GLENELG CENTRE.

The youth of our burg were not struck on the weather on the 24th, and they certainly stayed at home with the old folks.

Mr. Barnet, of Owen Sound, spent 24th with Scotchtown friends. Fishing was certainly a failure.

Mr. Alex. and Miss May Martin, with their little neice Edith, spent Sunday with their friends in this burg.

Mr. John McGillivray had the misfortune to lose a valuable cow recently by getting fast in the bush,

Mrs. Cameron had her annual bee on Monday and finished up seeding.

Mr. D. McArthur is a hustler. He leased his brother Hughie's farm which gives him extra work. We think Mr. McArthur will be congratulated in some other way in the near future. Stay with it, Duncan, as there are few more worthy or indeed more needful.

Mr. James White returned from north Glenelg and has a bunch of good yarns to distribute.

Mr. Henry Beaton is trapping ground hogs. Harry is good-hearted and le s an occasional one skip.

We learn that Mr. R. J. Black is under the weather of late. The Scribe of the above town will please pardon Pat, the children and myself, if we are trespassing in any way this week.

"My Heart was Thumping my Life out," is the way Mrs. R. H. Wright, of Brockville, Ont., describes her sufferings from smothering, fluttering and palpitation. After trying many remedies without benefit, six bottles of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart restored her to perfect health. The first dose gave almost instant relief, and in a day suffering ceased altogether.—51

The By-laws are pretty strict on animals running at large and our township fathers are going to have the law enforced, so people govern yourselves accordingly.

The Stomach's "Weal or Woe!" —The stomach is the centre from which, from the standpoint of health, flows "weal or woe." A healthy stomach means perfect digestion—perfect digestion means strong and steady nerve centres—strong nerve centres mean good circulation, rich blood and good health. South American Nervine makes and keeps the stomach right.—52

LAMLASH.

As it is a long time since you had the privilege of putting among your many items a correspondence from Lamlash, I will endeavor to note a few of the many happenings of our little town.

Quite a number of our young folk were sadly disappointed at not being able to take in the pic-nic held on the 24th, owing to the inclemencies of the weather.

Mr. John Heddle, General Merchant, was in Durham on Thursday last.

Mr. Ralph Brunt, better known as Cattle King Brunt, shipped from Elmwood on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Currie, of Muloch, passed through here on their way to visit Walkerton friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy McGillivray, of Chatsworth, paid a visit to his parental home, Mr. John McGillivray's, of Muloch.

Mr. George Mighton's barn raising came off very successfully, which is a credit to both framer and captains. Mr. Sandy McDonald and Mr. Malcolm McEachern were the chosen captains. It was a very close contest Malcolm's side coming but a little on the lead, which is, no doubt, a credit to Mack, as Sandy has never been beaten before. After the raising the Muloch foot-ball team, accompanied by some of our boys, played a delightful game of foot-ball.

Master Bob and Miss Fanny Forester, of Muloch, paid a visit to Mr. Harriston's, of Sullivan.

Our creamery is now running at full blast, having five rigs on the road every day.

Miss Marshall, our worthy teacher, holidayed at her parental home.

Mr. Hugh McCallum, who is now engaged with Mr. William Pearson, of Allan Park, passed through here on his way to visit Owen Sound friends.

There is some talk of Mr. George Johnston joining the Muloch foot-ball team. What is the matter with getting up a team of our own and keeping the boys together?

Mr. and Mrs, Neil McCallum visited Rev. Mr. Burns, late pastor of Muloch, but now of Strathaven, and found Mr. Burns and family all well, but grieving over the sad death of Mrs. Burns. We sympathize with them in this their sad affliction. Mr. McCallum says that Mr. Burns intends to pay a visit to his old field of labor, Muloch Baptist church. I am sure he will find many friends. Don't forget Lamlash.

Mr. Filman O'Neil. of Muloch, passed through here on his way to visit his sister, in Tiverton.

Now, Mr. Editor, I hope I have not taken up too much space in your important paper. Perhaps if this budget be too long, the next may be longer as business is booming.

Bright's Disease — Insidious! deceptive! relentless! has foiled hundreds of trials by medical science to stem the tide of its ravages—and not until South American Kidney Cure proved beyond a doubt its power to turn back the tide, was there a gleam of anything but despair for the victim of this dread form of kidney disease.—54

The Dialect Fisherman.

[Dan Davies, of the Acme White Lead Works, claims to hold the record for catching the largest small mouth black bass ever caught. The accident is said to have happened on July 28, 1898, on the famous Lake St. Clair fishing grounds]

A fisherman on Lak San Claire,
'Bout six mile off from shore,
Fished hard for one, two, three, four hour;
By an' by he fished some more.

Some time he fish with old dry bait,
Some time he fish with wet—
He give the dry bait to the fish,
The wet bait—nit! you bet.

Long time some fish did never come,
Then one, two, three passed by;
They smell of that old dead, dry bait
And wink the other eye.

By an' by one great big bass come long,
'Bout five, six, seven pound weight,
So old he neither smell or see,
And ate the old, dry bate.

The fisherman stood very still
And reeled out yards of line—
He worked that poor old blind black bass
So very, very fine.

By an' by the fish began to pull,
By an' by he pull some more,
And then was fun in Lak San Claire,
'Bout six mile out from shore.

The fish he plunge like one mad horse,
And then he pulled like ten—
He towed that boat nine miles an hour—
Big boat and 'four big men.

He pulled like bass 'bout six feet long,
May be he be 'bout seven,
May be, if not pulled out right quick,
He'll grow to be 'bout 'leven.

By an' by they pull that bass half out,
By an' by they pull him more.
And Lak San Claire fell four, five feet,
'Bout six mile off from shore.

The Lime Kiln Crossing got so low
The boats they could not pass;
And Dan he say the river fell
When he pulled out that bass.
