DEATH

Jennifer Armstrong Eckert
February 18th, 1964 - June 10th, 2007

Thank-You, Thank-You, Thank-You, from Spencer and myself, from the hundreds of people who attended Jennifer's visitation and funeral to show their love for all of us, it was fantastic. Jennifer would have been amazed, but probably not surprised. To the Armstrong family who welcomed me into the family 23 years ago, to the people of St. George's Church and Rev. Rob Park, from Baptism to Wedding to Funeral, Jennifer nurtured her spirituality at St. George's, to Mike's friends and co-workers at Gateway Chevrolet. To my loyal Ray's Property Services customers who have also become friends. To our great friends and neighbours on Pennington Crescent. To Spencer's friends and teachers at Centennial, his soccer coach and teammates. To all our past co-workers at North Halton, where Jen and I met and got married, where we all worked hard and loved and respected each other, the best years of my life, you guys are the best. To Jennifer's Girls, to have that kind of love and friendship is very rare, hold that in your hearts forever. To Denean and Sharon whose love for Jen was undeniable, she loved you two just as much, to Jen's sister, Mandy who works tirelessly, learning, caring, serving and helping people never wanting the praise she so richly deserves. To Bucky, Britt and Jeremy who have become great friends. To my brother, Stu whose daily phone calls for 6 weeks, from Winterpeg to offer support, insight and wisdom, to help me through this. Thank you, all.

Wonderful, beautiful, gorgeous, caring, all words that could describe Jennifer, but words cannot capture the essence of who she was. The way her eyes sparkled for Spencer and I, her kindness, her spirit, her sense of humour, and her grace, truly one of a kind. I am blessed to have a wonderful son Spencer, equal parts Jennifer and I, two halves make a whole. It was my privilege to be with and love Jennifer for 23 years, she rocked my world every day.

She made me the person I have become.

"I'll Love You Forever Jen, I'll Love You Forever".

Ray Eckert
