THAT $10,000 SENATORSHIP.

The much anticipated investigation by the senatorial committee into the charge made by Mr Cook, the wealthy Toronto lumberman, that he was offered a seat in the Upper Chamber for $10,000, by an agent representing the Government, has been held, and the country is now in possession of all the data upon which was based one of the most serious charges ever made against Ministers of the Crown in this country Mr. Cook repeated his allegations adding that Hon. M. C. Cameron, since deceased was the "agent" in question, that he acted on behalf of the Premier and his colleagues, that he produced a letter signed by Sir Richard Cartwright making the infamous proposal, that the same offer was repeated afterwards in the presence of Hon. S. C. Biggs, and that Mr. W. T. R. Preston also made a like proposal, claiming to do so at the instigation of Ministers here. Mr. Cook could produce no evidence documentary or otherwise in corroboration of all this but on the other hand each of those implicated by him swore that there was absolutely no truth in his assertions, and even Mr Biggs, who was supposed to be prepared to substantiate the story, explained away the very incidents upon which Mr Cook had laid so much stress. Probably the fact that has most impressed the country on hearing the story has been Mr Cook's admission that, although he felt greatly insulted by the suggestion, he continued negotations for long after wards, corresponded with the very men he declared had so grossly affronted him, said nothing about the outrage of which he was the innocent victim, and waited for four years, and until the eve of an election, before saying a word about it. Moreover Mr. Biggs informed the Committee that Mr. Cook had discussed the matter with him and had wondered whether $5,000 would be enough to secure what he was after, although to the Committee, Mr. Cook had sworn that he had indignantly declared he would not pay a cent. The Committee will hoar counsel and come to a decision on the matter after the Easter recess.

The following denials speak for themselves:

The charge is absolutely untrue. The first I heard of it was the statement made by Mr Cook prior to the general elections. The only correspondence I ever had with Mr. Cameron was as to the Lieutenant-Governorship. I never wrote Mr. Cameron a letter in which was stated that "our friend Cook must do something," or to that effect. I never wrote him any letter which he was to show, but not give, to Cook.—Sir Richard Cartwright.

It is absolutely untrue that any member of the Cabinet offered Mr. Cook a Senatorship. The late Mr. Cameron, so far as I am aware, never either directly or indirectly offered a Senatorship to Mr. Cook. He had no authority to make any such offer. As Premier, I follow the rule that where my Ontario colleagues are unanimous I take their advice in nominating Senators; where they are not unanimous I exercise my own judgment, and the responsibility rests with me.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The Americans have beaten us. Here is the text of the Littlefield Amendment to Section 4 of the Army Bill.

"The sale or dealing in beer, wine or any intoxicating liquors by any person in any post exchange or canteen or army transport, or upon any premises used for military purposes by the United States, is hereby prohibited. The Secretary of War is hereby directed to carry the provisions of thie section into full force and effect."

This was carried by the House of Representatives, Dec. 6th. by a vote of 159 to 51, and a little later by the Senate with nearly as good a majority.

Shall Canadians longer allow the sale of beer and other fermented drinks at Military Schools and the Barracks of the Mounted Police?

MISS WILLARD'S PLEDGE.

The indications of a life's bias are often seen in early years. Miss Willard has left this on record:

"In 1855 I cut from my favorite Youth's Cabinet,' the chief juvenile paper of the day, a temperance pledge, and pasting it in our family Bible, insisted on it being signed by every member of the family—parents, brother, sister and self. It is still there, thus signed, and represents the first bit of temperance work I ever did.

THE ROYAL TEMPLARS.

At their convention held last week in Toronto, took action that ought to greatly strengthen the hands of W. C. T. U. workers.

They decided to memorialize the Dominion Department of Militia "To make the prohibitory law regarding military camps a reality, and not a farce; and to extend the same wise provisions to all military schools, colleges and permanent corps under the control of the Canadian authorities."

Their resolution against the proposed charge in the School Scientific Temperance law was strong and uncompromising; and they cordially approved the W. C. T. U. Anti-Cigarette campaign.

A Nashville Drinking Man one morning told his family of a wonderful dream he had the previous night, in which he saw three cats, one fat, one lean, and one blind, and he wondered what it meant.

"I know," promptly responded his little son, "the man that sells you the whiskey is the fat cat, mother is the lean cat, and you are the blind cat."

Live Stock Market.
Toronto.

Western cattle market to-day:—
Trade steady.
Run very large.
Local Easter trade well supplied.
Export cattle steady.
Hogs unchanged.
Sheep and lambs firm.

The run was the largest for some time. 89 loads—1,700 cattle, 1,242 hogs, 750 sheep and lambs and 35 calves. All offerings were fairly well taken. Most stock was bought for Easter trade and should there be a heavy run next week prices are likely to ease off. Some eastern buyers were on the market to-day getting supplies for Easter trade in Quebec.

EXPORT CATTLE—There was a good sized run, which sold to a steady demand at $4.60 to $5 for best and $4 to $4.50 for bulls and light shippers.

BUTCHERS' CATTLE—There was, if anything, an easier feeling owing to the very large run. However, prices were pretty well maintained, although few fancy prices were paid. Picked lots sold as high as $4 50, choice loads from $3,80 to $4,25 and medium to good cattle at $3.25 to $3.75 per cwt.

FEEDERS—A moderate supply sold to a steady demand at $3.75 to $4,25 for short-keep steers and $3 25 to $3.75 for lighter stock.

STOCKERS—Large offerings sold to a good demand at steady price of $250 to $3.35 for steers.

BULL—Choice export bulls were worth as high as $4.50 to-day for best, and from that down to $3.50. Butchers' bulls were worth 2.50 to $3.50.

SHEEP—Moderate run sold out at unchanged prices of $3 to $3.60 per cwt for export ewes and $2.50 to $4 a head for butchers' sheep.

LAMBS—Good demand cleared up all offerings at $4.50 to $5.25 per cwt for choice grain-fed yearlings. $4 to $4,50 per cwt for barnyard lambs and $3 to $6 each for spring lambs. Prospects are still steady.

HOGS—Unchanged at $6.50 per cwt for selects of 160 to 200 lbs natural weight, and $6 per cwt for lights and fat.

WANTED—Capable, reliable person in every county to represent large company of solid financial reputation; $936 salary per year payable weekly; $3 per day absolutely sure and all expenses; straight, bona-fide salary paid each Saturday and expense money advanced each week.
