn in British Columbia and California.

THE editor of the Oakville Star is an enthusiastic sportsman, and his favorite sport is spearing suckers by torch light.

MR. W. HARDY, furniture dealer, of Streetsville, has made an assignment to Mr. Wm. Webb, of the same village.

BOYS are now in the lookout for something nice and stylish in the Hat Department. The best and cheapest are to be had at Treble's, cor. of King and James Sts., Hamilton.

WHEAT AND WOOL WANTED.—The highest price paid for any quantity of good merchantable Wheat and for good clean washed wool.—CHAS. WILSON, Milton.

BASEBALL.—The Milton and Omagh nines will play a match here on Saturday.....The Pastimes of Acton defeated the Arctics of Toronto, at Acton last Saturday.

STREETSVILLE brass band gives open air concerts and the Review complains of the young hoodlums of the village throwing stones at the musicians and making themselves generally obnoxious.

FOR the spring trade Treble has just received an immense stock of English and American Felt Hats, in all the newest colors and latest styles. Call and inspect his stock.—Corner of King and James Sts., Hamilton.

SERENADED.—On Monday evening the band serenaded Mr. D. McGibbon, barrister, who invited the boys into his house, where they were treated to a supper and hospitably entertained until near midright.

THE prosecution failed to make out a case against License Inspector Brothers last week at the Guelph Assizes, on the charge of trespass laid against him by Mr. Eagle, of Rockwood, and the gallant Billy returned home greatly elated.

Now the light, sunshiny days have come, cast off your old hats and ties and go to Treble's. He has some of the choicest hats and nobbiest ties imaginable at unheard of prices.—Corner King and James Sts., Hamilton.

FINE TROUT—Mr. John Wallace, proprietor of the Wallace House, went to Horning's Mills last week and brought home a large market basket full of trout, the result of two day's fishing. The trout averaged larger than any others we have ever seen in Milton.

ROCKWOOD has a newspaper now, the Advance, the initial number of which appeared last week. It announces that it will be neutral with regard to politics, and will make the advancement of the village where it is printed the principal plank in its platform. Its local department is its specialty, and it is well edited. May it prosper.

ANOTHER large importation of Gents' Merino socks, suitable for spring wear, just received. Price and quality unsurpassed. Splendid value at 15 and 25 cents per pair.—Treble's, corner King and James Sts., Hamilton.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—Wm. Brenair, of Nassagaweya, came to Milton on Tuesday evening, got an overdose of shebeen whiskey and became so disorderly that Chief Constable Peacock ran him in. He remained in jail all night, and yesterday morning was brought before Mayor Robertson, who fined him $5 and costs, which he paid.

DRINKS SCARCE.—A Nelson man reports that since the repeal of the Scott Act the hotel men of Burlington have been conducting their business strictly on the temperance plan, that it is impossible to buy a drink of anything intoxicating in the village, and that any liquor that is drank there has to be imported by the consumers from Hamilton and elsewhere. A similiar report comes from Georgetown, at least it is said that no drinks can be got in the hotels there. We have not heard from the shebeens.

FOR good and cheap cricket caps, cricket belts, football and boating Jerseys, white flannel shirts, you cannot do better than by going to Treble's, corner of King and James Sts., Hamilton.

THE RIFLE.—The Milton Rifle Club was reorganized for the season last Thursday evening, with the following officers:—Judge Miller, Hon. President; J. Butterfield, President; W. Panton, Vice-President; J. J. Zealand, Sec.-Treas.; A. Alexander, J. Hume and J. Rixon, managing committee, and D. D. Scott and A. Chisholm, range officers. As soon as the range is ready practice will be commenced and will be continued throughout the season, the regular weekly practices being held on Saturday afternoons.

CHEAP LIQUORS.—Mr. Wm. Shields has purchased the entire liquor stock, in bond and duty paid, amounting in all to about $15,000 in value, of the firm of James Shields & Co., lately assigned, and will dispose of it without reserve at the original cost price in parcels to suit any order. Orders by mail or telegram promptly attended to. The liquor department of the establishment, on the corner of Yonge and Temiance Streets, will be kept open until the stock is cleared out. 40-tf.

RECENT POSTAL ENACTMENTS.—The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under the law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid, or takes three papers from the postoffice, and then orders the postmaster to mark it "Refused," and have a notice sent notifying the publisher, lays himself liable to arrest and fine, same as for theft.—Free Press.

BRAMPTON REPONSIBLE.—It was really a pitiable sight to see little Charlie Ellison being taken to goal yesterday to enter upon a month's imprisonment, the result of his stealing $41 out of John Jeffers's till last Friday. What a terrible beginning for a young boy. It all comes of idleness and being out late at night. Parents who are allowing their children to stray away from school and run the streets, are making of them the future occupants of our goals and penitentiaries. It is one of the duties of the Public School Trustees to see that children attend school, but they don't attend to it.—Banner.

