Patriotism and Profit

It is patriotic to buy War Savings Stamps because Canada must have money for reconstruction.

But it is also profitable to buy War Savings Stamps because you are investing in Government Bonds yielding over 4½%.

You don't need to be a capitalist. You can start with 25 cents. Buy a Thrift Stamp for a quarter. When you have sixteen of them, exchange them for a War Savings Stamp, and you will have laid the foundation of a solid investment with your odd savings.

You can add to this investment as often as you save $4.00, and in 1924 the Government will pay $5.00 for every War Savings Stamp you buy now for $4.00 odd.

This is the biggest opportunity ever afforded to wage earners to become investors.

BUY W.S.S. WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

War Savings Stamps can be bought wherever this sign is displayed.

SWINTON PARK

A number of friends and neighbors assembled at the home of Mr and Mrs Donald McDonald to welcome home Pte. Jno McDonald and Jake Weltz. These boys were trained together, went overseas together, were together over there and came home together, one of the rather singular instances. The crowd was called to order and Mr John Weir was made chairman. A program of various numbers, including speeches, recitations and solos was carried out. The boys were presented with a purse and an address which was read by Mrs John Porter. Following is the address:

Dear Boys,—

We, your friends and neighbors, are here this evening to give you welcome on your return from over seas. We rejoice that you have been kept from all danger and deadly perils of war. Our prayers and wishes that you might be returned to your friends have been answered.

By doing your part in this world war you have made sacrifices that few of us have been called upon to make. You gave up your loved ones your home, your liberty in order that we, who remained at home, might be free. We appreciate what you have done and we shall not forget that it is through the sacrifices made by the young manhood of our own land we share the glory of liberty, the joy of victory and the peace of home.

Even though the war is over, we as well as you, have still a soldiers' part to play. The principles for which our men so bravely fought and many even paid the supreme sacrifice, these principles of right, honor and freedom must be upheld throughout our fair Dominion.

The name that Canada's noble sons have made for her must live on in the hearts of her sons and daughters. May we everyone be able to say as in America's Answer

"Fear not that ye have died for naught
The torch ye threw to us is caught
Ten million hands will hold it high,
And Freedom's light shall never die
We have learned the lesson that ye taught
In Flanders' fields.

As a slight token of appreciation of the part you played, accept this purse.

Peace!

"Blessed Peace," we are in the habit of saying, and we hope the Peace signed on Saturday last will be of that character.

The "setting" for the signing, was an elaborate affair: in the great historic Hall at Versailles, hung with ancient and modern tapestry, with opportunity for many notables to witness the great deed. Here, 48 years ago, the Germans dictated the procedure, and humiliated France had to sign over Alsace-Lorraine, had to agree to a large indemnity, and had to grin and bear many insulting conditions imposed by her conquerors. Then she was alone: to-day she has the backing of the leading nations of the world.

Through the galaxy of notables, and the trappings of grandeur, the Germans delegated to sign the peace treaty, had to run the gauntlet, "the observed of all observers." Their cup of humiliation was full. One thing was lacking: the ex-Kaiser should have been given a kitchen chair to witness the humiliation brought upon his country by him and his like!

Blessed Peace! We have our doubts Germany is in a sulky mood. It is a peace of force. Everyone believes that if opportunity offered, Germany would wantonly make this great treaty another scrap of paper. She has shown not a sign of repentance nor contrition, and it will need the watchful eye of the League of Nations to see that Germany is not again allowed to clothe herself with the panoply of war.

Only China of the League did not sign. She wanted certain reservations, that the big 4 would not grant. Gen. Smutz, of S. Africa, signed, but recorded a protest against what he considered undue severity in some of the terms. If Germany will show good faith in carrying out the obligations the wisdom of the nations have placed upon her, relaxations will no doubt be gladly made. All honor to Smutz, one of the brainest men of our times, who knows what generous treatment by Britain did for his country. "Blessed are the Merciful"

THE EXPLANATION

Nature placed the growth-promoting "vitamins" in the oil of the cod-fish—this explains why is so definite in its help to a child of any age. Latter-day science reveals that the "vitamins" are needful for normal growth.

Scott's Emulsion

Scott's Emulsion will help any child grow.
