The Reaper has been here again and gathered home a pioneer in the person of Mr Alexander Marshall. Deceased was born in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1832 emigrated to Hamilton, Canada when 22 years of age. For many years past he has been a resident of Normanby, faithful adherent of Knox Church and highly respected neighbor. Miss Barbara and brother Albert on the farm and Mrs And. Marshall, of Durham, will miss a kindly father, the mother having gone five years before. His illness—pneumonia—was only of two weeks duration when Saturday morning he quietly passed to the beyond. "At Home" in Priceville.

On Friday evening last the young people of Priceville and neighborhood assembled at Watson's Hall and participated in one of the most enjoyable dances of the season.

The night was clear and moonlight—the roads smooth and sparkling, the air full of melody as sleigh load after sleigh load drove up, bearing the happy boys and girls whose voices lent harmony with the sound of the sleigh bells. The guests were at once welcomed and ushered into a warm and comfortable reception room

Priceville never appeared happier.

The decorations in the hall showed careful preparation. Bunting and evergreens tastefully arranged lent effect and good cheer to everything. All the requisites for a pleasant ball were at hand; good room, splendid light, free ventilation, a well waxed floor, excellent music, and plenty of genial company, with a supper well served and in great abundance.

Something like sixty couple did honors to the occasion. It need hardly be said that on every hand was to be heard praise for the manner in which the arrangements had been carried out. There was not a dissenting voice; the members from every home worked in harmony, each sharing the responsibility nothing could be more desirable nor appeal to one's better nature. The young ladies who provided the supper deserve special mention indeed for it was sumptuous and in abundance and they did not spare themselves in their part of the work.

At 8.30 Dr Atkinson honorably opened the dance with an address of welcome and formally introduced Mr Arch McMillan, of Montana, as floor manager. The orchestra, made up by Mr Neil McKinnon, (violin), Thos. McDougall, (violin,) Fred Runciman, (piccolo) and Mrs Runciman, accompanist, struck up a lively air and the manager announced a quadrille with Mr. Angus McLachlan as "caller." Angus is especially noted for his spirited qualities in this capacity and much credit is due him on this occasion. His dancing too was admired by all.

As the evening went by it become apparent that the manager was a professional, no embarassments nor unpleasant features occurred to mar the pleasure of the evening. He soon proved himself to be master of the situation.

Supper was served with willing hands at 10 o'clock after which the dance was resumed.

At varying intervals the music was supplied by Peter McArthur, Billy McKechnie, Joe Black and Peter McIntyre accompanied by Misses O'Neil and McVicar.

The boys who were very active in the management are Angus McLachlan, Arch McMillan (Montana,) Wm. Reilly, Donald McMillan, (Manitoba,) Ben McKinnon, Alex McMillan, Donald McLean, Arch McMillan, Herm McLean, Frank Reiley, Malcolm McLean, Peter McIntyre, Angus McMillan, Peter McArthur, Dr Atkinson and others.

The party broke up at 4.30 a m and each left for home feeling that it was one of the most sociable and pleasant evenings ever spent in Priceville.