SPRAY your trees and you will reap the fruits of your labor. Call and see the hand pump for this job, at W. H. Macnab's.

LECTURE.—Rev. J. A. McKeen, B. A., will lecture at the Presbyterian Church to-morrow evening, on "The Summer Isles, or Nine Years in Bermuda." The Guelph Daily Herald says of Mr. McKeen's lecture: "The lecture was one of great literary merit and evinced the possession on the part of the lecturer of descriptive powers of a high order. So vivid was the description of the natural features of "The Summer Isles" and so graphic the picture of the ocean girt gem of the sea, that the listener easily found himself in imagination living there. The history, manners, social and religious life of the people, as well as the climate and natural resources of the islands were presented in an able manner.

Horse, Buggy and Harness for Sale cheap. Apply at the CHAMPION Office.

THE May number of the Canadian Horticulturist is up to the usual standard of that excellent publication. Among a number of interesting articles is one by Mr. S. P. Morse, a Halton fruit grower, who is noted as a well posted horticulturist, on the treatment of "Girdled Trees."

FOLKS were wondering why Dentist Harris, of Oakville, did not put in an appearance at the Franklin house last Tuesday as usual. He sent the following laconic telegram, however, which is quite easy to interpret: "Another good Tory vote arrived this morning; both doing well. Hooray! Won't be down to-day.—Streetsville Review.

BURGLARS AT ACTON.—Acton, Ont., May 7.—A daring attempt at burglary occurred here this morning about 3 a.m. Mr. James Matthews, postmaster, was alarmed at the reflection of a light into his bedroom window, and thinking a fire had started in some store or other building in the vicinity, hurriedly rose and proceeded to locate it. He was considerably surprised, however, to find that the light proceeded from his own office and that it was from a lamp in use by midnight mechanics where they were engaged in drilling the postoffice safe, and had penetrated the outer plate. The alarm was at once given, but the burglars escaped through the store adjoining, leaving their tools and powder behind them. They did not succeed in opening the safe, but secured a quantity of stamps and a small amount of loose change, tobacco and other sundries from the postoffice and the adjoining store of Mr. L. G. Matthews. A number of letters were opened, but no money was secured from them. All the drawers in the postoffice and the store were ransacked. This is the third burglarious attempt at the postoffice, but each has been similarly unsuccessful. The bakery of Thos. Statham and the carpenter shop of John Cameron were also visited, but no booty was secured.

MASONIC.—On the evening of the 26th ult., R. Ex-Comp. Hugh Murray, Grand Supt. of Works of the Hamilton District, paid his official visit to St. Clair Royal Arch Chapter No. 75, G. R. C. The Chapter closed at an early hour and St. Clair Lodge No. 135, G. R. C., opened and received the official visit of R. W. Bro. George Russell, D. D. G. M., who was accompanied by M. W. Bro. Hugh Murray, Past Grand Master of Canada, R. W. Bro. Gavin Stewart, P. D. D. G. M., W. Bros. John Hoodless, W. M. of Barton Lodge, Hamilton, add C. W. Mulligan, P. M. of Temple Lodge of same city. The attendance at this meeting was very large, the occasion was a notable one on account of the presence of so many distinguished brethren, and it was improved by the opening of a lodge of instruction presided over by the R. W. D. D. G. M. and W. Bro. Hoodless. The business of the evening having been concluded, the brethren repaired to the Wallace House, where they sat down to a supper, which it is sufficient to say was worthy of the reputation of that well known hostelry. Ample justice having been done to the good things provided, the table was cleared, a number of toasts were proposed and ably responded to by visiting and local brethren, and songs were sung in excellent style by W. Bros. Mulligan and Hoodless and Bro. R. Brown. The brethren separated between 1 and 2 a.m. with the junior warden's toast, "Happy to meet, sorry to part, and happy to meet again." The above report was inadvertently left out of our last issue.

