PRICEVILLE

The rain on this Monday morning, the 27th July, interfered with haymaking and now it's wringing wet and will take some time before it is fit to take in. However it's an ill wind that doesn't blow some good. The rain is the making of roots and late grain and such like. We heard a weather wise man say that this moon is going to be a wet one, as in stands pretty well on end. Consequently the rain has no basin inside the moon to keep it from coming down, but we are not going to vouch for the correctness of these predictions, so we will have to do as they do all ever the universe when it rains "let it," we cannot hinder it.

Take it on an average and the haying is not much more than half done in this locality.

Grain crops are looking well since the showery weather came.

Potato bugs are numerous, but a good dose of paris green will soon put them out of business.

The Rev. Mr Young, of Clifford, preached in the Presbyterian church here last Sunday. Mr Young is one of the old style preachers who gave good solid sermons.

The Rev. Donald McKay of Dunwich, is to preach next Sunday morning and evening We presume he is a good Scotsman and we do not know whether he can preach gaelic or not next Sunday, regular gaelic Sunday, but it's not necessary to have it, so it's not expected to have gaelic that day.

Civic holiday is to be observed in this town in good style on Monday, 3rd Aug. The ladies of the Presbyterian church are to provide eatables in the basement of the church for all those who need the necessary food to support them till they get home. The charges will be the usual rates at such gatherings. All are welome to come and taste the good things provided by the ladies, for Priceville ladies cannot be beat for good palatable eatables on such occasions as this.

The sheds at the Presbyterian church will be in course of erection this or next week. The timber is all on the grounds and the fine basement will soon be covered over by having a closed in roof.

Mr and Mrs James Black, of Oak River, Man, who visited friends in this part during the past couple of weeks, will be leaving for their home in a few days.

Miss Jennie McLean is visiting her friends on the south line, Artemesia, the Burnet family and McLean's.

36 YEARS AGO

From the Review of August 1, 1878

Rev Mr Park is absent from his charge at present for a few weeks for the benefit of his health.

Proton Ag. Show will be held at Hopeville on October 8th.

Our readers will learn with unfeigned pleasure that the Marquis of Lorne has been appointed to the Governor-Generalship of Canada. The London Times highly approves of the appointment, and the Toronto Globe says that "no selection could have shown greater confidence in the future of this country and none could be more beneficial."

Rev Charles Cameron who spent some weeks among old friends here lately, and who preached with such acceptance at the time in the Presbyterian church, has resumed his labors in his charge at Roxborough and Finch

The Durham Dramatic Club gave their entertainment in the Town Hall Monday evening and although not so well patronized as we think they deserved, still a very good house turned out to witness their first performance. Professor Lewis, under whose able supervision the Club has been formed, distinguished himself, as usual, in his laughable and faithful depiction of negro characteristics.

On July 29, the by-law for granting a bonus of $20,000 to the Wellington & Georgian Bay Railway was carried in Glenelg by 306 majority, the largest yet obtained. The figures are, for 443 against 137..... Bentinck Council met Tuesday for the purpose of taking into consideration the submission of a similar by-law. Action in the matter was postponed till next meeting owing to irregularities in the petition.

Concentration

It is better to advertise intensively than extensively when the sum to be devoted to advertising is small. This means the regular use of the DURHAM REVIEW—52 messages a year addressed to the same constituency of readers.

Intermittent or divided effort is not likely to be resultful. One full-powered blow is better than two half blows.

Concentration of appeal will do a work of conviction and persuasion that will surprise you when the year's returns are totalled up.

A NOTE TO THE PUBLIC

There's advice for you in this little homily to advertisers; it is: Reward with a full—not divided custom the merchant who steadfastly solicits your good-will. The more you strengthen the hands of the man who serves you, the better will be the service returned.
