ertainty that you have lost.
Hester felt this difference. She sensibly trained her mind to n undefined calamity; but now, w came upon her in a specific sh d character, she almost sank eath the shock. It was too true w acob Griffiths had told her. Da d his father were both in Monmou

. Modern articles of china are ped with old marks so cleverly even experts have been ded. Arms and armor are treated ds which eat away the metal, producing the same effects as the ges of time. Carved ivories are ed with oils to make them yellow, are subjected to heat to make crack. Pieces of furniture have drilled to represent the worm and so on, until there will in be very little in the way of

s. Paris is one the strong-of this class of forgers, while in gary there is a factory where en china is imitated in a fair er. There is, however, one safe and that is to buy through re-dealers. Forgeries in all works very rarely get into the dealers'
s. As a rule they are sent to aucrooms.

ny amateurs have an idea that may pick up a priceless work of or a curio for a mere song. That the chance for the forgers. They all this and work accordingly, and

WILLING TO TELL.

Sometimes it is a pleasure to answer ions, even if the questioner may them in an unpleasant way:

What do you do for a living? asked lawyer, frowning horribly at a hat-
-faced young man who was under-ng cross-examination.

I, sir, answered the witness, hastily ing into his side pocket, am the

Here the court interfered.

SERENE NERVE.

The most curious feature in the case the miner recently imprisoned for arly 70 hours in the Gaylord coal e at Plymouth, Penn., was his ecefully falling asleep in his tomb soon as he realized that he was ely to be rescued. It would be difances, too, that the miners might t get the poor fellow out alive.

A Good Story.

A story is going the rounds at the expense of one of the best known men this place. We shall not mention s name, but you know him. Of rter determined mien, he has of late en showing signs of mental agita-. He wears a full beard, but a w days since his wife, much to her rm, found him sharpening a razor.
e thought his mind was unhinged d she went into hysterics. Expla-tions followed and it was found that e had for him still some charm. He ended to use the razor upon pain-l corns. A friend who had used tman's Corn Extractor with success rised its use, with the following re-lts: Man quite happy, wife ditto, nor sent away. Use Putman's Corn tractor.

GRACIE AND THE MOON.

Little Gracie sat out on the porch e other evening, looking thoughtful-y away to the westward, where the w moon formed a thin, pale crescent the sky.

What are you thinking about, dear?
her mamma asked.

Gracie turned suddenly, as if she had en been aroused from an interesting ream, and said, pointing toward the oon:

Mamma, do you know what I be-ve that is? I believe it's God's fin-
-nail.

Double daily train service with through Pullman palace and tourist sleeping cars, between Denver, San Francisco, and Los Angeles, and Denver and Portland. The best line to Utah, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington via the "Ogden Gateway." Write S. K. Hooper, G. P. & T. A., Denver, Colorado, for illustrated descriptive pamphlets.

A MOURNING CEREMONY.

A lady in deep mourning some time ago called upon the proprietor of a Sydney, New South Wales, waxworks show and asked to be allowed every Sunday morning to place a white shirt on the figure of her husband. Her request was granted, and for close on six months she never missed a Sunday. Then the visits ceased, and no more was seen of the eccentric visitor until one day the waxworks man was standing at his door, when she came along in gay apparel and explained that, as she had married again Hubby No. 2 objected to the eccentric ceremony over No. 1.