THE BARBER WILL CASE.—The case of Hurst v. Barber, in which a contest over the will of the late Joseph Barber, of Georgetown, has been going on for the last eight days before Mr. Justice Ferguson at Osgoode Hall, was decided yesterday afternoon in favor of the testator's two sons, Frederick and Walter, the executors named in the will. The case was a very curious one and full of interest. The will was drawn up by George Gibbs, a Georgetown hotel-keeper, and the last clause of it, as it stood originally, was (the residue of my estate) "to be equally divided the two above named executors." The word "between" was written above the space between "divided" and "the," and on the margin were the initials G. G., supposed to be there as authenticating the interlineation of the word "between." Some of the other children of the testator brought this action to have it decided that the will should not be admitted to probate in this shape with the word "between" there, and hence arose the contest. George Gibbs, although he drew the will and was present at its execution, was not a subscribing witness, and even if the initials had been undispatably his the interlineation would not have been properly authenticated, as neither the testator nor the subscribing witnesses initialled it, and it was not noticed in the testimonium clause. In addition to the suspicion thus thrown upon the alteration, Gibbs himself testified that he had not written the word "between," though it looked like his handwriting, and that the initials "G. G." were not written by him. Curiously enough the word in question was spelled "betwen," which was shown to be a peculiarity observed in Gibbs' ordinary spelling, and there was no caret below, the omission of which was also shown to be an eccentricity of his style. The learned judge in pronouncing judgment, specially discredited Gibbs as a witness, saying that from his demeanor in giving evidence, his contradictions, and so forth, he was not to be believed, and his Lordship was able to come to this conclusion on the evidence of Gibbs alone, without considering the evidence contra. He, however, believed the evidence of McKinnon, one of the subscribing witnesses, who related a conversation which took place just before the will was executed, from which it appeared that the word "between" had been supplied after the will had been read over by the testator. His Lordship, without throwing any discredit on the expert evidence as to the handwriting of the word and initials in question, came to his conclusion without its aid. He also said that although it might be supposed by many persons that the testator should have divided his property more equally among the members of his family, there was yet evidence to show that his intention had been to benefit his sons Frederick and Walter. He complimented the members of the family on the way in which they had given their evidence, and he regarded it as entirely trustworthy. His judgment accordingly was that the word "between" was in the will at the time of the execution, and he pronounced that the will with that word in it was the will of Joseph Barber, and should be admitted to probate. A discussion then arose on the question of costs, the plaintiffs contending that all the costs should be paid out of the estate, and the executors that the plaintiffs should pay the costs. The result of costs being paid out of the estate would be in fact that the executors would have to pay them, as the residuary estate is left to them. On this question judgment was reserved.—Globe.

OREGON AND WASHINGTON.

No section of the country is to-day attracting as much attention as Montana, Oregon and Washington; Montana, because it now ranks first in the production of precious metals; Oregon, because of its rich valleys, and Washington Territory by reason of its mild climate, timber, coal, minerals and wonderful production of fruits and cereals. The rapid growth of Spokane Falls, with a water power exceeding that of Minneapolis; Tacoma, on Puget Sound, the terminus of the Northern Pacific Railroad, with 12,000 inhabitants; Seattle, 30 miles distant, an energetic and thriving city, mark this section of the Pacific Northwest as one that offers peculiar inducements to those seeking new homes.

By writing Chas. S. Fee, General Passenger Agent, Northern Pacific Railroad, St. Paul, Minn., he will send you illustrated pamphlets, maps and books giving you valuable information in reference to the country traversed by this great line from St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Ashland to Portland, Oregon, and Tacoma and Seattle, Washington Territory. This road, in addition to being the only rail line to Spokane Falls, Tacoma and Seattle, reaches all the principal points in Northern Minnesota and Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington, possesses unequaled scenic attractions, as well as superior train equipment, such as dining cars, and colonist sleepers for the use of intending settlers, neither of which conveniences are to be found on any other line ticketing business to the States and Territories named. 47-10ms.

MORE FOOD ANALYSES.

OFFICIAL ACTION BY THE MASSACHUSETTS STATE BOARD OF HEALTH.

There is no more useful work in which the health authorities can engage than the examination of the various articles sold to the public for food, drink and medicine.

The agitation for the passage of laws to expose and punish food adulterations in the United States, is being aided by action of kind taken by the Boards of Health of several States. Ohio and Massachusetts, following the course of the Inland Revenue Department of the Dominion, have published the names of many of the impure or unwholesome articles examined. Among them are the following brands of alum baking powders: Davis', Silver Star, Forest City, A. & P., Silver King, Kenton, Cook's Favorite, Gem, etc. This is a most effectual way to stop their sale, as no one will buy an alum baking powder knowingly.

Massachusetts analysts have tested the various cream of tartar and phosphate baking powders sold in that State, and they report that the Royal baking powder is superior to all others in purity and wholesomeness, and contains nearly 20 per cent. more strength than any other. The exact determination as to strength of the several brands was as follows:

RELATIVE LEAVENING STRENGTH.

Name.	Cubic in. gas per oz. powder.
Royal	126. 15
Cleveland's	107. 7
Congress	81. 2
Horsford's	95. 1

The official tests in both the United States and the Dominion likewise prove the superiority of the Royal in purity, strength and wholesomeness.
