WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form.

Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body; and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building-tonic, free from any harmful drugs. Try it.

Passing of Two Pioneers

MR JAMES DURANT

One of holstein's oldest residents passed away on Friday. July 20th in the person of James Durant. He had attained the age of 84 years, being born Sept 1st, 1833 in the county of Waterioo near the village of Winterbourne.

In 1856 he married Miss Honor Brunt who survives him. Thirty-six years ago he moved to Lot 13, con 12 Egremont where he remained until ten years ago when he retired from farming, and moved to Holstein.

He was a faithful member of the Methodist church and attended regularly as long as health permitted. In politics Mr Durant was a Conservative.

Ten children were born to Mr and Mrs Durant. There are three boys—James in Mt Forest: Alvin in Tuxford, Sask: John of Egremont. Also there were seven daughters one of which died in infancy—Mary (Mrs Murdock) eeceased; Esther (Mrs Runciman) deceased; Emma (Mrs Knight) Denver, Col; Sarah (Mrs St Leger) Toronto: Ella (Mrs Orchard) Holstein; Addie (Mrs Moses) Toronto.

His parents were English and he was born near Elora in Nov 1836 two weeks after his parents came to America. When a child he came with them to their farm at Woodland and their he lived until twelve years ago when he went to Sault Ste Marie.

His wife's maiden name was Miss Mary Elizabeth Moshier, from near Mt Forest and of this union ten children were born, two boys dying in infancy. His wife predeceased him sixteen years ago.

The children living are Francis C, Sault Ste Marie; Will in the West; Henry E 6th con Egremont; John in the West; David M Forget, Sask; Addie (Mrs Robb) Egremont: Maud (Mrs Ling) Battle Creek, Mich.

At last the much looked for Entrance reports are at hand bringing joy or disappointment to the candidates. To those whose names do not appear in the list we would say that failure is no disgrace to those who do their best. "Not failure but low aim is crime" is philosophy worth remembering. So up and at it once more. "Try bravely again and remember the spider and king." Make of failures stepping stones to higher things, as many of the world's foremost men and women have done. At No 10, three out of four writing passed. Annie Nicholsor, Leslie Eccles and Murray McGillivray—Annie taking honors. At No 9, four of the five passed—Tena Merchant, Hylda Whyte, Annie Aberdeen and Margaret Ferguson, Tena taking honors. Hearty congratulations to teachers and pupils.

Mr and Mrs J Lane of Swinton Park visited their Yeovil friends over the week end. Pleased to see them able to be here again after his recent operation.

A number of the neighbors and friends of Mr and Mrs Jas Brown gathered at their home Friday evening to bid them farewell before leaving for their new home in the West. The evening was spent in games and music consisting of an address read to the family and a sugar and cream service presented to Mrs Brown. The address is as follows;

Mr and Mrs Jas Brown and family,

Dear friends;

We learn with regret, your decision to leave Orchard and try once more to mend your fortunes in the land of promise, and because we expect to miss you very much in the days to come. We have gathered here to-night to spend a social hour and to wish you God speed in your new venture.

You have been good neighbors and your influence as a family will leave a gap in our social sphere.

To you, Mrs Brown would we especially say a word of thanks for your unremitting labor in Church and Sunday School work more especially the Sunday School. Your lessons have been carefully prepared and taught in an impressive manner, and the seed sown will with God' blessing, undoubtedly bring forth an abundant harvest.

In the furrows of thy life scatter seed
In the midst of toil and strife
Scatter seed.
Who can tell where grain may grow
Winds are blowing to and fro
Sow the kindly word and deed
Scatter seed.

At the time of our Christmas celebrations your spirit of enthusiasm was infectious and in drilling the young recruits you excelled. We will sadly miss you, but since none of us are indispensible, we trust that some of those you have trained will follow in your footsteps.

Your example of being always in your place, and always on time must have an influence through years to come.

In Red Cross work or whatever good work was undertaken in the neighborhood you and yours have borne their share.

Having so many good qualities you are honored as Queen in your own home and to you is given the privilege of dispensing the good things of life.

Will you then on behalf of yourself and family accept this cream and sugar service with our best wishes.

Signed on behalf of the Methodist Church, Methodist Sunday School, Red Cross Society.

Mrs W T Pinder,
Mrs R Robertson,
Mrs A Tuck

Mrs Brown replied very appropriate followed by speeches by Mr Dickson and Mr Tuck.

Mrs Rev. Kendall is improving slowly. She is at present visiting at Mr D. Hamilton's.

Miss Florence Ramage is taking a week's holidays at her home here before returning to Harriston where she is employed on behalf of Imperial Government necessities.

Owing to continued wet weather the corn crop in some places is a failure so much so that some have sowed rape after cultivating while others have turned in the cattle. However the hay crop is fully assured.

Congratulations to those who passed the Entrance examinations and encouragement to those who failed to try again.
