FLESHERTON.

Many of our readers will remember that in December last Boyd, Hickling & Co's. store was broken into, ransacted and between two and three dollars taken from the till. That the thief also helped himself to a complete outfit of wearing apparel came to light last week when Andrew Bentham discovered in the swamp near the cemetery a lot of old clothing, boots, etc., which had evidently been discarded for new goods from the above firm's store as a number of tickets bearing their private mark were among the find. The cost marks show that the light fingered chap's judgment was not very good for selecting fine goods; or perhaps there was a feeling of delicacy when helping himself and if so the firm appreciates his modesty.

The editor of the Advance has improved his property by having a neat picket fence erected on the stone work in front. Mr. Wm. Neil has had his neat home improved by new covers on the verandahs and woodshed re-shingled.

Friday afternoon last was observed as Arbor Day by our Public School staff and scholars and the school grounds were of course much improved by the labor expended.

From the Collingwood Bulletin of last week we learn that the well known firm of C. Stephens & Co. has been evolved into a joint stock company to be known as C. Stephens Co Limited; capital $100,000. Among the members of the new firm is, we are pleased to note. Mr. J. P Stephens, son-in-law of the late Thos. Leitch, of this place.

Quarterly Sacrament service was held in the Methodist Church on Sabbath morning last at which there was a large attendance of communicants.

Messrs. John Nuhn and Arthur Guest returned last week from the Temiskaming district where they each invested in 160 acres of land. Mr. Nuhn has, we are pleased to state, decided to remain longer here and will continue his former business in the woollen mill.

Col. A. G. Campbell, 31st Batt., was in town on Thursday last and called on a number of old friends who were pleased to see him and none more so than your correspondent. The 31st Regiment is, we understand being supplied with new uniforms which will doubtless be highly appreciated by the officers and men. The new issue consists of comfortable helmets, scarlet serge tunics, with regulation blue pants with red stripes. This with the Oliver equipment and Lee-Enfield rifles supplied last year will make the regiment more than ever attractive for our stalwart and best young man.

Dr. Jos. Stafford, professor of Zoology in McGill University, Montreal, paid his brother-in-law, J. P. Ottowell, V. S. here, a short visit last week. Dr. Stafford has for the last two summers done biological work for the government at Camo. N. B., and will spend the summer there in a like manner.

Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, of this place, will preach for Rev. Dr. Langford, of Owen Sound, on Sabbath next, and Rev. Varley, of Priceville, will supply his pulpit here, and preach anniversary sermons for the League.

Rev. Wilson and Thom, of this place, conducted re-opening services for the Methodist Congregation at Eugenia on Sabbath last, the former in the afternoon and the latter in the evening.

Rev. C. L. Mills, of this place, is paying old friends in Huron County a visit this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hacking, of Moose Head, Maine, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Thistlewaite, Toronto line, this week.

Mrs. Fred Bunt and Miss McDonald, milliner, of Collingwood, were visitors at Mr. W. E. Richardson's from Saturday till Monday.

Carlton Bellamy is home from Parry Sound visiting his parents, Mr and John Bellamy.

Mr. E. Hamilton and daughter Winnie spent Sunday with friends at Thornbury.

Mr. W. Irwin and daughters, of Durham, were in town on Monday, returning from the burial of Mr Irwin's aged and beloved mother who passed away at the old home in Collingwood township on Thuasday last.

DORNOCH

Mr. Donald McDonald, of Durham, made a pleasant call in the vicinity last week.

Mr. Thos. Smith and sister, of Durham, spent the week end very pleasantly in the neighborhood.

Spring seeding is far advanced for the beginning of May. Some are finished, and the majority will finish this week. Fall wheat and clover does not look very thriving.

Miss M. McKenzie, teacher, of Muloch, spent Saturday and Sunday in the village the guest of her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Smith.

Mr. Fred Bray, of Toronto, is renewing former associations here of late. We regret to learn that Fred has spent a term in the hospital and still looks frail.

The W. F. M. S. hold their monthly meeting to-day (Monday) in the church here, and an address is expected from Mrs. (Rev.) Nelson, of Desboro. These meetings are very interesting and are well attended.

A well attended ploughing bee was held on Thursday of last week by Mr. R. T. Corlett, who lately moved on the Cameron farm. Over 14 acres were ploughed. In the evening a large number of the fair sex, whose hands and raiment were hardly fitted for the arduous task of farm labor, but who helped the tired ploughmen to forget weariness. A very pleasant and sociable evening was spent in music and song.

After a lapse of 10 years spent in Arden, Manitoba, Mr. Dougal Morrison is once more viewing the scenes of his boyhood. His coming home this time is a joyous and happy one, as Mr. Morrison and his winsome bride are on their honeymoon trip, and intend to stay a couple of weeks with his brothers and sisters here. We extend hearty congratulations and good wishes

A couple of weeks ago an official mandate went forth from the post office authorities at Ottawa that the post office of Welbeck was to be closed the following day, and not giving any reason for so doing. No complaints had ever been made against either mail carrier or post mistress. Whether there is any political significence in the fact we know not, but if there is the conduct of the Government is disgraceful to say the least. Some attribute their action to economy, but a glance at the estimates of the house leaves this idea an absurd one. However, the fact remains that over 20 families are deprived of their postal priveleges, and some of them have to drive five miles for their mail, and in busy seasons, like the present one, get their mail once a fortnight. In the present century and in a heavily taxed community this economic tactics on the part of a Government who can spend thousands on palace cars, corkscrews and sundries, and then cut off a country post office simply because the revenue did not exceed the expenditure. However, the people so wronged will not be slow in showing their disapproval of their actions by the ballot-boxes.

VICKERS.

Mr. Jas. Vickers returned a few weeks ago from the west, where he has been for the past two years.

Mr. Bartman and family, of Normanby, have moved into our burg, and intend to remain for some time.

Sorry to hear Mr. Ben Coutts was laid up for a few days.

Mr. T. H. Lawrence was laid up last week with inflamatory rheumatism, but under the skilful treatment of Dr. Gun, is able to be around again.

Prayer Meeting will be held at Mr. Fred Reay's on Sunday evening. Hope to have a good attendance.

Mrs. Montgomery, of Sault Ste Marie, and Mrs. Armstrong, Gravenhurst, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Jos. Corbett, who has been ill for same time.

Mr. W. G. McCulloch recently erected a monument in memory of his father, which he purchased from Robinson and Corbett, of Mt. Forest, of whom he speaks as men honest and reliable in their dealings.

Herb Hunt is repairing his house. He thinks he may need it some day.

The missing Link from Allan Park has again attacked us in his sarcastic manner, so we have decided to give him a parting farewell, trusting he may regain truth and wisdom as he grows older.
