As Mr. W. K. Reid was coming home from O. S. Monday night he met with a bad accident near the Rocky. Owing to some recent road work his wheel swerved and pitched him over on the side of his face and head and has a very painful wound as the result, his neck being much swollen and bruised.

The Peace River Trail.—This is the title of a pamphlet, really a book of 100 pages gotten up in Edmonton and the work of which is done by an old friend and employe of this office, Mr Wm. Harris. It is excellently printed on fine paper, letterpress and illustrations setting forth Edmonton and district in a most attractive manner. We congratulate Will on his fine work, artistic and beautiful.

19 mills—Durham expects this year to have a rate of 19 mills. This is particularly comforting when one reads of Mt Forest having a rate of 26 mills and of Meaford with a rate of over 30. However no kick would be coming at 20 mills if that would guarantee the putting our hill in a decent state. The council can see that it is getting no better fast, and the comments of visitors would make as unpleasing reading as the rocky road makes unpleasant travelling. Hurry up the grader,

Rev. and Mrs. Jamieson and family will leave this morning for Durham to which circuit Mr. Jamieson was appointed at the recent conference held in Berlin. On Sunday evg. last the retiring pastor of Wesley Church preached an able farewell sermon from the text found in "2 Cor. 13-11" "Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good confort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you." On the 26th of June Mr. Jamieson was presented with a filled purse and an address in special recognition of his two years' pastorate.—Chesley Enterprise.

Sudden Death.—The town was startled on Tuesday to learn that Mr. John Vollett had passed away about 10 a. m. after a brief illness. To pass so soon after his aged father is a striking reminder of the uncertainty of life. He was in his 47th year and leaves a widow and five children to mourn his untimely end, three boys and two girls, the eldest being about 15. Deceased was an active industrious man, and all that husband and father should be, but met with an accident some years ago, by falling from the roof of the Parker's residence, (now the manse) which laid the foundation for weak health and early death. A second fall from the bridge aggravated the trouble and he became a victim of nervous collapse, which has ended in death. His wife is a sister of James and Edward Welch, of Bentinck, and has the sympathy of the community in her bereavement, especially since, as we understand, deceased's insurance has lapsed. The remains are being buried to-day in St. John's R. C. Cemetery, Glenelg.

Garden Party.—The annual congregational garden party of the Presbyterian church in Durham, will be held on the manse grounds on Thursday, 11th July. A program is in preparation, the Regimental bane will be in attendance, Ice cream, strawberries &c. Admission 10 cts.

An experienced teacher says that pupils who have access to newspapers at home, when compared with those who do not, are better readers, better spellers, better grammarians, better punctuators, and read more understandingly, and obtain a practical knowledge of geography in almost half the time it requires others. The newspaper is decidedly an important factor in modern life. This will not be disputed by any one who has taken the trouble to investigate the matter for himself.

Mulock Garden Party—The Baptist Garden Party, at the residence of Mr. Duncan McLean, Bentinck, on Friday last was favored with fine weather, a good crowd, good programme, and receipts amounting to over $60. Mr H. H. Miller M. P., was in the chair and gave, as is his usual, a fine address, couched in a loyal and patriotic vein. Revd's Farquharson and Newton from Durham were present and made addresses, as also did pastor McLennan and Mr Rutherbough Durham Baptist choir furnished appropriate music and received flattering applause.

Burning and Commemorating.

A unique and interesting meeting was held on Tuesday evening in Morrison Church, Cedarville, when the mortgage on the church property was duly burned and a tablet in memory of late Rev. J. Morrison, was unveiled.

An excellent program of music was supplied by the church choir and the Cedarville string band, the latter receiving several enthusiastic encores. Solos by Mr Cook of Mt Forest, and others, were much appreciated.

Speeches of great variety and interest were given by Messrs A. W. Wright and Alex. Martin, of Mt. Forest, H. H. Miller, M. P., Hanover and by Rev'ds. Little, Farquharson, Falstead and Masson.

At the proper time the Rev. J. P. McInnes, the Chairman, displayed the mortgage on a tray while Mr A. McEachern applied the match, and the flame was watched as the token, that the mortgage, which in its day had been a friend in securing the necessary funds, had done its duty and had received an honorable discharge. To Mr Farquharson was given the honor of applying the lessons which the occasion suggested.

The culminating act of an interesting program was the unveiling of a tablet in memory of Rev. Jno. Morrison who, from the time of his induction in 1866 to the day of his death in January, 1906, had been the devoted friend of the congregation.

