OVER OUR TOWN.—The Wallaceburg News two weeks ago anticipating the match of last Friday says:—"When Wallaceburg begin to urge their claim to the Junior championship these stars from the east (Durham). When they have burned up against some thing hard. Those who see best the stuff our team is made of have every confidence in the match being favorable to the glass town. Well, they know better now, and glass men will understand, that cement men are a hard proposition to run against. How the Cement will come out with the "Rocks," of Flora we know not, but we hope they will win. How the LACROSSE CONCERT.—With full house and great enthusiasm the performers Monday evening in the Town Hall were received, for our Lacrosse boys the town feels is worthy of honor and praise, and all that could be done was to turn out in their favor. The company came highly recommended, and much of the concert was of a high class character, but unfortunately we think, marred by the too common failing of drawing their jokes and their mirth from travesties of sacred things. We much mistake a Durham audience if this feature meets with anything but disfavor. The posing of Miss Anderson and excellent effect and the singing of Miss Luton and the Misses Anderson and excellent in original. Mr. Anderson's opening piece was clever and the singing of Miss Laton and

SOUTH GREY TEACHERS' Institute session here to-day and to-morrow. You are welcome. We hope you may have glorious weather, that your sessions may be bright and profitable, your concert a success, and the town up to your expectations. Our townspeople should as far as in them lies show an interest in this Annual gathering of bright young men and women who meet unselfishly to promote the best mental interest of their young charges, by comparing methods and drinking in ideas suggested or acquired by the older hands among them—that will enable them more efficiently to impart instruction and conduct the education of the young successfully. The entertainment to-night will be well worthy of patronage, Miss Semple has a splendid reputation and the other performers are of great ability.

We were informed by a reliable source, that Senator Landerkin was out of danger. His many friends will rejoice at the news.

From a kindly characteristic letter from Rev. Mr. Jansen we notice he is well, useful and becoming accustomed to North West life. He has a kindly remembrance for old friends in Durham, which we are pleased to pass on.