The honor of the unveiling was given to Rev. J. Little, who in a few well chosen sentences, presented the figure of the aged veteran in his indefatigable labors and his untiring devotion.

It was a late hour before the proceedings of an epoch-making gathering were brought to a close by singing the national anthem.

Jubilee in Priceville.

50 Years of Presbyterianism.

The picturesque little village of Priceville showed unusual stir Sunday last the occasion being Jubilee Services, and the preacher Rev. Alex McGillivray, of Bonar Church, Toronto, who 31 and 32 years ago ministered there as student.

The commodious church was packed full, aisles and all, morning and evening, with devout worshippers there being not a few from outside points, and from sister churches. A graceful act was the closing of the Methodist services in sympathy with the day and the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Berry, was invited to a place on the platform and to a part in the service. Better than any Cathedral anthem was the great opening volume of praise in the dignified hundredth psalm "All people that on earth do dwell," and not less appropriate was the opening scripture, "Lord Thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations."

Before the sermon Pastor Matheson gave a review of the past 50 years. This was the jubilee of the establishment of Presbyterian ordinances in the community rather than any particular day. There were no written records of the earliest days, but they had well authenticated facts from participators who survived. The very first Presbyterian service remembered was in 1854, held by Rev John McKinnon, Owen Sound, who was also Insp. of Schools. After him in connection with the Free Church was Mr. Gillander, who preached on the north line, then Mr. Gillies, one of whose daughters, Mrs. Joseph Hooper, is a member of the church another daughter being Mrs. John McKelvey, of Durham. Following these was a Mr. Mulloy, still living at Fish Creek, Alberta. Then came Rev Wm. Matheson, who died a few years ago, and on 5th May 1861, Rev Chas. Cameron was inducted to the charge his term covering the period 1860 to 1876. At his induction were present Rev. Wm. Park, Durham; Rev. Jas Cameron, Chatsworth; Rev. Donald McLean, Mount Forest, and others. This brought the Free Church branch up to the union period.

[Later—Since the foregoing was in type we learn that Rev. John McMillan, Mt Forest, was here in 1857, also a Rev. Mr. Lewis, Mono Mills, in the late 50's and Rev. John Campbell in the early 60's of last century.]

Running side by side in the village was a branch of the "Old Kirk," whose first preacher was John Hay with head quarters in Mt. Forest, followed by John Goodwill who died two years ago. then by Chas. Innis Cameron author of hymn 347 in the Presbyterian hymnal which hymn was sung as a reminder. Services were kept up fairly regularly during the period 1861 to 1867, when Rev. Don. Fraser comes on the scene as one of the strong pre-union men. He was inducted 14th August 1867 and his ministry ran till 1875. He went to Saugeen then to Mt. Forest and died in Brit. Columbia. Before the union of the two branches in October 1877, Rev. Alex McGillivray, the preacher of the day, and Rev. A. McKenzie ministered as students part of two summers in the "Old Kirk" and Free Church respectively.

The first elders of the Free Church, elected July 30, 1861, were Dugald McInnes, Neil McCannel, Jno. Stewart. The first of the Old Kirk were A. McBride, Allan Cameron, Dugald McLean, and the first recorded minutes of the session bears date Sept. 15, 1861. All have now gone to their reward. It appears that the first meeting of Grey Presbytery in connection with the Free Church, was held in Montreal, 12th June, 1861.

The rivalry between the two branches up to the union period had been quite marked, and there was needed a strong and judicious man to cement them; that man was found in Rev. Donald McLeod, who, from

Chesley was Outclassed

About 200 spectators had the privilege of witnessing the first lacrosse match (that came off) in town this season last Friday afternoon and the satisfaction of seeing the home boys win, though rather easily. The score was 13 to 2, though perhaps this hardly indicates the merits of the teams, as Chesley would probably have secured two or three more but for Lavelle's fine stops. It would be almost impossible to particularize as all our boys played good lacrosse and outshone all previous performances this season.

Not for being fast was the match noted, though in spots there were brilliant combination rushes: more so for the clean work of both teams. Referee Waghorne of Toronto had nothing to do, no one to rule off and no player was even injured. It would be a good example to pattern after in future matches in this district—or any where else. In a number of centres, though not in this group particularly lacrosse has yet to be raised to the standard of clean sport.

The Chesley team lack mainly in experience, as for the majority of the team, Intermediate C. L. A. lacrosse is entirely new. The table shows when and by whom the goals were secured:
